BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF THE COMPANY

MDC is a publicly traded international organization with operating units in Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom and Australia. MDC is a leading provider of marketing communications services, and secure transaction products and services, to customers in more than 60 countries. MDC carries on business through two operating divisions:

i. Marketing Communications Division; and
ii. Secure Products International Division

Marketing Communications Division

MDC Partners Inc. is the largest full-service marketing communications organization based in Canada. Its subsidiaries provide a comprehensive range of communications services in Canada, the United States and the United Kingdom. Marketing communication services include advertising, direct marketing, database management, sales promotion, corporate communications, marketing research, corporate identity and branding, and interactive marketing.

The Marketing Communications Division operates through its integrated communications and its specialized communications companies. The Company's integrated communications operating companies are listed below.

Integrated Communications Companies

Companies comprising MDC's integrated communications businesses deliver solutions to clients using a variety of marketing communications services. By carefully analyzing the requirements of each client, they select and combine the relevant services to ensure consistency in the delivery of the client's image and brand. Because the integrated companies offer a full range of services, the solutions they deliver are client-based, not service-based. As a result, profitability is measured on a client basis, and not on a service basis.

The integrated communications companies of the Marketing Communications Division are listed below.

Allard Johnson Communications Inc.
In 1999, LBJ.FRB Communications Inc., a Marketing Communications Division operating company since 1992, merged with Allard et Associes Inc. to form Allard Johnson Communications Inc. Computer Composition has been in business since 1982.

Pro-Image Corporation
This company serves the U.S. market and specializes in pre-press services for publishers of educational, engineering and reference textbooks as well as technical and medical journals.

Secure Products International Division

The Secure Products International Division provides security products and services in three primary areas: electronic transaction products, such as credit, debit, telephone and smart cards; secure ticketing products, such as airline, transit and event tickets; and stamps, both postal and excise.

Electronic Transaction Products

Metaca Corporation provides security card manufacturing and personalization for plastic and smart card programs. With operations in both Canada and Australia, MDC is a market leader in card solutions for a broad range of business segments including banks, credit card companies, long distance and mobile telecommunication providers, insurance companies and governments. The Australian operations consist of Placard Pty Ltd.

Secure Ticketing Products

MDC participates in the global secure ticketing business through its Canadian operation Mercury Graphics. Mercury Graphics manufactures secure ticketing products in three major industry segments: airline, transit and event ticketing. Mercury's clients include Air Canada, British Airways, Northwest Airlines, Virgin Atlantic Airways, Toronto Transit Commission, BC Transit, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Detroit Red Wings, Chicago Bulls, Boston Celtics, Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco 49ers.

Stamps

The MDC stamp companies, consisting of Ashton-Potter (USA) Ltd. and Ashton-Potter Canada Limited, comprise one of the world's largest private sector manufacturers of postage stamps. The group has a long-term contract with the United States Postal Service (USPS) and produces definitive and commemorative products for Canada Post Corporation. A contract award from the USPS in 2003 establishes Ashton-Potter (USA) Ltd. as one of three private sector providers, resulting in dramatic volume increases. A large investment in equipment and technology has been made to meet these demands, positioning MDC as an industry leader in stamp production.

Competition

Marketing Communications Division

The marketing communications industry is highly competitive. Management believes that the Perpetual Partnership(TM) model, including the value-creating capabilities of its corporate resources and the service composition of its various operating companies, provide the Company with a competitive advantage in the industry.

The operating companies of the Marketing Communications Division compete for acquisitions in the highly fragmented marketing and communications industry with large global consolidators such as Omnicom Group Inc., Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc., WPP Group plc, Publicis Group SA and Havas Advertising. MDC relies on the attributes of its Perpetual Partnership(TM) business model, including the opportunity for owners to maintain equity in the operating business and operational independence, to compete for and attract new acquisitions and to attract and retain experienced and talented professional staff.

Each of the operating companies within the Marketing Communications Division face competition from large multinational marketing communications companies operating in Canada and/or the United States, as well as numerous smaller agencies that only operate in one or more countries or local markets. The Company's operating companies must compete with these other companies to maintain existing client relationships and to obtain new clients and assignments.

The Company's operating companies compete at this level by identifying and developing sectors or niches which have historically been underserved by other marketing communications companies. These niches include the regional operations of multinational corporations and national companies with mid-sized marketing budgets.

The Company's integrated communications services companies compete principally by offering clients integrated solutions and managing a client's brand consistency across a broad range of communications services including both advertising and non-traditional services. The specialized communications companies compete principally by offering clients depth of expertise in a specialized marketing communications discipline. MDC also benefits from two-way referrals and cross-selling of services based on expertise, and the complexity and service scope of client requirements.

A company's ability to compete for new clients is affected in some instances by the policy, which many advertisers and marketers follow, of not permitting their agencies to represent competitive accounts in the same market. As a result, increasing size may limit a company's ability to compete for certain new clients. In the vast majority of cases, however, MDC's consistent maintenance of separate, independent operating companies has enabled the Company to represent competing clients.

Secure Products International Division

Competition in the Company's markets is primarily dependent upon quality, reliability and service. Price is also an important criteria, but is secondary to the initial requirement for a supplier to satisfy a potential customer that it has the proven ability to meet the primary criteria.

In both Canada and the United States, government and public corporation security products are generally awarded on the basis of competitive bidding procedures through Requests for Proposals (RFP's). These RFP's require a bidder to provide detailed information regarding price, security, manufacturing capabilities and quality control processes. These RFP submissions form the basis for the awarding of contracts. Contracts are generally awarded on a multi-year basis.

MDC is one of the largest suppliers in the Canadian card market and the number two supplier in the Australian card market. MDC's secure ticketing business has the number two market share position in secure ticketing products in North America. MDC is also one of the largest private sector stamp suppliers world-wide.

Industry Trends

Marketing Communications Division

Significant trends exist in the marketing communications industry. Historically, advertising has been the primary service provided by the industry. However, as clients aim to establish one-to-one relationships with customers, and more accurately measure the effectiveness of their marketing expenditures, specialized communications services are consuming a growing portion of marketing dollars. This is increasing the demand for a broader range of services particularly "below the line" or "non-traditional" services. As well, there is an increasing need for consistent brand communication in response to increased competition from globalization and deregulation.

Large multinational organizations have shown a tendency towards consolidation of their marketing communications providers into one firm that provides services to all international locations. As a result, communications and marketing services providers with a broader geographical scope that better positions them to provide services that meet these needs may be more successful at maintaining exiting or winning new business.

The Company's success in this environment has been in the past and is expected to continue to be dependent on the ability to retain and attract key executive and management personnel and employees, to maintain relationships with existing clients and successfully bid on new business, and to staff projects with the expertise required.

Secure Products International Division

The continuing growth expected in the areas of e-commerce and the Internet and the imminence of the "smart card" revolution are anticipated to positively impact MDC.

In April 2003, it was announced Ashton-Potter (USA) Ltd. had been awarded a long-term contract by the United States Postal Service ("USPS") to provide definitive and commemorative postage stamp products. The USPS awarded production of all U.S. postage stamp products to three successful suppliers. The three master contracts awarded are for the printing, finishing and packaging of U.S. postage stamps with an initial base term of four years and have an aggregate estimated value (for all three contractors) of US$229 million. In addition, there are also three two-year options to the base contracts for a potential contractual term of 10 years. If all the option years are exercised, the potential value of the three contracts over the 10 years would be US$572.5 million. This contract award positions Ashton-Potter as one of the largest producers of postage stamps in the world.

Employees

As at December 31, 2003, the Company and its subsidiaries had approximately 3,200 employees.

AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE DIRECTORS OF
MDC PARTNERS INC.

We have audited the consolidated balance sheets of MDC Partners Inc. as at December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001 and the consolidated statements of retained earnings, operations and cash flows for each of the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Canada. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

On February 24, 2004, we reported separately to the shareholders of MDC Partners Inc. on financial statements for the same period, prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles without the additional note of Reconciliation of Results Reported in Accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in Canada with United States Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.

MDC PARTNERS INC.
SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

DECEMBER 31, 2003, 2002 AND 2001

NATURE OF BUSINESS

MDC Partners Inc., formerly MDC Corporation Inc., is incorporated under the laws of Ontario. The Company commenced using the name MDC Partners Inc. on November 1, 2003 and legally changed its name through amalgamation with a wholly-owned subsidiary on January 1, 2004. The Company's operations are in primarily two business segments - Marketing Communications and Secure Products International.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The financial statements include the accounts of the Company and any effectively controlled subsidiary companies and are prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada. Interests in joint ventures are recorded using the proportionate consolidation method. Acquisitions are consolidated from the effective date of acquisition with intercompany transactions and accounts eliminated upon consolidation.

INVESTMENTS

Investments in which the Company does not have control or have significant influence are valued at the lower of cost or market.

INVENTORY

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined on a first-in, first-out basis.

CAPITAL ASSETS

Capital assets are recorded at cost.

