In March 2000, SFSC pledged a $5,000,000 note from CPS to secure the obligations of NPSAC to the former owners of the business. NPSAC agreed to pay SFSC a 2% credit support fee for this pledge. In 2001, the Company assumed this credit support obligation in its acquisition by merger of NPSAC. During 2002, no fees were paid to SFSC. At December 31, 2002, accrued and unpaid fees totaling $227,000 were due to SFSC.

Cash Surrender Value of Life Insurance Policies - The Company pays the premiums on life insurance policies covering Messrs. Bradley, Lawyer and Poole. Pursuant to these arrangements, the Company will be reimbursed for the premiums it pays for such policies from either the death benefit of the policy or their cash surrender value. The covered individuals have agreed with the Company that if the policy proceeds are insufficient to reimburse the Company for the full amount of the premiums paid, they will cover the shortfall. As of December 31, 2002, premiums paid by the Company since their issuance in 1994 in excess of the cash surrender values of the policies totaled $1,031,000.

Mr. Bradley Note Payable - Reunion owed Mr. Charles E. Bradley $1,017,000 related to its plastics business. This note and any accrued and unpaid interest thereunder were assigned to SFSC in 2000. No interest was paid in 2002. At December 31, 2002, accrued and unpaid interest due related to this notes payable totaled $168,000.

Mr. Bradley Guarantee - Through the NPSAC acquisition by merger, the Company assumed an obligation to pay Mr. Charles E. Bradley a guarantee fee in connection with his guarantee of certain obligations of NPSAC to the former owners of the NAPTech business that NPSAC acquired in 1998 (the "Bradley Guarantee"). At December 31, 2001, a total of $90,000 was due to Mr. Bradley under this agreement. During 2002, Mr. Bradley assigned his right to this guarantee fee plus interest at approximately 11%, totaling $100,000, to Messrs. Lawyer and Froehlich in repayment of loans totaling $100,000 they made to Mr. Bradley. These employees also had received a total of $100,000 in advances from the Company during 2001. See "Employee Advances" below.

Mr. Bradley Note Payable - In January 2003, the Company issued to Mr. Charles E. Bradley a promissory note for $500,000 to evidence its obligation to reimburse him for a payment made by him in that amount under the Bradley Guarantee.

Employee Advances - At December 31, 2001, the Company had non-interest bearing advances due from five employees totaling $213,000, which was also the highest balance during 2002. During 2002, Messrs. Lawyer and Froehlich repaid their advances totaling $100,000 by waiving their rights to the guarantee fee plus interest they received by assignment from Mr. Bradley. See "Mr. Bradley Guarantee" above.
