On October 2, 2003, a class action complaint entitled Hindo et al. v. AllianceBernstein Growth & Income Fund et al. (the Hindo Complaint), was filed in federal district court in the Southern District of New York against Alliance Capital Management Holding L.P.; Alliance Capital Management L.P. (Alliance Capital); Alliance Capital Management Corporation (collectively, the Alliance Capital defendants); a number of AllianceBernstein mutual funds; AXA Financial, Inc.; Gerald Malone; Charles Schaffran; Edward J. Stern; Canary Capital Partners, LLC; Canary Investment Management, LLC; Canary Capital Partners, Ltd.; and other unnamed defendants. The action, which is brought on behalf of a putative class of all persons who purchased shares in one or more of the defendant mutual funds between October 2, 1998 and September 29, 2003, alleges violations of the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Investment Advisors Act of 1940. The principal allegations of the Hindo Complaint are that the Alliance Capital defendants entered into agreements under which certain named and unnamed parties were permitted to engage in late trading and market timing transactions in the defendant funds. According to the Hindo Complaint, these agreements were fraudulent and a breach of fiduciary duty to fund shareholders. In addition, plaintiffs allege that the prospectuses for the named AllianceBernstein mutual funds were false and misleading because they: (i) failed to disclose the existence of these late trading and market timing agreements; and (ii) represented that fund shareholders would be safeguarded against the effects of such agreements. Plaintiffs seek unspecified damages, the rescission of plaintiffs' contracts with Alliance Capital, and recovery of any fees paid in connection therewith. Alliance Capital is evaluating the claims in the Hindo Complaint and intends to vigorously defend against them. At the present time, management of Alliance Capital is unable to estimate the impact, if any, that the outcome of this action may have on Alliance Capital's results of operations or financial condition. On October 8, 2003, a similar complaint was filed in federal district court in the Eastern District of New York. Alliance Capital understands that additional lawsuits that are similar to these lawsuits have been filed, and believes that others may be filed, against the Alliance Capital defendants and related parties.