Amortization is provided as follows:

Buildings	- 4-5% straight-line
Computer, furniture and fixtures	- 20-50% declining bal
Machinery and equipment	- 10-20% declining bal
Leasehold improvements	- straight-line over t the lease

DEFERRED CHARGES

The Company capitalizes direct costs related to development of new products and services until the commencement of commercial operations, at which time all related costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life.

DEFERRED FINANCE COSTS

Deferred finance costs are amortized over the term of the related indebtedness.

FUTURE INCOME TAXES

The Company uses the liability method of tax allocation for accounting for income taxes. Under the liability method of tax allocation, future tax assets and liabilities are determined based on differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the substantially enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse.

FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION

Historically, the Company's consolidated financial statements have been presented in Canadian dollars. In order to more fully reflect the U.S. nature of the Company's business and shareholder base, and to improve investors' ability to compare the Company's results with those of most other publicly traded businesses in the marketing communications industry, which also report in U.S. dollars, the U.S. dollar was adopted as the Company's reporting currency effective September 30, 2003. The functional currencies of each of the Company's operations are unchanged. The consolidated financial statements and notes thereto have been restated in U.S. dollars for all periods presented.

With the exception of the Company's foreign subsidiaries, foreign currency assets and liabilities carried at current prices are translated into Canadian dollars using the rate of exchange in effect at the year end; other foreign currency assets and liabilities are translated using the rates of exchange in effect at the dates of the transaction; long-term monetary assets and liabilities with a fixed term which have been hedged are translated using the rate per the hedge agreements; revenue and expense items are translated at the average monthly rate of exchange for the year, except for amortization of capital and other assets which is translated at the historical rates of the related assets. The asset and liability accounts of foreign subsidiaries self-sustaining operations are translated using the rate of exchange in effect at the year end and revenues and expenses are translated at the average monthly rates during the year.

The unrealized foreign exchange gains and losses on translation of the accounts of foreign subsidiaries are reflected as a separate component of shareholders' equity.

Effective January 1, 2002, the Company adopted the recommendations of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA") with respect to the accounting for foreign exchange gains or losses relating to translation of non-hedged long-term monetary assets and liabilities. Previously such gains or losses were deferred and amortized over the remaining term of the related assets or liabilities. The Institute now requires that exchange gains or losses arising on translation of all non-hedged monetary items be included in the determination of net income for the current period. The accounting policy change has been applied retroactively with restatement of prior periods as recommended by the CICA (see note 1).

Effective July 1, 2002, management designated the Company's 10.5% U.S. Senior Subordinated Notes ("Notes") as a hedge against the foreign exchange exposure of the Secure Transactions U.S. operations. The hedge is applied prospectively from the effective date whereby any foreign exchange translation adjustment of the Notes will reduce any offsetting foreign exchange translation adjustment of the U.S. operations, the net of which is reflected in the cumulative translation account within shareholders' equity.

All other foreign exchange gains and losses are included in net income or loss in the current period.

GOODWILL

Goodwill represents the price paid for acquisitions in excess of the fair market value of net assets acquired. Effective January 1, 2002, the Company adopted the recommendations of the CICA with respect to goodwill and other intangibles. These standards require that goodwill and other intangible assets determined to have indefinite lives are no longer amortized but tested for impairment on adoption of the standard and at least annually thereafter. Transitional impairment tests for goodwill were completed as at June 30, 2002 and, as a result, a transitional impairment loss was charged to opening retained earnings (see note 1). Prior to 2002, the Company amortized goodwill on a straight-line basis over periods ranging from 10 to 40 years. Goodwill arising on acquisitions completed after June 30, 2001 was not amortized.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue is recognized using the percentage of completion method with respect to contracts having a specified time period for the performance of the service. Percentage of completion is determined based either on (a) the fair value of the project at each particular stage relative to its total fair value on completion, or, (b) based on costs incurred to date relative to the expected total costs to be incurred upon completion. Work in progress is estimated as the portion of revenue which has been earned but not billed. Customer billings in advance are recorded as deferred revenue. Potential losses, if any, on work in progress are provided for as soon as the possibility of a loss becomes apparent.

All other revenue is recorded when the service is completed and/or the product is delivered.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS	The Company's financial instruments consist of cash and short-term investments, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, long-term indebtedness and derivative financial instruments. The Company has used derivative financial instruments to manage its exposure to market risks relating to interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates. At December 31, 2003, the Company was not party to any derivative financial instrument.
CREDIT RISK	The Company's financial assets that are exposed to credit risk consist primarily of cash, accounts receivable and derivative financial instruments. The Company, in its normal course of business, is exposed to credit risk from its customers.
FAIR VALUE	The fair value of long-term indebtedness (see note 7) that bears interest at fixed rates is based on its quoted market price or on discounted future cash flows using rates currently available for debt of similar terms and maturities if the quoted market price was not available. The fair value of other financial instruments, cash and short-term investments, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness and accounts payable and accrued liabilities, approximates carrying value due to their short-term maturities.
INTEREST RATE RISK	The Company's principal exposure to interest rate fluctuations is with respect to certain of its long-term indebtedness, which bear interest at floating rates.
CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS	The Company considers all cash and highly liquid investments purchased with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash or cash equivalents.
	The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts that, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risks on cash and cash equivalents.

DECEMBER 31, 2003, 2002 AND 2001

STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

Effective January 1, 2002, the Company adopted the recommendations of the CICA with respect to stock-based compensation and other stock-based payments. These standards require that direct awards of stock and liabilities based on the price of common stock be measured at fair value at each reporting date, with the change in fair value reported in the statement of operations, and encourages, but does not require, the use of the fair value method for all other types of employee stock-based compensation plans.

During the fourth quarter of 2003, the Company decided to adopt the fair value based method of accounting for all its stock-based compensation. The Company adopted these changes using the prospective application transitional alternative. Accordingly, the fair value based method is applied to awards granted, modified or settled on or after January 1, 2003. When the awards are exercised, share capital is credited by the sum of the consideration paid together with the related portion previously credited to contributed surplus when costs were charged against income or acquisition consideration.

Prior to January 1, 2003, the Company did not use the fair value method to account for employee stock-based compensation plans but disclosed pro forma information for options granted after January 1, 2002 (see note 8). Furthermore the Company recorded no compensation expense when options were issued to employees, and any consideration paid by employees on the exercise of options was credited to share capital.

ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from management's best estimates as additional information becomes available in the future.

DECEMBER 31, 2003, 2002, 2001

1. CHANGES IN SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION

Effective January 1, 2002, the Company adopted the recommendation of the CICA with respect to the accounting for foreign exchange gains or losses relating to translation of non-hedged long-term monetary assets and liabilities.

The effects of the change, which has been applied retroactively, are a decrease to capital assets and retained earnings as at January 1, 2002 of $15,470 (2001 - $6,732). Net income for the year ended December 31, 2001 was decreased from the amount previously reported by $8,732 primarily related to the unrealized foreign exchange loss of $12,034.

GOODWILL

Effective January 1, 2002, the Company adopted the recommendations of the CICA with respect to goodwill and other intangibles. These standards require that goodwill and other intangible assets determined to have indefinite lives are no longer amortized but tested for impairment on adoption of the standard and at least annually thereafter.

Transitional impairment tests for goodwill were completed by June 30, 2002 and, as a result, a transitional impairment loss of $62,477 (net of income tax recovery of $10,045) was charged to the 2002 opening retained earnings.

2. ACQUISITIONS

The following are the acquisitions during the period. These acquisitions were accounted for by the purchase method and consolidated from the respective effective date of acquisition.

2001 Acquisitions:

Effective January 8, 2001, the Company acquired 49% of Crispin Porter + Bogusky LLC.

Effective January 31, 2001, the Company acquired 100% of the Canadian card services business of MIST Inc.

Effective February 15, 2001, the Company acquired an additional 16% of CyberSight Acquisition Co., Inc.

Effective March 1, 2001, the Company acquired 100% of The Marketing Department LLC.

Effective June 15, 2001, the Company acquired 100% of McCool Communications.

Effective July 25, 2001, the Company acquired 79.17% of Grange

Advertising Limited.

2002 Acquisitions:

None.

2. ACQUISITIONS (CONTINUED)

2003 Acquisitions:

Effective January 1, 2003, the Company acquired the remaining 5.96% of Colle & McVoy, Inc. that it did not already own.

Effective March 31, 2003, the Company acquired an additional 1.52% of Allard Johnson Communications Inc. to own 54.3%.

Effective July 31, 2003, the Company acquired the remaining 26% of Maxxcom Inc. ("Maxxcom") that it did not already own through a plan of arrangement (the "privatization of Maxxcom").

Effective August 15, 2003, the Company acquired the remaining 38.7% of Interfocus Network Ltd. that it did not already own.

Effective September 30, 2003, the Company acquired the remaining 15% of Metaca Corporation that it did not already own.

Effective October 1, 2003, the Company acquired an additional 6.17% of Source Marketing, LLC to own 87.67%.

