GOL Launches Daily Flights to Santiago, Chile

São Paulo, September 25, 2006 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes (NYSE: GOL and Bovespa: GOLL4), Brazil's low-cost, low-fare airline, yesterday began operating daily flights to Chile, one of the most popular travel destinations in South America. The Company will initially operate three daily flights to Santiago, Chile: two flights will depart from Rio de Janeiro, making stops in São Paulo and Buenos Aires, while a third will depart from Florianópolis, making stops in Porto Alegre and Buenos Aires. GOL also plans on adding two nonstop flights São Paulo - Santiago by the end of 2006. Santiago, the capital of Chile, is GOL's seventh international destination. Currently, the Company flies to Buenos Aires, Rosario and Cordoba (Argentina), Montevideo (Uruguay), Asuncion (Paraguay), and Santa Cruz de la Sierra (Bolivia).

The Buenos Aires-Santiago route also, the second most traveled international route in South America, will be also supported by GOL with three daily flights. Between January and May of this year, more than one million tourists traveled to Chile. According to Sernatur, the National Tourism Service of Chile, 351,400 of those visitors arrived from Argentina, while 67,200 traveled from Brazil. Of the total number of visitors traveling to Chile, 390,800 arrived via the country's airports. Sernatur data also shows a 12.5 percent increase in Chile's tourism for the first half of 2006, compared to the same period last year.

One of GOL's main objectives is to popularize air travel throughout Brazil and South America and we believe our low-fares and high-quality service will further stimulate demand for flights to Chile, says Tarcísio Gargioni, Vice President of Marketing and Services of GOL. As business opportunities between Brazil and Chile continue to grow, we look forward to contributing to the economic, social and tourist development of Brazil and Chile.

Chile's economy grew by 6.3 percent in 2005; nearly 40 percent of the country's 16 million inhabitants live in Santiago.

Tickets can be purchased over the phone, through a travel agent, or on GOL's website, www.voegol.com.br. Please see the destination table below for more information on flight schedules:
