Management's discussion and analysis

Overview of financial results for the third quarter of fiscal 2006

Net income was 792 million and earnings per share were 0.89, both more than double the level in the third quarter a year earlier. Income on a continuing basis was 804 million, up 30% compared to the prior-year period.

Orders and sales each rose 14%, to 22.442 billion and 21.173 billion, respectively.

On a continuing basis, net cash from operating and investing activities was 1.768 billion, including 1.127 billion in net proceeds from the sale of Siemens' remaining shares in Infineon Technologies AG. For comparison, operating and investing activities in the third quarter a year earlier used net cash of 284 million, including 731 million in net cash used to acquire CTI Molecular Imaging, Inc.

We believe that the third quarter continued the overall momentum of Siemens, with higher income, sales and orders compared to a year earlier. It was a particularly successful quarter in terms of reshaping the company's business portfolio. In addition to announcing a new joint venture for the company's carrier communications business with an outstanding partner in Nokia Corporation (Nokia), the company also initiated strategic acquisitions that would make Siemens an important player in clinical diagnostics, one of the most dynamic sectors of medicine.

For the third quarter of fiscal 2006, ended June 30, 2006, Siemens reported net income of 792 million, up 104% compared to 389 million in the same period a year earlier. Basic and diluted earnings per share rose to 0.89 and 0.85, respectively, from 0.44 and 0.42 in the third quarter a year earlier. Discontinued operations lost 12 million in the third quarter, compared to a loss of 229 million in the same period a year earlier. Income from continuing operations in the third quarter was 804 million, a 30% increase from 618 million a year earlier. Basic and diluted earnings per share from continuing operations were 0.90 and 0.86, respectively. A year earlier, basic and diluted earnings per share from continuing operations in the third quarter were 0.69 and 0.67, respectively.

A majority of the Groups in Operations posted higher earnings year-over-year. Major earnings contributions came from Automation and Drives (A&D), Medical Solutions (Med), Power Generation (PG), Siemens VDO Automotive (SV), Power Transmission and Distribution (PTD), and Osram. Severance charges at Communications (Com) and Siemens Business Services (SBS) totaled 69 million, somewhat more than in the prior-year period but less than the level expected for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006. Corporate items benefited from the sale of Infineon shares mentioned above, which resulted in a 33 million gain.

Income before income taxes from the other two components of Siemens worldwide, Financing and Real Estate and Corporate Treasury, rose to 185 million from 162 million in the third quarter a year earlier.

Third-quarter orders of 22.442 billion were up 14% compared to the third quarter a year earlier, led by strong order growth at A&D, Transportation Systems (TS) and PTD. Sales increased 14% as well, to 21.173 billion. International markets were the primary source of top-line growth, as sales in Germany edged up 1% and orders in Germany declined 2% compared to the prior-year level. Currency translation effects in the quarter were negligible. Organic growth in the third quarter included a 9% rise in orders and a 7% increase in sales for Siemens overall, despite declines in Germany of 4% in orders and 1% in sales. Portfolio effects included divestment of the Product Related Services (PRS) business at SBS at the beginning of the current quarter, and a number of major acquisitions in the fourth quarter of the prior year including VA Technologie AG (VA Tech). Beginning with the fourth quarter, these acquisitions will contribute to sales and orders on an organic basis rather than as new volume, with a corresponding effect on reported growth rates.

On a continuing basis, net cash provided from operating and investing activities within Operations in the third quarter was 1.510 billion compared to 101 million provided in the prior-year period. The current period included 1.127 billion in net proceeds from the Infineon share sale, while the prior-year period included 731 million used to acquire CTI Molecular Imaging, Inc. (CTI). Cash payments for severance at Com and SBS were higher in the current period, totaling 81 million compared to 24 million in the prior-year period. Both periods included significant cash used for inventories and capital expenditures associated with business growth. Within

Table of Contents

Financing and Real Estate and Corporate Treasury activities, net cash from operating and investing activities in the third quarter was 258 million compared to a negative 385 million a year earlier. For Siemens on a continuing basis, net cash from operating and investing activities in the third quarter was 1.768 billion compared to a negative 284 million a year earlier.

Results of SiemensResults of Siemens Third quarter of fiscal 2006 compared to third quarter of fiscal 2005

The following discussion presents selected information for Siemens for the third quarter:

(in millions)	June 30,
	2006	2005
New orders	22,442	19,764
New orders in Germany	3,717	3,791
New international orders	18,725	15,973
Sales	21,173	18,583
Sales in Germany	3,797	3,759
International sales	17,376	14,824

Third-quarter orders increased 14% year-over-year, to 22.442 billion, led by strong order growth at A&D, TS, and PTD. Sales were up to 21.173 billion, which also represents a 14% increase compared to the third quarter a year earlier. On aggregate, currency translation effects in the quarter were negligible. Excluding the net effect of acquisitions and dispositions, third-quarter orders rose 9% and sales were up 7% year-over-year. International markets were the primary source of growth, as orders in Germany declined 2% year-over-year, to 3.717 billion, while sales edged up 1%, to 3.797 billion. International orders and sales were each up 17% compared to the prior-year period, at 18.725 billion and 17.376 billion, respectively.

Within international growth in the third quarter, Asia-Pacific posted orders of 3.399 billion, a 22% increase, and sales rose 30% year-over-year, to 3.199 billion. Within Asia-Pacific, orders in China increased 15%, to 1.111 billion, while sales in China climbed 41%, to 1.126 billion. In Europe outside Germany, orders increased 19%, to 6.699 billion, mainly on organic growth. Sales in Europe outside Germany rose 9% year-over-year, to 6.463 billion, on the strength of acquisitions. Growth in the Americas was robust, with the region as a whole generating order and sales growth of 12% and 15%, respectively. Orders strongly benefited from portfolio effects, while sales grew on a balance of both organic growth and portfolio effects. Within the Americas, the U.S. posted orders of 4.712 billion, an increase of 21%, and sales of 4.518 billion were 22% higher than in the prior-year period.

(in millions)	June 30,
	2006	2005
Gross profit on sales	5,927	5,300
as percentage of sales	28.0%	28.5%

Gross profit increased 12% year-over-year, due to a significant increase in sales compared to the prior-year period. Gross profit as a percentage of sales for the third quarter came in lower, at 28.0% compared to 28.5% a year earlier. This is partly due to a changed sales mix at a number of Groups, including A&D and PG.

Research and development (R&D) expenses increased to 1.408 billion from 1.251 billion a year earlier, including higher outlays at SV. Due to the significant increase in sales year-over-year, R&D nevertheless declined to 6.6% of sales from 6.7% in the prior-year quarter. Marketing, selling and general administrative expenses also increased but declined as a percentage of sales, from 18.2% to 17.1%, due to significantly higher sales year-over-year. Income from investment in other companies, net, increased to 109 million from 78 million in the prior-year period, primarily due to higher equity earnings from a major joint venture. Income from financial assets and marketable securities, net of 67 million benefited from a 33 million gain from sale of Infineon shares and positive effects from derivative activities not qualifying for hedge accounting at Corporate Treasury. A year earlier, income from financial assets and marketable securities, net was a negative 27 million.

(in millions)

In the third quarter, income from continuing operations was 804 million compared to 618 million in the same period a year earlier. While severance charges at Com and SBS were higher at 69 million compared to 58 million a year earlier, strong sales growth generated significantly higher gross profit compared to the third quarter a year earlier. Dominated by domestic tax free income, income taxes on Siemens income from continuing operations were 24% in the third quarter of fiscal 2006, up from 22% in the same period a year earlier. In the prior year period our income tax rate benefited from a reorganization of certain businesses in the U.S. generating previously unrecognized tax deductions. Discontinued operations consist solely of activities related to the previously divested mobile phone business. Discontinued operations had a loss, net of income taxes of 12 million in the current period, down sharply from 229 million a year earlier. This change is reflected directly in third-quarter net income, which rose to 792 million from 389 million in the same period a year earlier.

Table of ContentsResults of Siemens First nine months of fiscal 2006 compared to first nine months of fiscal 2005

The following discussion presents selected information for Siemens for the nine months:

(in millions)	June 30,
	2006	2005
New orders	73,643	60,195
New orders in Germany	12,567	12,154
New international orders	61,076	48,041
Sales	63,402	53,339
Sales in Germany	11,833	11,505
International sales	51,569	41,834

Orders in the first nine months were 73.643 billion, a 22% increase from 60.195 billion in the prior-year period. Sales of 63.402 billion were up 19% from 53.339 billion a year earlier. Excluding currency translation effects and the net effect of acquisitions and dispositions (organics growth), orders climbed 10% and sales rose 8%. Growth was driven by international markets, where major orders were both numerous and well-distributed. International orders for the first nine months were up 27% year-over-year, to 61.076 billion. Sales rose 23%, to 51.569 billion. In Germany, both orders and sales increased 3% year-over-year, to 12.567 billion and 11.833 billion, respectively, primarily due to acquisitions between the periods under review.

Within international growth, Asia-Pacific posted orders of 11.668 billion and sales of 9.233 billion, both up 35% year-over-year. Within Asia-Pacific, orders in China for the first nine months climbed 34%, to 4.109 billion, while sales surged 56%, to 3.201 billion. In the Americas order and sales grew by 22% and 24%, respectively, including strong portfolio and currency translation effects. Within this trend, the U.S. posted orders of 13.634 billion and sales of 12.726 billion, both 22% higher than in the first nine months a year earlier. In Europe outside Germany, orders for the first nine months increased 19%, to 22.614 billion, and sales were up 14% year-over-year, at 19.881 billion, both strongly benefiting from portfolio effects.

