Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On November 12, 2015, the Board of Directors of the Company amended and restated the Company's bylaws, effective immediately. The amendments include, among other changes, the addition of a proxy access provision and an exclusive forum provision for certain types of litigation, as described below.

The amended and restated bylaws provide that, subject to the eligibility, procedural and disclosure requirements set forth in the bylaws, a stockholder, or group of up to 20 stockholders, owning 3% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock continuously for at least 3 years, can require the Company to include in its proxy materials for an annual meeting director nominations for up to 20% of the number of seats on the board of directors before the nomination, rounding down to nearest whole number, but not less than two nominees. Two or more funds that are part of the same family of funds under common management and investment control count as one stockholder for purposes of determining whether a group of stockholders exceeds 20.

The amended and restated bylaws also provide that, unless the Company otherwise consents, certain types of litigation must be brought in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland or, if that court does not have jurisdiction, the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, Baltimore Division. The types of litigation covered by this provision include (i) a derivative lawsuit; (ii) an action asserting breach of duty by a director, officer or employee; (iii) an action pursuant to any provision of the Maryland General Corporation Law or the charter or bylaws of the Company; and (iv) an action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the amended and restated bylaws, a copy of which is filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 3.2 and incorporated herein by reference.
