FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES RECLASSIFIES CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS OF EARNINGS FOR NEW ACCOUNTING RULE EITF No.00-14

New York, NY, April 16, 2002 - The Estee Lauder Companies Inc. (NYSE:EL) today provided reclassified consolidated statements of earnings for previously reported fiscal 2001 and 2002 quarterly results and full fiscal year results ended 1998 through 2001. The reclassified statements of earnings reflect the new provisions required by Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) Issue No. 00-14, "Accounting for Certain Sales Incentives," which the Company adopted effective January 1, 2002.

EITF 00-14 provides guidance for when sales incentives and discounts should be recognized, and where the related revenues and expenses should be classified in companies financial statements. Prior to adopting this rule, the Company's gift-with-purchase and purchase-with-purchase costs and revenues were recorded net as operating expenses on the consolidated statement of earnings.

In compliance with EITF 00-14, the Company reclassified promotional revenues to sales and the cost of promotional merchandise to cost of sales. The new rule has been applied to prior periods retroactively for comparability. The reclassifications increased prior full fiscal year sales by approximately 1% to 2% and cost of sales as a percent of sales by approximately 5 to 6.5 percentage points, offset by a corresponding reduction in operating expenses.

The reclassifications do not change the Company's operating income, net earnings or net earnings per common share.

Expected Fiscal 2002 Third Quarter Financial Results Reporting Date

The Company expects to release fiscal 2002 third quarter financial results on Tuesday, April 30, 2002. During the fiscal 2002 third quarter, the Company adopted Emerging Issues Task Force No. 00-14, "Accounting for Certain Sales Incentives." This new rule requires where certain sales incentives and related expenses are classified in the Company's financial statements. Prior to this rule, the cost of promotional merchandise and related revenues was reported as operating expenses. In compliance with this new rule, the Company has reclassified all promotional revenues to sales and the cost of promotional merchandise to cost of sales. Upon reclassification, operating income remains unchanged. Per the attached tables, this rule has been applied retroactively for purposes of comparability.