The assets acquired and the consideration given are as follows:

	DECEMBER 31,
	2003	2002	2001

6. Goodwill

Effective January 1, 2002, the Company adopted the new standards of the CICA Handbook Secti 3062 for accounting for goodwill and other intangible assets. These standards require that goodwill no longer be amortized, but tested for impairment, at least annually by comparison its fair value. Pursuant to these standards, management of the Company completed the transitional impairment test as at June 30, 2002. By applying the prescribed method of comparing the fair value of its reporting units to the carrying amounts of its reporting units, the Company assessed its goodwill and recorded a transitional impairment loss of $62,477 net of income taxes ($72,522 before income taxes) directly as a reduction to openin retained earnings (deficit) at January 1, 2002.

The original cost and accumulated amortization of goodwill as at December 31, 2001 was as f

On December 8, 2003, the Company issued $26,344 (C$34,155) of adjustable rate exchangeable securities due December 31, 2028. Based on the performance of Custom Direct Income Fund (the "Fund") for the period ended December 31, 2003, the Company was entitled to exchange its shares of Custom Direct, Inc. for units of the Fund. The units of the Fund were then applied by the Company in full settlement of the adjustable rate exchangeable securities. The transaction was completed on February 13, 2004.

The Maxxcom stand-alone credit facility provides for an aggregate maximum borrowing of up to $39,414 (C$51,100) bearing interest at rates which depend on certain of Maxxcom's financial ratios and which vary in accordance with borrowing rates in Canada and the United States. The maximum aggregate borrowing reduces by $5,399 (C$7,000) per quarter until maturity on March 31, 2005. The facility is secured by a general security agreement, a pledge of shares of Maxxcom's subsidiaries and an assignment of intercompany debt.

On July 11, 2001, Maxxcom issued a C$40,000 subordinated debenture, which bears interest at bankers' acceptance plus 8%. It is secured by a general security agreement, a pledge of shares of Maxxcom's subsidiaries and intercompany debt and is ranked second to the Maxxcom stand-alone credit facility. In connection with the debenture, Maxxcom issued five-year warrants to the debenture holder which provided for the purchase of up to 1,349,850 Maxxcom shares at a price of C$9.00 per share. No value was assigned to the warrants.

In April 2002, Maxxcom reached agreements with its senior credit and subordinated debenture lenders to amend certain of its credit facilities covenants. In connection with these amendments, Maxxcom agreed to amend the exercise price of the warrants to acquire 1,349,850 Maxxcom common shares which were granted to the holders of the C$40,000 subordinated debenture. The exercise price was reduced from C$9.00 per share to C$2.50 per share. As a result of this amendment, the Company recorded a deferred finance charge of $493, representing the estimated value of the warrants at that time.

Upon the privatization of Maxxcom, the Maxxcom warrants were exchanged into 257,146 MDC warrants with an exercise price of C$13.12. The fair value of the MDC warrants was included as consideration in the privatization of Maxxcom.

The notes payable and other bank loans bear interest at rates ranging from prime less 0.5% to a fixed rate of 8.95% and are due between 2004 and 2010. The other bank loans are secured by a general security agreement with a specific subsidiary.

The mortgage and capital leases are secured by specific equipment, land and building.

In accordance with the Company's accounting policy on financial instruments, the net proceeds of C$47,350 of the 7% convertible debentures with the face value of C$50,000 were originally allocated C$14,350 to long-term indebtedness and C$33,000 to other paid-in capital within shareholders' equity. Additional amounts were capitalized annually to the equity portion of the notes in order that the equity portion of the notes equaled the face value at the estimated settlement date of January 2002. As the notes were not settled within the estimated period, the 7% convertible debentures were re-assessed in January 2002 with an allocation to long-term indebtedness from other paid-in capital, in the amount of $9,010, representing the present value of future interest payments. Additional amounts are capitalized annually to the equity portion of the notes in order that the equity portion of the notes will equal the face value at maturity. The 7% convertible debentures are convertible at the option of the holder into Class A shares at a rate of 49.261 Class A shares per one thousand Canadian dollars of debenture. The 7% convertible debentures are redeemable by the Company at par. The Company may, at its option, satisfy the obligation to repay the principal amount of the debentures on redemption or at maturity in freely tradable Class A shares. The debentures are unsecured and rank subordinate to all other indebtedness.

7. Long-term Indebtedness (Continued)

The approximate principal portion of long-term indebtedness repayable in each of the five years subsequent to December 31, 2003 is as follows:

2004	$ 18,646
2005	65,311
2006	4,162
2007	1,093
2008	4,056

Total	$120,758

Total interest on long-term indebtedness was $12,412 (2002 - $18,260, 2001 - $33,886). The Company's estimate of the fair value of its long-term indebtedness is as follows:

	December 31, 2003	2002	2001
Maturing within five years	$ 93,500	$ 148,000	$ 298,000
Maturing after five years	27,500	4,000	4,000

8. Share Capital

The authorized share capital of the Company is as follows:

An unlimited number of Class A shares (subordinate voting shares) carrying one vote each, entitled to dividends equal to or greater than Class B shares, convertible at the option of the holder into one Class B share for each Class A share after the occurrence of certain events related to an offer to purchase all Class B shares.

An unlimited number of Class B shares carrying 20 votes each, convertible at any time at the option of the holder into one Class A share for each Class B share.

An unlimited number of non-voting preference shares issuable in series.

Changes to the Company's issued and outstanding share capital are as follows:

The Company has an employee share option incentive plan, which currently may grant up to 2,331,112 options to employees, officers, directors and consultants of the Company. All options granted are for a term of five years from the date of grant and vest 20% on the date of grant and a further 20% on each anniversary date. In addition, the Company granted 534,960, on the privatization of Maxxcom, with a term of no more than ten years from initial date of grant by Maxxcom and vest 20% in each of the first two years with the balance vesting on the third anniversary of the initial grant.

The Company has reserved a total of 5,263,365 Class A shares in order to meet its obligations under various conversion rights, warrants and employee share options. At December 31, 2003 there were 275,698 shares available for future option grants.

In 2003, The Company recorded $180 compensation expense related to options issued to employees. Prior to 2003, the Company recorded no compensation expense when options were issued to employees but provided pro forma information for options granted after January 1, 2002. The Company estimates the fair value of each share option on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions: risk-free interest rate of 6%; expected volatility of 40%; expected option life of five years; and no dividend payments. Had compensation expense been recorded for employee stock option grants in 2002, the resulting pro forma net earnings and earnings per share would be as follows:

	For the year ended December 31, 2002
Pro forma net income	$ 93,263
Pro forma earnings per share

In May 2003, the Company sold an 80% interest in Custom Direct Inc. ("Custom") to the Custom Direct Income Fund ("the Fund") for cash and units of the Fund. The Fund units were subsequently sold. Total gross proceeds for the disposal of 80% of Custom were approximately $150,000. The net gain on asset dispositions includes charges for incentive payments to management including management of divested subsidiaries in the amount of $10,737 (2002 - $1,239, 2001 - $7,561). In accordance with its accounting policy of testing goodwill and other intangibles for impairment on an annual basis, the Company undertook an extensive review of all businesses comparing the book carrying value to the estimated fair market value of each operation. As a result, the Company recorded non-cash charges against specific assets of $11,211 and goodwill charges of $10,012.

During 2002, the Company disposed of its remaining interest in Davis + Henderson, A.E. McKenzie Co. Inc., The House of Questa Limited, Spectron Security Print Pty Ltd., Ashton-Potter Packaging and Cybersight Acquisition Co., Inc. for aggregate gross proceeds of approximately $189,000. Cash charges incurred relate to expenditures associated with the postponed income trust of Custom Direct including costs incurred to settle a supply contract dispute.

During 2001, the Company developed a plan to maximize the returns in its core businesses and construct an orderly exit from non-core activities. The plan included a reduction in the estimated useful life of deferred customer acquisition costs in the direct-to-consumer cheque market as a result of the absence of predictability in the direct response market, extensive cost reduction initiatives across the organization, including an approximate 15% reduction in the Company's workforce, the exit from certain leased facilities and the provisions against specific assets connected with various non-core businesses which will be exited in the foreseeable future. The resulting restructuring charge was comprised of non-cash charges of $107,839 related to writedowns in customer acquisition costs and other specific assets. The Company disposed of 45.45% of Davis + Henderson for aggregate gross proceeds of approximately $111,000. Cash charges amounted to $13,675 related primarily to employee termination costs and vaca

18. CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

a) As at December 31, 2003, there are claims against the Company in varying amounts. It is not possible to determine the amounts that may ultimately be assessed against the Company with respect to these claims, however, management believes that any such amounts would not have a material impact on the business or financial position of the Company.

b) Owners of interests in certain of the Company's subsidiaries have the right in certain circumstances to require the Company to purchase additional ownership stakes. A minority shareholder of one of the subsidiaries has given notice of intent to require the Company to purchase their remaining interest in the related subsidiary. The Company will be required to complete the purchase in the first quarter of 2004. It is estimated that this obligation will be approximately $800.

19. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company incurred fees totaling $8,006 (2002 - $2,421, 2001 - $3,466) to companies controlled by an officer of the Company in respect of services provided including merger and acquisition, financial and administrative. In addition, the Company has a non-interest bearing note receivable of $2,314, C$3,000, (2002 - $1,902, 2001 - $1,883) from another company controlled by the same officer.

