Brazilian Ranking Values GOL's Brand at US$326 Million

São Paulo, July 12, 2005 - GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (NYSE: GOL and Bovespa: GOLL4), Brazil's low-fare, low-cost airline, was named one of Brazil's most valuable brands by ISTOÉ Magazine in its fourth annual Most Valuable Brazilian Brands Ranking. The study was conducted by the Brazilian subsidiary of Interbrand, a North American consulting group specializing in brand management, and ranks GOL's brand eighth in a list of Brazilian companies across a broad range of industries.

The ranking is based on two sets of criteria, which are also used for Interbrand studies conducted in the U.S. The first set of criteria focuses on marketing aspects such as brand recognition, market share and brand loyalty. The second set evaluates a company's financial performance, including net revenues, operational profit and EVA (Economic Value Added). This information was gathered by Interbrand's subsidiary through financial statements released by companies and other public sources of information. GOL was distinguished in this ranking for its innovative business model.

Although GOL has only been flying for four years, our Company's brand is already one of the most recognized in the Brazilian market and the one of the most valued in the aviation sector. We believe that our brand has been effective in supporting our reputation as a young, successful and innovative company, providing high quality services at low prices, which contributed to our notable debut in this ranking, said Constantino de Oliveira Junior, GOL's CEO. We are pleased with this study as it clearly shows that we are on the right path to further development of our brand.
