Form of Executive Confidentiality & Non-Competition Agreement

Table of ContentsITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

The Board of Directors of the Company has implemented a policy requiring that the Company's executive officers execute confidentiality and non-compete agreements with the Company, in exchange for the Company's guarantee of 25% of each executive's incentive compensation payments for the year ending December 31, 2004, and the Company's commitment to pay severance following termination of the executive's employment for up to one year. The form of Executive Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement to be executed by each of the Company's executive officers not already party to a non-compete agreement with the Company is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

On September 8, 2004, Eugene L. McKenzie, Jr., Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Secretary and Treasurer of the Company, executed an agreement in substantially the form attached as Exhibit 10.1, with an effective date of June 1, 2004. Lawrence Zingale, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, is also party to an agreement in substantially this form.

The Company's form of Executive Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement restricts the applicable executive's ability to engage in businesses similar to the Company's business in certain defined territory for one year after executive's service with the Company terminates. The Company agrees to pay severance to the executive for a guaranteed period defined in the Agreement, and up to one year in the event the executive does not secure employment, prior to the end of the one year period, with a business that does not compete with the Company.

The Agreement also provides that the executive will keep confidential all Confidential Information, as defined in the Agreement, and restricts the executive's use of such Confidential Information. The executive also agrees not to solicit business from the Company's customers for a period of four years following the executive's termination of service with the Company, and agrees not to hire employees of the Company for two years following such termination of service. Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company owns certain intangible assets generated by the executive and in the scope of his employment with the Company, and the executive assigns all rights to intellectual property developed by the executive in the course of the executive's employment with the Company.