20. Subsequent Events

On January 29, 2004, the Company purchased a 60% interest in kirshenbaum bond + partners for cash consideration of approximately $20,000 and share consideration of approximately $1,800.

On February 13, 2004, the Company applied its units of the Fund in full settlement of the adjustable rate exchangeable securities.

21. Segmented Information

Based on the Company's internal management structure, the Company's continuing operations are in primarily two business segments - Marketing Communications and Secure Transactions. Marketing Communications services, through MDC's network of entrepreneurial firms, include advertising and media, customer relationship management, and marketing services. Secure Transactions operations provide security products and services in three primary areas: electronic transaction products such as credit, debit, telephone and smart cards; secure ticketing products such as airline, transit and event tickets; and stamps, both postal and excise. The significant accounting policies of these segments are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies.

The following are the significant adjustments required to give effect to the differences between U.S. GAAP and Canadian GAAP which is the basis of presentation for the consolidated financial statements of the Company:

(a) Prior to January 1, 2003 certain deferred charges, which were capitalized under Canadian GAAP, were expensed in the period incurred under U.S. GAAP.

(b) Prior to January 1, 2001, under Canadian GAAP, the Company had a policy of including certain internal acquisition costs as part of the purchase price of businesses acquired. U.S. GAAP does not permit capitalization of these costs.

(c) Under Canadian GAAP, convertible debt is allocated between debt and a separate component of shareholders' equity with additional amounts capitalized annually to the equity portion of the debt in order that the equity portion of the debt equal the face value at maturity. Under U.S. GAAP, convertible debt remains debt until converted or extinguished and interest is charged to income in the period incurred.

(d) Future Income Taxes

Prior to January 1, 2000, under Canadian GAAP, future tax debits were recorded only when there was reasonable assurance they would be realized. Under U.S. GAAP, such debits are recorded and then reduced through a valuation adjustment if it is more likely than not that some, or all, of the deferred tax asset will not be realized. The Company did not record a future tax asset relating to net operating loss carryforwards and other income tax benefits acquired in connection with certain business acquisitions. The acquired entities had losses and other benefits available for tax purposes amounting to $Nil (2002 and 2001 - $40,000). The total value of the future tax asset amounts to $Nil (2002 and 2001 - $15,200). For U.S. purposes, the future tax asset was reduced by a valuation adjustment in the same amount.

(e) Under Canadian GAAP, the Company reflects share purchase loans as assets based on the economic substance of the arrangement. U.S. GAAP requires that these advances be shown as contra-equity. As at December 31, 2003 share purchase loans outstanding amounted to $Nil (2002 - $3,550 and 2001 - $4,711).

(f) The Company has disclosed income before goodwill charges and minority interest which is not permitted disclosure under U.S. GAAP.

(g) Comprehensive Income

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income, requires the disclosure of comprehensive income (loss), which consists of net income (loss) and other comprehensive income (loss). Other comprehensive income (loss) consists of cumulative translation adjustments that are presented as a separate section of shareholders' equity on the balance sheet.

(h) Under U.S. GAAP, the Company would have been required to adopt SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities (SFAS 133), which requires that all derivative instruments be recorded on the balance sheet at fair value. Changes in the fair value of derivatives are recorded each period either in current results of operations or other comprehensive income (loss). For a derivative designated as part of a hedge transaction, where it is recorded is dependent on whether it is a fair value hedge or a cash flow hedge. For a derivative designated as a fair value hedge, the gain or loss of the derivative in the period of change and the offsetting loss or gain of the hedged item attributed to the hedged risk are recognized in results of operations. For a derivative designated as a cash flow hedge, the effective portion of the derivative's gain or loss is initially reported as a component of other comprehensive income (loss) and subsequently reclassified into results of operations when the hedged exposure affects results of operations. The ineffective portion of the gain or loss of a cash flow hedge is recognized currently in results of operations. For a derivative not designated as a hedging instrument, the gain or loss is recognized currently in results of operations.

The Company used interest rate and cross currency swaps to hedge a portion of its debt obligations and future interest payments. The Company had not designated these derivative instruments as hedging transactions for US GAAP purposes. The Company does not enter into derivative contracts for trading purposes. The adoption of SFAS 133 for U.S. GAAP purposes resulted in the cumulative effect of an accounting change of $5,650 as at December 31, 2001. As at December 31, 2002 all such derivative instruments had been terminated.

(i) Investments where the Company exercises joint control have been accounted for on the proportionate consolidation basis under Canadian GAAP. For 2003 and 2002, amounts reported for U.S. GAAP purposes have been revised to reflect the investment on an equity basis. This policy did not give rise to material differences in 2001.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 146, "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities", which addresses accounting for restructuring and similar costs. SFAS No. 146 supersedes previous accounting guidance, principally Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") Issue No. 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Costs to Exit an Activity (Including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring)". SFAS No. 146 requires companies to recognize costs associated with exit or disposal of activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. This statement is effective for exit or disposal activities that are initiated after December 31, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 146 did not have any immediate impact on our results of operations or financial position.

In November 2002, EITF Issue No. 00-21, "Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables" (EITF 00-21) was issued. EITF 00-21 addresses certain aspects of the accounting by a vendor for arrangements under which it will perform multiple revenue-generating activities and how to determine whether an arrangement involving multiple deliverables contains more than one unit of accounting. EITF 00-21 is effective for revenue arrangements entered into in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2003. The adoption of EITF 00-21 does not have a material effect on our results of operations or financial position.

In November 2002, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 45 ("FIN 45"), "Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others". FIN 45 requires a guarantor to recognize, at the inception of a guarantee, a liability for the fair value of the obligation it has undertaken in issuing the guarantee. FIN 45 also requires guarantors to disclose certain information for guarantees, beginning December 31, 2002. The adoption of FIN 45 did not have a material effect on our results of operations or financial condition and these financial statements contain the required disclosures.

In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, Transition and Disclosure, an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123". SFAS No. 148 provides alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. Additionally, the statement amends the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123 to require prominent disclosure in financial statements about the method for accounting for stock-based compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results. Finally, this statement amends Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 28, "Interim Financial Reporting", to require disclosure about those effects in interim financial information. The amendments to SFAS No. 123 that provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation are effective for financial statements for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2002. The amendment to SFAS No. 123 relating to disclosures and the amendment to APB Opinion No. 28 is effective for financial reports containing condensed financial statements for interim periods beginning after December 15, 2002. In compliance with SFAS No. 148, we elected to continue to follow the intrinsic value method in accounting for our stock-based employee compensation plans as defined by APB Opinion No. 25 and we made the applicable disclosures in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

In January 2003, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 46, "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities" ("FIN 46"). FIN 46 requires an investor with a majority of the variable interests in a variable interest entity to consolidate the entity and also requires majority and significant variable interest investors to provide certain disclosures. A variable interest entity is an entity in which the equity investors do not have a controlling financial interest or the equity investment at risk is insufficient to finance the entity's activities without receiving additional subordinated financial support from other parties. We do not have any variable interest entities that must be consolidated.

22. RECONCILIATION OF RESULTS REPORTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GENERALLY ACCEPTED ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES (GAAP) IN CANADA WITH UNITED STATES ("U.S.") GAAP (CONTINUED)

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, "Accounting For Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of Both Liabilities and Equity", which establishes standards for how an issuer of financial instruments classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. SFAS No. 150 is effective for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. Implementation of this standard did not have a material effect on our results of operations or financial position.

Employee Share Option Incentive Plan

Prior to 2003, SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation prior to 2003, the Company provided pro forma information regarding net income and earnings per share as if compensation cost for the Company's share option plan had been determined in accordance with the fair value based method prescribed in SFAS 123. The Company estimates the fair value of each share option on the date of the grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions used for grants in the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001: risk-free interest rate of 6%; expected volatility of 40%; expected option life of 5 years; and no dividend payments.

The following pro forma net income and earnings per share are presented for informational purposes and have been computed using the fair value method of accounting for share-based compensation as set forth in SFAS No. 123:

The following discussion focuses on the operating performance of MDC Partners Inc. (the "Company") for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, and its financial condition as at December 31, 2003. This analysis should be read in conjunction with the annual audited consolidated financial statements. Additional information relating to the Company, including the Company's AIF, is available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

The annual audited consolidated statements, the management's discussion and analysis and all other information contained in this Annual Report are the responsibility of management. The Board of Directors is responsible for reviewing and approving the financial information contained in this Annual Report and for overseeing management's responsibilities for the presentation and preparation of financial information.

The financial data contained in this Annual Report has been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada. All amounts are in U.S. dollars unless otherwise stated.

OVERVIEW AND OPERATING STRATEGIES

The Company's objective is to create long-term shareholder value by building market-leading companies that deliver innovative, value-added products and services to their customers. Management believes that long-term shareholder value is maximized with an operating philosophy of partnership with proven, committed industry leaders.

The Company operates in two business segments:

Marketing Communications

MDC Partners is one of the world's leading marketing communications firms. Through its partnership of entrepreneurial firms, MDC provides advertising and specialized communications services to leading brands throughout the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom.

