Share Reform Announcement

(Overseas Regulatory Announcement)

On behalf of the Holders of Non-circulating Shares, the Company announces a share reform proposal offered by the Holders of Non-circulating Shares to circulating A Shares Shareholders in exchange for their consent to the conversion of the Company's Non-circulating Shares to circulating A Shares. The Holders of Non-circulating Shares propose to offer 3.2 shares to each holder of A Shares for every 10 A Shares they hold on the Record Date for the Implementation of the Proposal. The Holders of Non-circulating Shares have no plan to propose similar arrangement to the holders of H shares of the Company.

This announcement is made pursuant to Rule 13.09(2) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

The Board of Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited (the Company) announces that, as requested and authorised by the holders of the non-circulating shares of the Company (the Holders of Non-circulating Shares), a notice was issued on the date of this announcement to the holders of the Company's RMB-denominated ordinary shares issued within the territory of the People's Republic of China (the PRC) to convene a shareholders meeting (the Domestic Shareholders Meeting) for the purpose of seeking shareholders' approval on the proposal for converting all the Company's unlisted and non-circulating shares (Non-circulating Shares) to listed and circulating A shares (Circulating A Shares) (the Share Reform Proposal or the Proposal). The Holders of Non-circulating Shares have no plan to propose similar arrangement to the holders of H shares of the Company.

This announcement is made pursuant to Rule 13.09(2) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

The following is a summary of the Share Reform Proposal. The Share Reform Proposal and other relevant documents required under the rules of the Shanghai Stock Exchange (SSE) are posted on the website of the SSE at www.sse.com.cn.

I. IMPORTANT NOTES

1. The Non-circulating Shares of the Company include State-owned legal person shares. The portion relating to the state-owned legal person shares in the current Share Reform Proposal is subject to approvals by the relevant state-owned assets supervision and administration authorities.
2. As the Share Reform Proposal aims at resolving the issue regarding the interest balance among the Company's shareholders in the A Shares market, the Share Reform Proposal will be determined by the Company's shareholders in the A Shares market accordingly.
3. The Share Reform Proposal shall only become effective upon the approval by at least two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders who attend in the Domestic Shareholders Meeting and the approval by at least two-thirds of the voting rights held by Circulating A Shares Shareholders who attend in the Domestic Shareholders Meeting.

Table of Contents

4. The Company has obtained the Approval Certificate of a Foreign Investment Enterprise. The Proposal will involve matters concerning examination and approval of management by foreign investors. The Proposal is subject to the approval by MOFCOM before implementation.

5. The assets, liabilities, shareholders' interests, total share capital and net profits of the Company will not be changed as a result of the implementation of the Share Reform Proposal.

6. All the costs and expenses in connection with the Share Reform Proposal shall be borne by Sinopec Corp. Any decisions made or opinions given by the CSRC and any stock exchanges do not represent any recommendation or assurance to the implementation of the Share Reform Proposal, the value of the shares of the Company or the interests of and judgement made by the investors. Any announcements to the contrary shall all be false representations.

II. SHARE REFORM PROPOSAL

(2) Analysis and Opinion of the Sponsor in respect of the Consideration to be Paid for the Current Reform1. Prevailing Consideration Available in the Market

Based on the statistics from Tianxiang Investment Consultancy Co., Ltd., as at the end of August 2006, the consideration paid in form of bonus shares by companies with Circulating A Shares that had their share reform completed is on average 3.1 shares for every 10 shares.

As at 30 September 2006, among those companies that have their share reform completed by paying consideration in form of bonus shares, the top ten companies, by market capitalization, paid an average consideration of 2.51 shares for every 10 shares.

2. Determination of the Current Share Reform Proposal

Being one of the blue chips with considerable market capitalization in China, when taking into account of the average consideration paid by the large-scale blue chip companies, the Company has also made reference to the overall average consideration paid by companies that had completed the share reform before making an ultimate determination that all Circulating A Shares Shareholders will receive from Sinopec Corp. 3.2 shares for every 10 shares in their possession under the Share Reform Proposal.

3. Analysis on the Value of the Consideration

The sponsor is of the opinion that:

- (1) If the Proposal is adopted at the Domestic Shareholders Meeting, and on the condition that the Circulating A Shares Shareholders whose name appear on the registry of SD&C on the Record Date for the Implementation of the Proposal are not required to pay, whether in cash or otherwise, for the Consideration, the number of Circulating A Shares shall be increased by 32%.

- (2) After the implementation of the Proposal, the Consideration effectively received by Circulating A Shares Shareholders is reasonable and the interests of such shareholders will be protected.

Table of Contents

- (3) The fundamentals of the Company together with both the current and long-term interests of all shareholders of the Company have been taken into account of when determining the Consideration for the Proposal. Such Consideration is beneficial to facilitate the development of the Company and to maintain the market stability and can fully protect the interests of the Circulating A Share Shareholders before and after the share reform.

III. UNDERTAKINGS OF THE HOLDERS OF NON-CIRCULATING SHARES AND WARRANTIES RELATING TO THE FULFILMENT OF THE UNDERTAKEN OBLIGATIONS

(1) Undertakings

All Holders of Non-circulating Shares of the Company will observe the laws, rules and regulations and will fulfil their respective legal obligations under the undertakings.

(2) Warranties relating to the Fulfilment of the Obligations under the Undertakings

For shares with trading rights held by Holders of Non-Circulating of the Company, the Board will complete SD&C formalities in relation to lock-up during the statutory lock-up period. Within the lock-up period, such portion of shares may not be listed or traded on the SSE.