Gross profit on sales	17,514	15,986
as percentage of sales	27.6%	30.0%

Gross profit for the first nine months increased 10% year-over-year, as a majority of the Groups in Operations increased their earnings. Gross profit margin for the first nine months was 27.6% compared to 30.0% a year earlier. Factors that reduced gross profit margin year-over-year were primarily a changed sales mix at a number of Groups, particularly at A&D and PG and higher severance charges at SBS and Com.

R&D investments and marketing, selling and general administrative expenses in the first nine months of fiscal 2006 increased compared to the first nine months a year earlier, but declined as a percentage of sales due primarily to significant sales growth between the two periods under review. Other operating income, net was 179 million in the current period up from 38 million a year earlier. The increase was due mainly to beneficial effects related to settlement of an arbitration proceeding, and also higher disposals of real estate property in the current period. Income from investment in other companies, net increased to 546 million from 434 million in the prior-year period, mainly due to increased gains from sales of investments. Income from financial assets and marketable securities rose year-over-year, primarily due to higher gains on sale of shares in Juniper Networks, Inc., which amounted to 356 million in the current period and 208 million in the prior-year period.

Income from continuing operations before income taxes in the first nine months was 3,533 billion compared to 3,444 billion in the same period a year earlier, despite a substantial increase in severance charges at SBS and Com that was only partially offset by higher gains from sales of Juniper shares mentioned above. The severance charges at SBS and Com totaled 596 million compared to 165 million in the prior-year period.

Income from continuing operations in the first nine months was 2,520 billion, slightly below 2,561 billion in the same period a year earlier, due to a higher tax rate. The tax rate in the current year of 25% was dominated by domestic tax free income, while in the prior year period our income tax rate of 23% benefited from a reorganization of certain businesses in the U.S. generating previously unrecognized tax deductions. The loss from discontinued operations, net of income taxes was 28 million in the current period, down from a loss of 390 million in the first nine months a year earlier. This change had a corresponding effect on nine-month net income, which rose 15% year-over-year, to 2,492 billion.

Portfolio activities

During the third quarter, Med announced two acquisitions that would strengthen its competitive position in the strategically important medical diagnostics market. The first acquisition involves Diagnostics Products Corporation (DPC), USA. The preliminary purchase price amounts to approximately 1.5 billion (see Subsequent event for further information). Med also signed an agreement to acquire the diagnostics division of Bayer AG, Germany for a preliminary purchase price of approximately 4.2 billion. The transaction, which is subject to regulatory approval and other customary closing conditions, is expected to close early in fiscal 2007.

Also in the third quarter, the Company sold the majority of the VA Tech power generation business, including the hydropower activities, to Andritz AG, Austria. The sale was completed in May 2006 for a purchase price of approximately 185 million.

At the beginning of April 2006, SBS closed the sale of its Product Related Services (PRS) business to Fujitsu Siemens Computers (Holding) BV.

In June 2006, Siemens agreed to divest the distribution and industry logistics as well as material handling products (Dematic) businesses, pending regulatory approval. The assets and liabilities of Dematic-related operations of Siemens are classified on the balance sheet as held for disposal. The transaction is expected to close in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006.

Also in June 2006, Siemens and Nokia announced to contribute the carrier-related operations of Siemens, which are part of Com, and the Networks Business Group of Nokia into a new company, to be called Nokia Siemens Networks (NSN), in exchange for shares in NSN. Siemens and Nokia will each own 50% of NSN. The assets and liabilities of carrier-related operations of Siemens are classified on the balance sheet as held for disposal. The transaction is expected to close by the second quarter of fiscal 2007 at the latest.

The assets and liabilities of the enterprise networks business, which is part of Com, were also reclassified on the balance sheet as held for disposal as of June 30, 2006. The Company expects to divest the enterprise networks business within one year.

For a detailed discussion of our acquisitions and dispositions, see Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements.

Following an intensive analysis by the Managing Board associated with the strategic reorientation of Com s operations, the carved out Siemens Home and Office Communication Devices business (SHC) was reclassified to Other Operations effective in the third quarter. Results for both Com and Other Operations have been recast on a retroactive basis, to present meaningful comparisons between current and prior periods.

Third-quarter sales for Com edged up 1% year-over-year, to 2.972 billion, and orders rose 5%, to 3.258 billion. Group profit at Com was positive compared to a loss in the third quarter a year earlier. Severance charges of 34 million were nearly unchanged compared to the prior-year quarter. The carrier business posted higher sales and also increased its earnings contribution year-over-year. Sales at the enterprise networks business declined year-over-year, and its loss widened. Com expects higher severance charges in the fourth quarter compared to the third quarter.