The Company's objective is to drive growth in its Marketing Communications Division by building a network of marketing communications firms. This network is designed to foster an environment where the industry's leading talent will want to live through ownership and entrepreneurial drive.

Secure Products International

Secure Products International operations provide security products and services in three primary areas:

Metaca Corporation ("Metaca") - the second largest provider of credit, debit and smart cards in Canada, and in Australia through its subsidiary Placard Pty Ltd.

Mercury Graphics ("Mercury") - a major supplier of secure ticketing products to leading airline, sports, entertainment and transit companies.

Ashton-Potter (USA) Ltd. and Ashton-Potter Canada Ltd. ("Ashton-Potter") - providers of highly specialized postage stamp printing services to the United States Postage Service ("USPS"), government and tax authorities.

Management believes that long-term success is achieved through the investment in entrepreneurs, within the marketing communications industry, that have significant potential for organic growth beyond industry averages. This will be supplemented with strategic acquisitions. The Company will provide its partners with strategic input and access to capital, to allow them to build on their diverse strengths.

In the marketing communications sector, successful firms must meet the increasing demands of clients for innovative programs and creative content, combined with a high-quality, reliable service delivery. This requires the talents, relationships, and leadership of key executives and management personnel. Accordingly, management's ongoing strategy is to acquire ownership stakes in well-managed businesses with strong reputations in the industry, using its Perpetual Partnership(TM) model to create incentive and retain key personnel.

Success in Secure Products International requires companies to offer their customers innovative products, highly reliable service, and the consistent delivery of highly specialized, secure products on a price-competitive basis. Revenues are derived from both long-term contracts and competitive bids. The Company Management's Discussion & Analysis (continued) has strong relationships with its customers, has partnered with experienced management, and has invested in leading edge technology, providing it with the expertise and cost structures to meet customer needs.

The Company has undertaken several initiatives to ensure that it has sufficient liquidity and capital resources. Proceeds from the sale of Custom Direct Inc. throughout 2003 allowed the Company to redeem the balance of its outstanding 10.5% unsecured senior subordinated notes ("Notes"), investment spend in plant and equipment in all facets of the business, and complete a significant acquisition, 60% of kirshenbaum bond + partners, in January 2004.

During 2003, the Company successfully completed the privatization of Maxxcom Inc., through the issuance of 2.47 million Class A subordinate voting shares and solidified its core focus to grow in the marketing communications sector.

With a stronger, de-leveraged balance sheet, the Company intends to complete a financing that will repay existing indebtedness at Maxxcom, reduce borrowing costs and provide liquidity for future acquisitions.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Revenues

On a consolidated basis, revenues for the year were $312.7 million, a decrease of 19% or $75.1 million compared to $387.8 million in 2002. The significant improvement in revenues reported by the Marketing Communications Division was more than offset by the impact of divestitures on the revenues of Secure Products International and Corporate and Other operations.

Gross billings of the Marketing Communications Division totaled $437.2 million in 2003, 14% or $52.9 million greater than the previous year. Revenues were $193.6 million, an improvement of $21.9 million or 13% from the $171.7 million achieved in 2002. This increase was primarily due to an increase in demand for direct marketing and database management services, particularly in the United States, and market research and advertising services in all geographic segments. Additionally, a weakening of the U.S. dollar throughout 2003 as compared to 2002 resulted in increased contribution from the division's Canadian- and U.K.-based operations.

Revenues represent gross billings less the recovery of certain costs that are normally characterized as pass-through billings. Gross billings reflect all amounts billed by the Company. Revenues include items such as commissions earned from advertising placed with media and fees derived from all other services provided, but exclude amounts billed to clients solely to recover costs incurred (for example, media time and production materials and services). Revenues are generally viewed as the most appropriate measure of sales for marketing communications companies because gross billings may vary significantly due to the volume of pass-through costs, which ultimately result in very little impact on revenues.

The table below describes the revenues of the Marketing Communications Division by client industry sector and demonstrates both a diversified base and a significant shift to telecommunications-based client spending, with a significant decrease in healthcare and financial services sectors' client spending as compared to 2002.

(in thousands of U.S. dollars)	2003		2002
Agriculture	$ 5,857	3%	$ 6,047	4%

Historically, with the exception of 2001, the Marketing Communications Division's fourth quarter generates the highest quarterly revenues in a year. During the fourth quarter of 2003, revenues increased 18% as compared to the same quarter in 2002, largely as a result of an increase in excess of 47% quarter-over-quarter in revenues from U.S. direct marketing and database management services. Similar to the yearly results, clients in the telecommunications industry were the largest contributors to this growth.

Revenues of Secure Products International, at $115.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2003, decreased $93.5 million or 45% compared to 2002. The decrease was attributable to the revenues of divested operations included in the prior-year results as the revenues of the remaining operations improved $4.7 million year-over-year. Each of the stamp, ticketing and card operations contributed to the improvement, with increases in revenues of $1.9 million, $1.1 million and $1.7 million, respectively.

Revenues of the Company's Corporate and Other operations decreased $3.3 million to $3.6 million from the $6.9 million reported in 2002, primarily due to the divestiture of A.E. McKenzie Co. Inc. in 2002, partially offset by the distributions received in 2003 from Custom Direct Income Fund.

Operating Costs

Consolidated operating costs were $276.2 million, representing a decrease of 17% or $56.9 million from the operating costs of $333.1 million incurred in the previous year.

The operating costs of Marketing Communications amounted to $164.9 million for the year compared to $150.0 million in 2002. The 10% or $14.9 million increase was primarily due to the increased revenues, partially offset by the elimination of head office costs due to the privatization of Maxxcom on July 31, 2003. Operating costs expressed as a percentage of revenues were 85.2% in 2003 versus 87.4% in 2002. Salaries and related costs increased $7.7 million compared to the previous year, but were slightly lower as a percentage of revenues year-over-year. This was in large part due to the shift in mix of the operation's revenues to increased direct marketing and database management services.

Secure Products International experienced operating costs of $102.6 million in 2003, $69.7 million lower than 2002 due primarily to divested operations partially offset by an increase in costs related to preparation for increased production under the long-term USPS contract, combined with the impact of a stronger Canadian dollar on the operating costs at Canadian facilities. As a percentage of sales, total operating costs for Secure Products International increased from 82.4% in 2002 to 88.7% in 2003. Cost of sales increased to 49.8% of sales in 2003 compared to 45.5% of sales in 2002, and salaries and related costs increased from 13.8% to 15.3% of sales, while other operating costs increased marginally as a percentage of sales to 23.7% from 23.1%.

The operating costs of Corporate and Other operations were $8.6 million, $2.3 million less than the $10.9 million of 2002. The decrease was primarily related to operations that were disposed, partially offset by additional costs allocated to Corporate and Other with the merger of head offices upon the privatization of Maxxcom in 2003.

Operating Income before Other Income (Charges)

Operating income before other charges was $36.6 million for 2003, reflecting a decrease of $18.0 million or 33% from the $54.6 million achieved in 2002, largely due to the dispositions completed by the Secure Products International partially offset by the increased operating income of Marketing Communications.

Marketing Communications contributed $28.6 million in operating income before other charges for the year compared with $21.7 million in 2002. Operating margins improved to 14.8% of sales versus 12.6% of sales in 2002. These improvements were primarily the result of higher revenues combined with cost reductions that were achieved through the merger of head offices related to the privatization of Maxxcom. Several external factors continued to influence operating margin levels. Client spending remained tentative for much of 2003 as throughout 2002; however, the volume of client activity and the level of new business opportunities increased somewhat in 2003, particularly through the third and fourth quarters. The types of services provided in 2003 and 2002 reflected the shift to more directly measurable services. Significant pricing and profitability pressures have resulted from the combination of an increased sensitivity to the fees charged for these services and aggressive competition from marketing communications companies of all sizes.

Secure Products International earned $13.0 million of operating income before other charges, a decrease of $23.9 million or 65% from the prior-year income of $36.9 million. Operating income as a percentage of sales was 11.3% this year compared to 17.6% last year. The ongoing operations of Secure Products International reported a decrease in operating income of $1.6 million compared to 2002. The higher operating costs in U.S. dollars from Canadian facilities as a result of a stronger Canadian dollar and the increased costs of the stamp operations were only partially offset by an improvement in operating income from Placard, the Australian card business. The increased costs incurred in the stamp operations resulted from significant outsourcing of production while a plant expansion and the installation of new manufacturing equipment was completed.

The operating loss attributable to Corporate and Other operations was $5.1 million in 2003 compared to $4.0 million in 2002, the result of increased head office costs, partially offset by the effect of dispositions.

Net Gain on Asset Dispositions and Other Charges

The net gain on asset dispositions and other charges was $10.3 million for 2003. Of this, $37.0 million related to net gains on asset dispositions, primarily due to the disposal of 80% of Custom Direct Inc. for aggregate gross proceeds of approximately $150.0 million and to the repurchase of the remaining $86.4 million of Notes. The Company also undertook an extensive review of all businesses, comparing the book carrying value to the estimated fair market value of each operation. As a result, the Company recorded non-cash charges against specific assets of $11.2 million and goodwill charges of $10.0 million. In addition, the Company incurred stock-based compensation expense of $5.5 million related to the expensing of employee stock options, the implementation of a stock appreciation rights plan for senior management and directors, and warrants issued to outside service providers.