(3) Statement of the Undertaking Party

Sinopec Corp. will fulfil its undertaking faithfully and honestly and assume the corresponding legal liability. Unless the transferee of the Consideration shares agrees and is capable to assume the liability under the undertakings, Sinopec Corp. will not transfer the shares in possession during the lock-up period under the undertakings.

IV. DESCRIPTION ON WHETHER OR NOT SHARES OF THE COMPANY HELD BY HOLDERS OF NON-CIRCULATING SHARES ARE SUBJECT TO ANY TITLE DISPUTE OR HAVE BEEN PLEDGED OR FROZEN

As of the date of execution of this Announcement, none of the shares of the Company held by Sinopec Corp., i.e. the Holder of Non-Circulating Shares which proposes the motion of carrying out the Share Reform Proposal, are subject to any dispute relating to the title thereof, have been pledged or frozen, or are restricted by any other rights.

V. Potential Risks Exposed During the Course of the Share Reform and the Solutions

(1) Unable to timely obtain the approval from SASAC

Shares of the Company held by Holders of Non-circulating Shares of the Company consist of the State-owned legal person shares. Pursuant to the relevant laws and regulations of the State, if the implementation of the Share Reform Proposal results in a change in the shareholding held by the State, the approval of SASAC is required before convening the Domestic Shareholders Meeting. It is likely that such approval fails to be obtained in a timely fashion.

Solution: The Board of the Company will use its best endeavours to assist the Holders of Non-circulating Shares to obtain the approval from SASAC. If no approval is given by SASAC prior to the commencement of the online voting for the Domestic Shareholders Meeting, the Company will postpone the Domestic Shareholders Meeting in accordance with the relevant provisions. If it is ultimately unable to obtain SASAC's approval, the implementation of the Share Reform Proposal will not be carried out.

Table of Contents

(2) Unable to obtain approval at the Domestic Shareholders Meeting

The Share Reform Proposal shall only become effective upon the approval by at least two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders who attend in the Domestic Shareholders Meeting and the approval by at least two-thirds of the voting rights held by Circulating A Shares Shareholders who attend in the Domestic Shareholders Meeting. It is likely that such resolution fails to be adopted at the Domestic Shareholders Meeting in a timely fashion.

Solution: With the assistance of the sponsor, the Company shall have sufficient discussion and consultation with the Circulating A Shares Shareholders by means of holding investors forums, online roadshow, paying visits to the institutional investors and via other measures. At the same time, the Company shall also set up a hotline number, fax number and email address so as to solicit opinion from holders of circulating shares on an extensive scale and to further perfect the share reform proposal concurrently so that the Share Reform Proposal is generally recognized by Circulating A Shares Shareholders.

(3) Fluctuation in the share price of the Company

Due to uncertainty involved in the share price movement, the share reform is likely to trigger fluctuation on the share price affecting the interests of the Circulating A Shares Shareholders of the Company.

Solution: The Company shall cause the Holders of Non-circulating Shares to fulfil their undertakings as well as to timely perform their obligations in respect of disclosure of information so as to protect, to the fullest extent as possible, the interests of the Circulating A Shares Shareholders. Concurrently, the investors are advised that although the Proposal is beneficial to the ongoing development of the Company, the implementation of such Proposal may not necessarily bring immediate growth to both the earnings and investment values of the Company. Investors should be aware of the risks involved in the investment and shall make rational investment decision based on the information disclosed by the Company.

(4) Unable to timely obtain approval from MOFCOM given in respect of the Proposal

The Company has obtained the Approval Certificate of a Foreign Investment Enterprise. Since the Proposal involves matters concerning the examination and approval of management by foreign investors, the approval from MOFCOM to any change to the existing status is required before the implementation of the Proposal. It is likely that such approval fails to be obtained from MOFCOM in a timely fashion.

The Share Reform Proposal of the Company is in compliance with the Company Law, the Securities Law, Several Opinion Concerning Promoting the Reform and Opening Up as well as the Stable Development of the Equity Capital Market, the Guiding Opinion Concerning the Share Reform of Listed Companies and other relevant laws, regulations and rules of the State, and is under the support of the State's policies. Once the Proposal is adopted by the Board upon consideration, prior discussion in respect of the relevant matters will be commenced with the authority in charge of foreign investment so as to create favourable conditions for obtaining the approval from MOFCOM given in respect of the Proposal and the change in shareholding.

VI. INTERMEDIARIES RETAINED BY THE COMPANY

(1) Concluding Opinion of the Sponsor

To the extent that the relevant information and materials provided by the Company and its Holders of Non-circulating Shares are true, accurate and complete, the sponsor is of the opinion that the implementation of the Share Reform Proposal is in compliance with the Several Opinion Concerning Promoting the Reform and Opening as well as the Stable Development of the Equity Capital Market issued by the State Council, the Guiding Opinion Concerning the Share Reform of Listed Companies jointly published by CSRC, SASAC, Ministry of Finance, People’s Bank of China and MOFCOM, Measures on Administration of Share Reform of Listed Companies promulgated by CSRC (Zheng Jian Fa [2005] No. 86) together with other relevant laws and regulations and follows the principles of openness, fair, justice, good faith and voluntariness, and that the Consideration payable by the Holders of Non-circulating Shares to Circulating A Shares Shareholders for acquiring the trading right of such shares is reasonable. Due to the reasons set forth above, the sponsor is willing to recommend the Company to carry out the share reform.

(2) Concluding Opinion of the Legal Adviser

The Legal Adviser is of the opinion that both the Company and Sinopec Corp. are qualified to formulate and implement the Proposal. Nothing contained in the Share Reform Proposal shall be construed as in violation of the mandatory provisions of the relevant laws and regulations. The Share Reform Proposal may be implemented in accordance with the law after adoption at the Domestic Shareholders’ Meeting and upon completion of other relevant approval procedures.
