RENN Fund Enters Into

Letter of Intent with Horizon Kinetics

DALLAS, TX – October 19, 2016 -- RENN Fund, Inc. (NYSE MKT: RCG) (the “Fund”) has entered into a Letter of Intent with Horizon Kinetics LLC (“Horizon”) for Horizon, through one of its wholly owned subsidiary registered investment advisers, to become the new investment manager of the Fund, subject to shareholder approval. Under an Investment Advisory Agreement to be submitted to shareholders, Horizon would waive its management fee until the Fund’s assets reach $25 million, following which it would charge only 100 basis points on assets above $25 million. Horizon has indicated to the Board that it hopes to use a significant portion of the Fund’s existing tax loss carryforwards over time. The Letter of Intent contemplates that Horizon will consider recapitalizing the Fund through a rights offering or other mechanism in order to attempt to achieve at least $10 million in Fund assets. It also contemplates that Horizon may conduct a tender offer for up to the lesser of 10% of the Fund’s outstanding shares or $1 million worth of shares from existing shareholders at the Fund’s then-prevailing net asset value. Lastly, Horizon has informed the Board it will assume all expenses related to the proxy statement and shareholders’ meeting.

If the proposal is approved by the Fund’s shareholders, a new Board of Directors will be elected, except that Russell Cleveland will be nominated to continue to serve as a director.

According to Russell Cleveland, President of RENN Capital, the Fund’s current investment manager, “I believe this is a good deal for the shareholders, of which I am one. Horizon Kinetics is an accomplished investment manager with approximately $6 billion under management. I believe the proposal will significantly reduce fees and costs, preserve the tax loss carryforwards, and create a bigger Fund. The Board of Directors believes joining Horizon is a better solution than liquidating the Fund.” Added Murray Stahl, Horizon’s Chairman, “There is significant shareholder value that can be achieved through this transaction. We believe Horizon’s deep value, long-term investment approach is a wonderful fit for this Fund and its shareholders. We look forward to working with Mr. Cleveland to the benefit of the Fund’s shareholders.” Shareholders will receive a proxy statement outlining the details of the proposal and be asked to vote on the proposal to approve the appointment of Horizon as investment manager, a slate of new directors and the terms of the proposed Investment Advisory Agreement. Shareholders will also be asked to approve the abandonment of the Plan of Liquidation of the Fund that was approved at the Fund’s annual meeting of shareholders earlier this year. The Board hopes to complete the process over the next several months. If the proposals are approved, the Fund will not pursue the delisting of the Fund’s shares from the NYSE MKT or the liquidation of the Fund’s assets as contemplated by the Plan of Liquidation.