In the first nine months of fiscal 2006, sales at Com were 9.362 billion and orders were 10.279 billion, both 8% higher than in the first nine months a year earlier. Nine-month Group profit was nearly unchanged at 365 million. While severance charges were higher in the current period, at 198 million compared to 62 million, the current period also included higher gains on sales of Com s shares in Juniper Networks, Inc., totaling 356 million compared to 208 million in the first nine months a year earlier. Com s carrier networks activities delivered higher sales and earnings compared to the first nine months of the prior year. While year-to-date sales at the enterprise networks business declined slightly, losses widened significantly year-over-year.

Execution of the strategic reorientation of Com s operations is expected to continue in coming quarters. Effective with the end of the third quarter, on June 30, 2006, Com s carrier networks business and its enterprise networks business are held for disposal. In June of 2006, Siemens reached an agreement to merge the carrier networks business into a joint venture with Nokia, and this transaction is expected to close by the second quarter of fiscal 2007 at the latest. For further information see Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements . In addition, A&D will assume operational control of Com s Wireless Modules division at the beginning of fiscal 2007.

Effective at the beginning of the third quarter on April 1, 2006, SBS closed the previously announced sale of its Product Related Services (PRS) business to Fujitsu Siemens Computers (Holding) BV.

Sales and orders for SBS in the third quarter decreased and reflect the PRS divestment, coming in at 1.081 billion and 1.054 billion, respectively. On an adjusted basis, excluding portfolio effects, sales came within 1% of the prior-year level and third-quarter orders were up 2% year-over-year. Group profit was again negative, but improved compared to the same quarter a year earlier. The current period included higher severance charges compared to the prior year, at 35 million, as well as adverse effects related to the divestiture of PRS.

In the first nine months of fiscal 2006, sales of 3.880 billion were nearly level year-over-year. Orders of 3.919 billion were lower due to a more selective order intake, the PRS divestiture, and a smaller number of major orders compared to the first nine months a year earlier. The Group's loss of 522 million for the first nine months included severance charges totaling 398 million, a significantly higher level than in the same period a year earlier.

In the third quarter A&D posted a quarterly profit of 396 million, up 19% year-over-year. A&D's Group profit margin remained high for the quarter, despite a changing sales mix and increased selling costs associated with strategic expansion of the Group's business base. Both sales and orders included a combination of double-digit organic growth and new volume from acquisitions between the periods under review. As a result, sales climbed to 3.214 billion, up 28% year-over-year, and orders rose to 3.541 billion, 32% higher than the prior-year period. A&D's continued expansion in Asia-Pacific included particularly rapid growth in China.

For the first nine months, Group profit at A&D reached 1.121 billion, a new high and a 23% increase compared to the first nine months a year earlier. Sales for the first nine months climbed to 9.297 billion and orders reached 10.640 billion, both up strongly from the same period a year earlier. These increases followed the same pattern as in the third quarter, as new volume from acquisitions joined a solid base of organic growth and regionally broad demand was highlighted by rapid growth in Asia-Pacific. In the fourth quarter, the acquisitions of Flender and Robicon, both acquired in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2005, will contribute to sales and orders on an organic basis rather than as new volume, with a corresponding effect on reported growth rates.

Beginning in fiscal 2007, A&D will assume operational responsibility for the Wireless Modules division currently included within Com.

Beginning in fiscal 2006, I&S includes the Airport Logistics and Postal Automation divisions, formerly of L&A, on a retroactive basis.

Third-quarter Group profit at I&S was 78 million, including a substantial positive contribution from the VA Tech acquisition. For comparison, Group profit in the prior-year period included project-related charges. Sales of 2.232 billion in the third quarter were 59% higher than in the prior-year period, and included increases in all lines of business. Orders for the quarter rose 26% year-over-year, to 1.744 billion. The growth in both sales and orders in the third quarter benefited strongly from the VA Tech acquisition which took place at the beginning of the fourth quarter of fiscal 2005.

Results at I&S for the first nine months also show the influence of VA Tech, which helped push Group profit to 207 million on sales of 6.342 billion. Order growth for the first nine months was due primarily to VA Tech, as the Group's Postal Automation and Airport Logistics divisions posted lower orders compared to the first nine months a year earlier. In the fourth quarter, the VA Tech acquisition will contribute to sales and orders on an organic basis rather than as new volume, with a corresponding effect on reported growth rates.

SBT posted Group profit of 45 million in the third quarter, up from 26 million in the same period a year earlier. The increase resulted in part from increased capacity utilization combined with higher sales, which rose 4% to 1.122 billion. Profitability in the third quarter also benefited from greater emphasis on higher-margin activities based on products and services. Third-quarter orders were level with the prior-year period, at 1.142 billion.