In 2002, the gain of $105.8 million related to the divestiture of the remaining interest in Davis + Henderson, A.E. McKenzie Co. Inc., The House of Questa Limited, Spectron Security Print Pty Ltd., Ashton-Potter Packaging and CyberSight Acquisition Co., Inc. for aggregate gross proceeds of approximately $189.0 million and the repurchase of $112.5 million of Notes at 89% of the original principal amount. Cash charges of $5.1 million were incurred related to expenditures associated with the postponed income trust of Custom Direct, including costs incurred to settle a supply contract dispute.

Unrealized Foreign Exchange Gain

In the first half of 2002, an unrealized foreign exchange gain of $4.4 million was recorded with respect to the U.S. dollar denominated Notes. On July 1, 2002, the Notes were designated as a hedge against the foreign exchange exposure of the U.S. Secure Products International operations, and any foreign exchange translation adjustment of the Notes reduced the offsetting foreign exchange translation adjustment of the U.S. operations, which was reflected in the cumulative translation account within shareholders' equity until the sale of Custom Direct and repayment of the Notes in 2003.

Amortization

Amortization expense for the year was $12.6 million, $3.6 million lower than the amortization of $16.2 million in 2002 primarily as a result of the reduction in the capital assets of Secure Products International. Amortization of the Marketing Communications Division was $7.9 million compared to 2002, at $7.6 million. This increase was primarily attributable to the capital assets associated with the expansion of customer service centres. Amortization attributable to Corporate and Other decreased by $0.5 million to $0.9 million.

Interest, Net

For 2003, interest expense was $11.5 million, down $6.3 million compared with 2002. The decrease was due primarily to the reduction of interest in Secure Products International and Corporate and Other, due to the retirement of the Notes and the senior credit facility at head office. Interest expense related to the Marketing Communications Division increased $1.0 million, primarily due to a higher weighted cost of borrowing and a higher average level of borrowings.

Income Participation of Minority Partners

Income participation of minority partners represents payments to minority shareholders of subsidiary companies pursuant to their respective shareholder agreements, and for the year was $6.1 million, $2.2 million higher than 2002 as a result of improved performance in the Marketing Communications Division.

Income before Income Taxes and Minority Interest

Income before income taxes and minority interest was $16.6 million for 2003 compared to $118.4 million in 2002. The improvement in Marketing Communications was more than offset by reductions in Secure Products International, primarily due to divestitures, and increased costs at Corporate and Other.

Income Tax Expense

Income tax expense recorded for the year was $6.6 million compared with $22.0 million last year. The effective tax rate for 2003 was 39.7% of income before taxes and minority interest. In 2002, the tax rate was 18.6% due primarily to the significant divestitures completed during that year.

Minority Interest

Minority interest expense for 2003 was a recovery of $1.0 million, compared with an expense of $3.0 million in 2002, and represented the minority interest share of the net income (losses) of Maxxcom and Metaca for the period in which those operations were not wholly owned subsidiaries.

Net Income for the Year

Net income for the year was $11.0 million versus $93.3 million in 2002. The $3.5 million improvement in the net income of the Marketing Communications Division was offset by the impact of asset dispositions and a decrease in income attributable to the remaining business segments.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Working Capital

At December 31, 2003, working capital was $40.2 million compared with negative $3.5 million at December 31, 2002 and $26.2 million at the end of the third quarter of 2003. The $43.6 million increase in working capital since last year was primarily the result of the sale of Custom Direct, Inc. and a $22.9 million decrease in deferred acquisition consideration payable, net of a $14.6 million increase in the current portion of long-term indebtedness. Accounts receivable increased by $13.5 million, and accounts payable and deferred revenue increased by $8.4 million and $2.4 million, respectively.

It was determined that the Company possessed sufficient liquid funds to finance foreseeable requirements and hence management decided to cancel its $25.0 million senior credit facility during the third quarter of 2003. At December 31, 2003, Maxxcom had utilized approximately $30.7 million (C$39.8 million) of its C$51.1 million facility in the form of drawings and letters of credit. This facility will reduce by C$7.0 million each quarter until maturity in March 2005.

Cash and undrawn available bank credit facilities to support the Company's future cash requirements, at the end of 2003, were approximately $80.0 million.

Contractual Obligations
The following table summarizes the Company's contractual obligations at December 31, 2003:

		Payments Due b			M
Contractual Obligations (in thousands of U.S. dollars)	Total	Less than 1 year	1-3 years	4- 5 years
Long-term indebtedness	$ 113,544	$15,996	$ 66,112	$ 4,600
Capital lease obligations	7,214	2,650	3,361	549
Operating leases	59,514	12,097	18,603	12,190
Deferred acquisition consideration	1,113	1,113	-	-
Total contractual obligations	$ 181,385	$ 31,856	$ 88,076	$ 17,339

Long-term Indebtedness
Long-term indebtedness (including the current portion of long-term indebtedness) at December 31, 2003 was $120.8 million, a reduction of $38.8 million compared with the $159.6 million outstanding at the end of last year, due primarily to the redemption of the Notes in the second quarter of 2003, partially offset by the adjustable rate exchangeable securities and new indebtedness incurred by Maxxcom to fund the payment of deferred acquisition consideration and certain capital expenditures. During the third quarter of 2003, $0.9 million of long-term indebtedness was repaid including the repurchase of C$1.0 million of the C$50.0 million 7% convertible notes under a normal course issuer bid.

On December 1, 2003, the Company issued $26.3 million of adjustable rate exchangeable securities due December 31, 2028. Based on the performance of Custom Direct Income Fund (the "Fund") for the period ended December 31, 2003, the Company was entitled to exchange its shares of Custom Direct, Inc. for units of the Fund. The units of the Fund were delivered by the Company, on February 13, 2004, in full settlement of the adjustable rate exchangeable securities.

The following table summarizes the Company's exposure to interest and exchange rate risks by providing the amount of long-term indebtedness outstanding at December 31, 2003 in the currency in which it is denominated and the amounts that are subject to floating versus fixed rates of interest:

Long-term Indebtedness

Interest	C $	US $	AUS $
Fixed	18,429,220	3,911,000	2,475,582
Floating	86,750,312	33,863,000	-

Deferred Acquisition Consideration
Acquisitions of businesses by the Company typically include commitments to contingent deferred purchase obligations ("Earnouts") and, in certain circumstances, commitments to purchase minority shareholdings ("Puts"). Earnouts were generally payable annually over a three-year period following the acquisition date and were payable based on achievement of certain thresholds of future earnings and, in certain cases, also based on the rate of growth of those earnings. At December 31, 2003, approximately $1.1 million of Earnouts related to prior-year acquisitions are reflected on the Company's balance sheet. This obligation is expected to be funded during 2004 through the use of operating funds.

The Company plans to reduce the use of Earnouts in future acquisitions.

Based on various assumptions as to future operating results of the existing relevant entities, including kirshenbaum bond + partners, acquired in January 2004, it is estimated that approximately $0.8 million additional deferred purchase obligations would be earned during 2004 or thereafter.

Put Rights of Subsidiaries' Minority Shareholders
Owners of interests in certain of the Marketing Communications subsidiaries have the right in certain circumstances to require the Company to acquire the remaining ownership interests held by them. The owners' ability to exercise these rights is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, such as the provision of a period of notice in advance of exercising such right or the installation of successor management in the subsidiary, and in some cases is related to the employment status of the holder of the right. In addition, these rights cannot be exercised prior to specified staggered exercise dates. The exercise of these rights at their earliest contractual date would result in obligations of the Company to fund the related amounts during the period 2004 to 2012. Except as described below, it is not determinable, at this time, if or when the owners of these rights will exercise all or a portion of these rights.

The amount payable in the event such rights are exercised is dependent on various valuation formulas and on future events, such as the average earnings of the relevant subsidiary through that date of exercise, the growth rate of the earnings of the relevant subsidiary during that period, and, in some cases, the currency exchange rate at the date of payment.

Management estimates, assuming that the subsidiaries, including kirshenbaum bond + partners, perform over the relevant future periods at their 2003 earnings levels, that these rights, if all exercised, could require the Company, in future periods, to pay an aggregate of approximately $70 million to the owners of such rights to acquire the remaining ownership interests in the relevant subsidiaries. Of this amount, the Company is entitled, at its option, to fund approximately $12 million by the issuance of share capital.

The ultimate amount payable in the future relating to these transactions will vary because it is dependent on the future results of operations of the subject businesses and the timing of when these rights are exercised. The actual amounts paid will be different from these estimates, and these differences could be material.

If these rights were exercised in aggregate, the Company would acquire incremental ownership interests in the relevant Marketing Communications subsidiaries, entitling the Company to additional annual operating income before other charges, which is estimated, using the same earnings basis used to determine the aggregate purchase price noted above, to be approximately $11 million. The actual amounts acquired will be different from this estimate and these differences could be material.