In the first nine months of fiscal 2006, the factors mentioned above lifted SBT's Group profit by 52% year-over-year, to 147 million. Sales in the first three quarters were 3.393 billion, up from 3.115 billion in the same period a year earlier. Broad-based demand for SBT's security, safety, building comfort and building automation solutions boosted orders to 3.833 billion for the first nine months from 3.355 billion in the prior-year period.

* Excluding portfolio effects of 3% and 5% on sales and orders, respectively.

 Excluding currency translation effects of 2% on sales and orders, and portfolio effects of 5% and 9% on sales and orders, respectively.

PG's Group profit of 213 million in the third quarter included charges related to a major project and a changed sales mix compared to the prior year. In particular, while the Wind Power division doubled its third-quarter sales and earnings compared to a year earlier, its earnings margin is rising from a lower level compared to PG's fossil power generation business. Third-quarter sales for PG overall climbed 25% year-over-year, to 2.635 billion, as the Group converted strong order growth in recent quarters to current business. Orders were 2.475 billion compared to 2.646 billion in the third quarter a year earlier, which included a higher level of large orders in the fossil power generation business.

For the first nine months, Group profit of 637 million included the charges mentioned above, as well as an adverse result in arbitration related to a turnkey power generation project in the Philippines. In contrast, Group profit of 695 million in the first nine months a year earlier benefited from higher cancellation gains. In addition, the company expects earnings from joint ventures to be significantly lower in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006 compared to the same period a year earlier. Sales for PG rose to 7.162 billion from 5.716 billion in the first nine months a year earlier. Nine-month orders at PG climbed to 9.794 billion from 7.646 billion in the same period a year earlier, including a number of major orders in the Middle East, the Americas and Europe. Orders in the Wind Power division in the first nine months jumped 182% year-over-year.

After the close of the third quarter, PG announced an agreement to acquire AG Kühnle, Kopp & Kausch of Germany, a maker of steam turbines, turbocompressors and fans for industrial applications with fiscal 2005 revenues of approximately 270 million. This transaction, which requires regulatory approval, is expected to close in the fourth quarter.

A strong third quarter for PTD included substantial increases in Group profit, sales and orders. The rise in Group profit, to 113 million, was driven by higher sales at every division, led by the High Voltage division. For comparison, Group profit at PTD a year earlier included severance charges in the Transformers division. New volume from the VA Tech acquisition added to the Group's exceptionally strong organic growth in the third quarter, particularly including large orders in the Middle East. As a result, third-quarter sales jumped 82%, to 1.718 billion, and orders for the quarter climbed 57% year-over-year, to 2.075 billion.

In the first nine months of fiscal 2006, Group profit of 278 million at PTD was up strongly compared to the same period a year earlier. Group profit in the prior-year period included the severance charges noted above. Group profit growth for the first nine months benefited from a 75% rise in sales year-over-year, to 4.670 billion, including new volume from VA Tech. Orders climbed to 6.345 billion, up 74% year-over-year on particularly strong demand in the Middle East. While the VA Tech acquisition expanded PTD's business base, organic growth accounted for much of the increase in sales and the majority of the increase in orders. In the fourth quarter, the VA Tech acquisition will contribute to sales and orders on an organic basis rather than as new volume, with a corresponding effect on reported growth rates.

Group profit at TS was 18 million in the third quarter, up from 6 million in the same period a year earlier. Orders more than doubled compared to the prior-year period, to 1.550 billion, led by a major new contract for trains and maintenance in Russia. Third-quarter sales of 987 million were below the level a year earlier.

TS improved Group profit to 60 million for the first nine months even though sales were nearly level with the prior-year period, at 3.056 billion. In contrast, nine-month order growth was robust, rising 80% to 5.430 billion, fueled by strong demand for trains, particularly including major orders in China, Russia, Spain and Austria.

Group profit at SV was 158 million in the third quarter, including 17 million in charges for capacity adjustments and higher research and development (R&D) investments. Sales and orders were 2.604 billion and 2.600 billion, respectively, in a usually strong period. Orders in the prior-year quarter included a large contract won jointly with SBS.

Table of Contents

For the first nine months, SV's Group profit of 498 million was up 3% compared to the same period a year earlier despite a significant rise in R&D expenses year-over-year. Group profit in the current period included gains from sales of investments related to joint ventures as well as charges for capacity adjustments. In the current period, broad-based growth lifted sales and orders to 7.667 billion and 7.660 billion, respectively.

Med was one of Siemens' top earnings contributors, with 233 million in Group profit in the third quarter. The difference compared to the prior year is primarily volume-related, since Med increased its quarterly Group profit margin year-over-year. While sales of 1.837 billion came in lower compared to the strong third quarter a year earlier, orders of 2.088 billion were up slightly on an adjusted basis.

Group profit at Med for the first nine months rose 9% to 737 million on higher sales. Nine-month sales rose 10% year-over-year, to 5.868 billion, in an increasingly competitive market for medical solutions, particularly diagnostics imaging systems, while orders rose 4%, to 6.340 billion.

During the third quarter Siemens entered into an agreement to acquire Diagnostic Products Corporation (DPC) of the U.S., a leading provider of in-vitro clinical diagnostics that complement Med's established strengths in in-vivo diagnostic imaging. Also in the third quarter, Med announced an agreement to acquire the Diagnostics division of Bayer AG, which would expand Med's position in the fast-growing field of molecular diagnostics. For further information concerning the acquisitions of DPC and the Diagnostics division of Bayer AG see Portfolio activities above and Subsequent event below as well as Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Group profit at Osram was 111 million, level with the prior year despite higher costs associated with the market launch of innovative new products. The Group grew in all regions, posting sales of 1.089 billion for the quarter compared to 1.038 billion in the same period a year earlier.

For the first nine months, Group profit at Osram was up 6%, at 368 million, on a 9% rise in sales. Growth in sales was broad-based within the Group and included increased demand in all regions.

Other Operations

Other Operations consist of centrally held operating businesses not related to a Group. These businesses include joint ventures, equity investments, a portion of the VA Tech acquisition, and the distribution and industry logistics and material handling products (Dematic) businesses carved out of L&A. Beginning in the third quarter, Other Operations include Siemens home and office communications products unit (SHC), which was carved out of Com as a stand-alone business and for which Com management is no longer responsible. Prior year information was reclassified for comparability purposes.

In the third quarter, Group profit from Other Operations was 9 million compared to 2 million a year earlier. Earnings from joint ventures were higher compared to the prior-year period. Dematic posted similar losses in both periods, while SHC posted a loss following a positive result in the prior-year period. Sales from Other Operations rose to 1.176 billion from 998 million a year earlier, including new volume from VA Tech.

For the first nine months, Group profit from Other Operations was 109 million compared to 178 million in the same period a year earlier, as higher earnings at joint ventures were more than offset by SHC posting a loss following a positive result in the prior-year period and higher losses and impairments in the Dematic businesses. Sales rose to 3.569 billion from 2.994 billion in the first nine months of the prior year, including a sizable contribution from VA Tech.

During the third quarter Siemens announced that it would divest the Dematic businesses. The transaction is expected to close in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006 and will result in a loss for the period.

Reconciliation to Financial Statements

Reconciliation to financial statements includes various categories of items which are not allocated to the Groups because the Managing Board has determined that such items are not indicative of Group performance.

Corporate items, pensions and eliminations

Corporate items, pensions and eliminations were a negative 252 million compared to a negative 248 million in the third quarter a year earlier. Corporate items improved year-over-year, due primarily to a 33 million gain from the sale of Siemens remaining Infineon shares, while centrally carried pension expense increased primarily due to a reduction in the discount rate assumption at September 30, 2005.

In the first nine months of fiscal 2006, Corporate items, pensions and eliminations totaled a negative 765 million compared to a negative 807 million in the first nine months a year earlier. The improvement includes a gain of 95 million on the sale of an investment, the Infineon gain mentioned above, and a positive effect related to the settlement of an arbitration proceeding. These factors were partly offset by higher centrally carried pension expense.

Other interest expense

Other interest expense of Operations for the third quarter of fiscal 2006 was 83 million compared to interest expense of 48 million a year earlier. For the first nine months of fiscal 2006, other interest expense of Operations was 265 million, up from 112 million a year earlier. The change was mainly due to increased intra-company financing of Operations by Corporate Treasury year-over-year.

Income before income taxes at SFS was 64 million in the third quarter. The higher income in the prior-year period resulted from a substantial gain on the sale of a 51% stake in the real estate funds management business of Siemens Kapitalanlagegesellschaft mbH (SKAG).

For the first nine months, SFS posted income before income taxes of 187 million compared to 269 million in the same period a year earlier. The change year-over-year is primarily due to beneficial effects in the prior-year period which included the SKAG gain mentioned above, a special dividend paid by an investment held by the Equity division, and a gain on the sale of an investment. Total assets at the end of the first nine months were nearly unchanged compared to the end of fiscal 2005.

Siemens Real Estate (SRE)

				June 30, 2006	Sept. 30, 2005
Total assets				3,368	3,496	(4)%

In the third quarter, SRE recorded income before income taxes of 6 million compared to 44 million in the same period a year earlier. The current period was affected by higher vacancy costs and lower rental income, due to weaker demand within Siemens in Germany. The prior-year period benefited from higher income from real estate disposals.

Income before income taxes for the first nine months of fiscal 2006 also declined on higher vacancy costs and lower rental income, only partly offset by higher income from sales of real estate property in the current period compared to the first nine months of fiscal 2005. Total assets at the end of the first nine months were somewhat lower than at the end of fiscal 2005 primarily due to real estate disposals.