Of the estimated aggregate amount, approximately $0.8 million relates to rights exercisable in 2004 associated with a subsidiary. A shareholder of this subsidiary has given one-year advance notice of their intent to exercise their right to require the Company to purchase a portion of their total respective interest in the related subsidiary. The Company has funded this obligation in the first quarter of 2004.

Long-term Indebtedness to Shareholders' Equity
At December 31, 2003, the Company's long-term indebtedness was $120.8 million, and total shareholders' equity totaled $119.2 million. The ratio of long-term indebtedness to shareholders' equity decreased from 1.65 at the end of 2002 to 1.01 at the end of 2003.

Repayment of Long-term Indebtedness
Approximately $92.0 million of the long-term indebtedness outstanding at December 31, 2003 is due within the next five years; $70.6 million or 77% of that amount relates to Maxxcom's credit facility, which matures in March 2005, and Maxxcom's subordinated debenture, due September 2005. Management anticipates that this indebtedness will be repaid with a new financing at the parent company and cash flow from operations.

Share Capital
At January 31, 2004, there were 18,519,218 Class A subordinate voting shares and 450,470 Class B shares outstanding. Each Class B share is convertible at the option of the holder into one Class A share.

Also outstanding at January 31, 2004 were 7% convertible debentures with a face value of C$48.0 million. These debentures are convertible at the option of the holder into Class A shares at a rate of 49.261 Class A shares per one thousand Canadian dollars of debenture. The 7% convertible debentures are redeemable by the Company at par. The Company may, at its option, satisfy the obligation to repay the principal amount of the debentures on redemption or at maturity in freely tradable Class A shares.

Cash Flows
Cash flows from operations, before changes in non-cash working capital, for the year ended December 31, 2003 were $21.2 million. This represents a decrease of $2.2 million from the cash flow generated in 2002, reflective of the impact of lower revenues and operating income before other charges related to Secure Products International and Corporate and Other operations.

Cash flows from investing activities during the year were $73.2 million compared with $151.6 million in 2002. The net proceeds received from the sale of Custom Direct, net of investing activities, amounted to $87.1 million. The $18.4 million of capital asset expenditures was primarily related to the development of customer service centres, additional investment in new premises and applications software by Marketing Communications, and the purchase of manufacturing equipment across Secure Products International. Cash flow from other assets of $4.5 million primarily related to the repayment of employee loans.

Cash flows used in financing activities amounted to $63.9 million and comprised new indebtedness of $37.5 million, the repayment of $90.8 million of long-term indebtedness, proceeds of $3.0 million from the issuance of share capital through the exercise of options, and $13.7 million used to repurchase and cancel shares of the Company.

Transactions with Related Parties
The Company incurred fees totaling $8.0 million in 2003 and $2.4 million in 2002 to companies controlled by an officer of the Company in respect of services provided including merger and acquisition, financial and administrative. In addition, the Company had a non-interest bearing note receivable at December 31, 2003 of $2.3 million (C$3.0 million), $1.9 million at December 31, 2002, from another company controlled by the same officer.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Economic Uncertainty
The marketing communications industry is cyclical and is subject to the effects of economic downturns. The Company is also exposed to the risk of clients changing their business plans and/or reducing their marketing budgets. As a result, the Company's business, financial condition and operating results may be affected in a materially adverse manner.

Competition
Each of the Company's divisions operates in a highly competitive environment.

The Marketing Communications Division competes in an industry characterized by numerous firms of varying sizes, with no single firm or group of firms having a dominant position in the marketplace. Competitive factors include creative reputation, management, personal relationships, quality and reliability of service, and expertise in particular niche areas of the marketplace. Although the price of services may be a competitive factor in obtaining new clients, it is generally of lesser importance once a client relationship has been established.

Additionally, there has been a trend of large multinational organizations consolidating their marketing communications providers so that one firm provides these services to all international locations. As a result, marketing communications providers may experience the loss of clients or projects. To the extent that the Company's Marketing Communications Division may lose business and is unsuccessful in replacing it, the Company's business, financial condition and operating results may be affected in a materially adverse manner.

Secure Products International competes primarily on the basis of quality, customer service, design capability and price. A number of the Company's competitors have greater resources than those available to the Company which may enable them to aggressively pursue the business of Secure Products International.

Customer Concentration
The strategy has been to acquire ownership stakes in diverse marketing communications businesses to minimize the effects that might arise from the loss of any one client or executive. However, management succession is very important to the ongoing results of the Marketing Communications Division because, as in any service business, the success of the Company is dependent upon the leadership of key executives and management personnel. Accordingly, the top 10 clients of the Marketing Communications Division represent less than one-third of revenues; however, if key executives were to leave, the relationships they have with the clients could be lost. Management has attempted to mitigate the risks with respect to these successions through various employment contracts, shareholder agreements, and non-competition and non-solicitation agreements.

Within Secure Products International, the postage stamp business derives a significant portion of its revenues from government contracts. Contracts are generally awarded in a competitive bidding process. The loss of these contracts could have a material adverse effect on the sales and earnings of the division.

Risk of Media Account Default
The Marketing Communications Division of the Company incurs expenses on behalf of clients in order to secure a variety of media time and space for which it receives a fee. The difference between the gross cost of the media and the net revenue earned by the Company can be significant. While the Company takes many precautions against default on payment for these services (such as advance billing clients) and has historically had a very low incidence of default, it is still exposed to the risk of significant uncollectible receivables.

Currency Fluctuations
Although the Company's financial results are reported in U.S. dollars, a significant portion of its sales and operating costs are denominated in Canadian dollars. As a result, fluctuations in the exchange rate between the U.S. dollar and other currencies, particularly the Canadian dollar, may affect the Company's financial results and the Company's competitive position. The Company generally manages its exposure to foreign currency risks through foreign exchange contracts and currency swap agreements. There can be no assurance that such measures will be successful; however, management will attempt to mitigate these risks to the fullest extent available.

Access to Capital and Future Liquidity
In addition to internally generated funds, the Company relies upon access to credit facilities and other forms of financing for its business. The Company will therefore need to raise capital through the incurrence of additional long-term or shortterm indebtedness or the issuance of additional equity securities. Although the Company has been able to obtain such financing in the past, there is no assurance that the Company will be able to refinance current or future indebtedness on terms that are acceptable to the Company.

The incurrence of additional indebtedness may result in increased interest expense or decreased net income, and the issuance of additional equity securities could result in dilution of existing equity positions.

CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Reporting Currency
Historically, the Company's consolidated financial statements have been presented in Canadian dollars. In order to more fully reflect the U.S. nature of the Company's business and shareholder base, and to improve investors' ability to compare the Company's results with those of most other publicly traded businesses in the marketing communications industry, which also report in U.S. dollars, the U.S. dollar was adopted as the Company's reporting currency effective September 30, 2003. The functional currencies of each of the Company's operations are unchanged. The consolidated financial statements and notes thereto have been restated in U.S. dollars for all periods presented.

Stock-based Compensation
During the fourth quarter of 2003, the Company decided to adopt the fair value based method of accounting for all its stockbased compensation. The Company adopted these changes using the prospective application transitional alternative. Accordingly, the fair value based method is applied to awards granted, modified or settled on or after January 1, 2003. When the awards are exercised, share capital is credited by the sum of the consideration paid together with the related portion previously credited to contributed surplus when costs were charged against income or acquisition consideration.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Asset Retirement Obligations
The CICA has issued new recommendations for accounting for asset retirement obligations (CICA Handbook Section 3110), effective for the fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2004, with earlier adoption encouraged. The new section focuses on the recognition and measurement of liabilities for statutory, contractual or legal obligations, normally when incurred, associated with the retirement of property, plant and equipment when those obligations result from the acquisition, construction, development or normal operation of the assets. The Company expects that the impact of this new accounting pronouncement will not be material to its financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities
In June 2003, the AcSB issued new CICA AcG-15, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities. This Guideline addresses the consolidation of variable interest entities, which are entities that have insufficient equity or their equity investors lack one or more of the specified essential characteristics of a controlling financial interest. AcG-15 also provides guidance for determining who should consolidate the variable interest entity. This Guideline is effective for the first interim and annual period beginning on or after November 1, 2004, with earlier application encouraged. The Company expects that the impact of this new accounting pronouncement will not be material to its financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

Financial Instruments - Disclosure and Presentation
In November 2003, the CICA issued an amendment to Section 3860, Financial Instruments - Disclosure and Presentation, that clarifies the difference between an equity and a liability instrument. Any security that may be settled in cash or in the equivalent value of shares must be classified as debt. The effective date of this amendment is January 1, 2005. To the extent the 7% convertible debentures remain outstanding on adoption, the balance in other paid-in capital, included in shareholders' equity, will be classified as debt. In addition, the charge to retained earnings will be eliminated with an increase to interest expense.

Outlook
Following the Company's 2001 strategic plan, in 2002, management focused its resources on the Company's core businesses and also capitalized on market opportunities to dispose of assets and reduce indebtedness. In 2003, management was able to further reduce indebtedness with proceeds from the sale of Custom Direct and solidify its Marketing Communications Division through the privatization of Maxxcom.