Eliminations, reclassifications and Corporate Treasury

Income before income taxes from Eliminations, reclassifications and Corporate Treasury was 115 million compared to 38 million in the third quarter a year earlier. The difference was mainly due to increased interest income from intra-company financing at Corporate Treasury and positive effects from derivative activities not qualifying for hedge accounting.

For the first nine months, Income before income taxes from Eliminations, reclassifications and Corporate Treasury was 279 million, compared to 219 million in the same period a year earlier. The increase was primarily due to higher interest income from intra-company financing, partly offset by reduced income from interest rate hedging activities not qualifying for hedge accounting.

Liquidity, capital resources and capital requirementsCash flow First nine months of fiscal 2006 compared to first nine months of fiscal 2005

The following discussion presents an analysis of Siemens' cash flows for the nine-month periods ended June 30, 2006 and June 30, 2005. The first table presents cash flow for continuing and discontinued operations. The second table focuses on continuing operations, and breaks out cash flows for Operations separately from the other two components of Siemens. Discontinued operations consist solely of activities related to the previously divested mobile phone business.

In the first nine months of fiscal 2006, operating and investing activities from continuing operations provided net cash of 1.349 billion compared to net cash used of 2.148 billion in the prior-year period. Discontinued operations used net cash of 316 million in the first nine months this year, compared to net cash used of 789 million in the same period a year earlier. In aggregate, operating and investing activities provided 1.033 billion in net cash for the first nine months of the current year, while the same period a year earlier used net cash of 2.937 billion.

Within Operations, operating activities provided net cash of 1.286 billion in the first nine months of fiscal 2006, compared to net cash provided of 687 million in the same period a year earlier. The current period included higher cash payouts for severance at Com and SBS, which rose to 503 million from 90 million, while the prior-year period included 1.496 billion in supplemental contributions to Siemens pension plans. In the first nine months of fiscal 2006, broad-based business growth led to an increase in inventories, net, particularly at PG, Com and I&S. The increase in inventories in the current period was partially offset by higher project-related customer payments (billings in excess), particularly at PG. The increase in inventories was also the primary driver for a significant build up of net working capital in both periods.

Within Corporate Treasury and Financing and Real Estate, operating activities provided net cash of 1.351 billion in the first nine months of fiscal 2006, compared to net cash provided of 586 million a year earlier. The change year-over-year reflects higher cash inflows from foreign currency derivatives, which increased by 466 million compared to the prior year level. For Siemens as a whole, net cash provided by operating activities was 2.637 billion in the first nine months of fiscal 2006 compared to 1.273 billion in the prior-year period.

Operations used net cash in investing activities of 533 million in the first nine months of the current year, compared to 2.737 billion a year earlier. Investing activities showed the effects of business growth including higher cash outflows for capital expenditures in the first nine months of the current year compared to the same period a year earlier. Outflows for acquisitions were lower compared to the prior year, which included 731 million for CTI. Proceeds from sales of investments were higher, due to the sale of shares of SMS Demag AG and the divestment of certain portions of VA Tech's power generation business, including the hydropower activities. Net cash from the sale of marketable securities in the first nine months increased substantially due primarily to 1.127 billion in net proceeds from the Infineon share sale in the third quarter of fiscal 2006. Sales of marketable securities also included higher cash inflows on sales of Juniper shares, totaling 465 million in the current period compared to 263 million a year earlier, and proceeds of 90 million from the sale of Siemens' remaining shares of Epcos AG in fiscal 2006.

Corporate Treasury and Financing and Real Estate used net cash in investing activities of 755 million compared to 684 million a year earlier. The difference is due to higher additions to property, plant and equipment year-over-year at SFS and SRE. Siemens as a whole used net cash in investing activities of 1.288 billion in the first nine months of fiscal 2006 compared to net cash used of 3.421 billion in the same period a year earlier.

Financing activities in the first nine months of fiscal 2006 used net cash of 1.708 billion compared to net cash used of 225 million a year earlier. The difference year over year in the change in short-term debt was a negative

2.148 billion, including repayment of short-term debt under commercial paper programs in the current period. The current period included net proceeds from the issuance of long-term debt of 833 million under a medium-term note program, while the prior year included net proceeds from the issuance of commercial paper. Dividends paid to shareholders for the first nine months of fiscal 2006 increased to 1.201 billion from 1.112 billion in the same period a year earlier.

Pension plan funding

At the end of the first nine months of fiscal 2006, the combined funding status of Siemens' principal pension plans showed an estimated underfunding of 3.5 billion, approximately the same amount as at the end of fiscal 2005, as pension service and interest costs were offset by regular employer contributions and the actual return on plan assets in the first nine months.

The fair value of plan assets of Siemens' principal funded pension plans on June 30, 2006 was 21.7 billion, compared to 21.5 billion on September 30, 2005. In the first nine months of fiscal 2006, regular employer contributions amounted to 639 million compared to 397 million in the first nine months of the prior year. The prior-year period included supplemental cash contributions of 1.496 billion.