Revenues and operating profits of the Marketing Communications Division are expected to continue to grow in 2004 from organic growth and strategic acquisitions. 2004 has started strong with new client engagements earned by our exciting brands and the acquisition of 60% of kirshenbaum bond + partners. Secure Products International will continue to provide secure products to its clients. The Company's investment in the high-growth areas of the secure printing industry and the completion of the operational restructuring are expected to restore profitability and produce greater returns. Revenues and profits from existing operations are expected to increase in 2004 as the result of investment spending and ramp up of the USPS contract, while we explore other opportunities to diversify the client base and develop new applications for target markets.

Management is encouraged by the progress made over the past year and believes that the Company's core operations form a strong platform from which to grow its business in 2004 and beyond.

Forward-looking Statements
The Company and its representatives periodically make written and spoken forward-looking statements, including those contained in this Annual Report. By their nature, forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could result in actual performance being materially different from anticipated results. The Company cautions readers, when making decisions, to consider the risks and uncertainties of forward-looking statements.

A. Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Disclosure controls and procedures are defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission as those controls and other procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by MDC Partners Inc. (the "Registrant") in reports filed or submitted by it under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms. The Registrant's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have evaluated the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this Annual Report on Form 40-F, and have determined that such disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

B. Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Since the most recent evaluation of the Registrant's internal controls, there has not been any significant change in the Registrant's internal control over financial reporting that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Registrant's internal control over financial reporting.

C. Notice of Pension Fund Blackout Period

The Registrant was not required by Rule 104 of Regulation BTR to send any notice to any of its directors or executive officers during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003.

D. Audit Committee Financial Expert

The Registrant's board of directors has determined that Francois R. Roy, an individual serving on the audit committee of the Registrant's board of directors, is an audit committee financial expert, as that term is defined in General Instruction B(8)(a) of Form 40-F. The Registrant's board of directors has also determined that Francois R. Roy is independent, as that term is defined under the rules and regulations of the Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc.

E. Code of Ethics

The Registrant has adopted a code of ethics that applies to its chief executive officer, chief financial officer and controller and its principal accounting officer. The code of ethics is filed herewith as Exhibit 14 hereto.

F. Principal Accountant Fees and Services

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by BDO Dunwoody LLP, the Registrant's principal accountant (the "Outside Auditors"), for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003 for professional services rendered by the Outside Auditors for the audit of the Registrant's annual financial statements or services that are normally provided by the Outside Auditors in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements for such years were $716,000 and $671,000, respectively.

Audit-Related Fees

The aggregate fees billed by the Outside Auditors for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003 for assurance and related services rendered by it that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Registrant's financial statements and are not reported above as audit fees were $257,000 and $62,000, respectively. Professional services provided included prospectus services on account of certain subsidiaries.

Tax Fees

The aggregate fees billed by the Outside Auditors for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003 for professional services rendered by it for tax compliance, tax advice, tax planning and other services were $2,500 for general tax advice.

All Other Fees

There were no fees billed by the Outside Auditors for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003 for products and services provided by the Outsider Auditors, other than the services reported in the preceding three paragraphs.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies

All audit and non-audit services performed by the Registrant's auditor are pre-approved by the audit committee of the Registrant.

G. Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Registrant is not a party to any off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on its financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that is material to investors.

Code of Ethics

MDC Partners Inc. (the "Company") is committed to conducting its business in accordance with applicable laws, rules and regulations, and the highest standards of business ethics, and to full and accurate disclosure in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. This Code of Ethics applies to all directors, officers and employees of the Company and sets forth specific policies to guide you in the performance of your duties.

As a director, officer or employee of the Company, you must not only comply with applicable laws, rules and regulations; you also must engage in and promote honest and ethical conduct and abide by the policies and procedures that govern the conduct of the Company's business. Your responsibilities include helping to create and maintain a culture of high ethical standards and commitment to compliance, and, in the case of directors and officers, maintaining a work environment that encourages employees to raise concerns to the attention of management and promptly addressing employee compliance concerns.

Compliance With Laws, Rules And Regulations

You are required to comply with the laws, rules and regulations that govern the conduct of the Company's business including, without limitation, all laws prohibiting insider trading, money laundering, bribery and improper payments, and to report any suspected violations in accordance with the section below titled "Compliance With Code Of Ethics."

Conflicts Of Interest

You may not make any investment, accept any position or benefits, participate in any transaction or business arrangement or otherwise act in a manner that creates or appears to create a conflict of interest unless you make full disclosure of all facts and circumstances to, and obtain the prior written approval of either Peter M. Lewis, the Chief Financial Officer, or Walter Campbell, the Senior Vice-President, Finance and Corporate Secretary, in the case of employees, or one of Guy P. French, Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, Thomas N. Davidson, Chairman of the Audit Committee, or Richard R. Hylland, Chairman of the Compensation Committee, in the case of directors and officers.

A "conflict of interest" arises when you take actions or have interests that conflict in any way with the interests of the Company. These conflicts may make it difficult for you to perform your work objectively and efficiently. The following are some common examples that illustrate actual or apparent conflicts of interest that should be avoided:

- You or a member of your family has an ownership interest in, is employed by or serves as a director of a company that competes with the Company, does business with the Company (such as a customer, supplier or business partner) or is a recipient of charitable contributions made by the Company. (However, it is not typically considered a conflict of interest to make investments in competitors, customers or suppliers that are listed on a stock exchange so long as the total value of the investment is less than one percent (1%) of the outstanding stock of the corporation and the amount of the investment is not so significant that it would affect your business judgment on behalf of Company.)

- You or a member of your family participates in a joint venture, partnership or other business arrangement or investment with the Company or that you learned of through the use of corporate property or information or your position at the Company; and

- You or a member of your family receives improper personal benefits as a result of your position in the Company.

Confidential Information

You are required to maintain the confidentiality of all confidential information that you receive or become privy to in connection with the Company's business, except when disclosure is authorized or legally mandated.

Confidential information includes all non-public information that might prejudice the ability of the Company to pursue certain objectives, be of use to competitors or harmful to the Company, its suppliers or its customers, if disclosed. Confidential information also includes any information relating to the Company's business and affairs that results in or would reasonably be expected to result in a significant change in the market price or value of any of the Company's securities or any information a reasonable investor would consider important in making an investment decision. You must not use confidential information for your own advantage or profit.

Disclosures

It is the Company's policy to make full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations in all reports and documents that the Company files with, or submits to, the Securities and Exchange Commission and Canadian securities regulators and in all other public communications made by the Company. The Company's management have the general responsibility for preparing such filings and such other communications and shall ensure that such filings and communications comply with all applicable laws and regulations. Employees must provide all necessary information to management when requested and must inform management if they become aware that information in any such filing or communication was untrue or misleading at the time such filing or communication was made or if they have information that would affect any filings or communications to be made in the future.

Protection and Proper Use of Company Assets

You should protect the Company's assets and ensure their efficient use. Theft, carelessness and waste have a direct impact on the Company's profitability. The Company's assets should only be used for legitimate business purposes.

Compliance With Code Of Ethics

If you know of or suspect a violation of applicable laws, rules or regulations or this Code of Ethics, you must immediately report that information to Peter M. Lewis, in the case of employees, or to one of Guy P. French, Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, Thomas N. Davidson, Chairman of the Audit Committee, or Richard R. Hylland, Chairman of the Compensation Committee, in the case of directors and officers. Reports of suspected violations should identify as many relevant facts as possible, including, if applicable: (1) the date(s) relevant to the identified issue; (2) the name of any persons involved in the identified activity; (3) the specific facts that give rise to the concerns expressed; and (4) any suggestions for resolving or dealing with the problems or issues identified. The Company recognizes that resolving reported problems or concerns will advance the overall interests of the Company, and will help to safeguard the Company's assets, financial integrity and reputation. No one will be subject to retaliation because of a good faith report of a suspected violation.

Violations of this Code of Ethics may result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge. The Company's Audit Committee shall determine, or shall designate appropriate persons to determine appropriate action in response to violations of this Code of Ethics. Violations of this Code of Ethics may also violate certain laws.

Waivers Of Code Of Ethics

If you would like to seek a waiver of this Code of Ethics, you must make full disclosure of your particular circumstances to Peter M. Lewis, in the case of employees, or one of Guy P. French, Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, Thomas N. Davidson, Chairman of the Audit Committee, or Richard R. Hylland, Chairman of the Compensation Committee, in the case of directors and officers. Amendments to and waivers of this Code of Ethics will be publicly disclosed as required by applicable laws, rules and regulations.

Documenting Compliance with the Disclosure Policy

Appropriate records evidencing compliance with this Code of Ethics shall be maintained by the Company, including copies of correspondence relating to requests for, and determinations relating to, waivers of this Code of Ethics, and copies of documents relating to violations of this Code of Ethics.

No Rights Created

This Code of Ethics is a statement of certain fundamental principles, policies and procedures that govern the directors, officers and employees of the Company in the conduct of the Company's business. It is not intended to and does not create any rights in any employee, customer, client, supplier, competitor, shareholder or any other person or entity.