The estimated projected benefit obligation (PBO) for Siemens' principal pension plans, which takes into account future compensation increases, amounted to 25.2 billion on June 30, 2006 compared to the PBO of 25.0 billion on September 30, 2005. The increase is due to the net of pension service and interest costs less benefits paid during the nine-month period, less currency translation effects.

For more information on Siemens' pension plans, see Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements.

Ratings

Following Siemens' announcement of the planned acquisition of the Diagnostics division of Bayer AG, on June 30, 2006 credit rating agencies changed their rating outlook for Siemens from stable to negative (Moody's Investors Service) and from stable to CreditWatch with negative implications (Standard & Poor's). Neither agency changed its long-term credit rating or its short-term issuance rating. These remain at Aa3 and Prime-1, respectively, at Moody's and at AA- and A-1+, respectively, at Standard & Poor's.

Equity

At the Annual Shareholders' Meeting on January 26, 2006, Siemens shareholders gave authorization to repurchase up to 10% of the Siemens' 2.673 billion common stock. The resolution is valid until July 25, 2007. According to this resolution, shares that are repurchased may be sold via a stock exchange; or (i) retired with the approval of the Supervisory Board; (ii) used to satisfy obligations under the 1999 Siemens Stock Option Plan and the 2001 Siemens Stock Option Plan; (iii) offered for sale to employees or former employees within the employee share program; or (iv) used to service conversion or option rights granted by the Company in connection with the issuance of bonds. In addition, the Supervisory Board is authorized to offer repurchased shares to the members of the Managing Board of Siemens under the same terms and conditions as those offered to employees of Siemens, or the Supervisory Board may grant and transfer such shares to members of the Managing Board as stock-based compensation with a holding period of at least two years.

Authorized Capital 2001/II of 67 million, representing approximately 22 million shares, expired on February 1, 2006. At the Annual Shareholders Meeting on January 26, 2006, the Company's shareholders authorized the Managing Board to increase the common stock by January 25, 2011, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, by up to 75 million, representing 25 million shares of no par value registered in the names of the holders against contributions in cash (Authorized Capital 2006). The authorization may be implemented in installments. Preemptive rights of existing shareholders shall be excluded. The new shares shall be issued under the condition that they are offered exclusively to employees of Siemens AG and its subsidiaries, provided these subsidiaries are not listed companies themselves and do not have their own employee stock schemes. The Managing Board is authorized to determine, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, the further content of the rights embodied in the shares and the terms and conditions of the share issue.

Debt

The Company updated its 5.0 billion medium-term note program on the basis of a new European Union Directive in March 2006. The amount outstanding under this program was 1.709 billion as of June 30, 2006, compared to 966 million as of September 30, 2005. In the third quarter of fiscal 2006 the U.S.$ commercial paper program was extended from U.S.$3.0 billion to U.S.$5.0 billion. The amount outstanding under the U.S.$5.0 billion and 3.0 billion commercial paper programs declined to 749 million as of June 30, 2006, compared to 1.484 billion as of September 30, 2005.

After the close of the third quarter, Siemens redeemed a 1.6 billion bond which was due on July 4, 2006.

Capital requirements

Siemens expects significant cash outflows for portfolio realignments in the fourth quarter and in fiscal 2007. To maintain sufficient financial flexibility Siemens expects to raise additional funds in the coming quarters. For further information see Portfolio activities above as well as Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

EVA performance

Siemens ties a portion of its executive incentive compensation to achieving economic value added (EVA) targets. EVA measures the profitability of a business (using Group profit for the Operations Groups and income before income taxes for the Financing and Real Estate businesses as a base) against the additional cost of capital used to run a business (using net capital employed for the Operations Groups and risk-adjusted equity for the Financing and Real Estate businesses as a base). A positive EVA means that a business has earned more than its cost of capital, whereas a negative EVA means that a business has earned less than its cost of capital. Depending on the EVA development year-over-year, a business is defined as value-creating or value-destroying. Other companies that use EVA may define and calculate EVA differently. Economic Value Added (EVA) in the first nine months of fiscal 2006 was positive and improved significantly due to higher earnings compared to the same period a year earlier.

Legal proceedings

On January 19, 2006, the US Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois charged Siemens Medical Solutions US (SMS) with committing mail and wire fraud in connection with a bid on a public contract for radiological equipment in the year 2000. The charges are based on alleged non-compliance with certain bidding terms and alleged misconduct during a trial related to the fulfillment of such terms. The bidding terms of the public contract were later ruled unconstitutional. SMS, which has cooperated with the government's investigation, considers the allegations to be unjustified and intends to oppose them in court. The court proceedings are scheduled for March 2007.

As previously reported, Italian and German prosecutors have been investigating allegations that former Siemens employees provided improper benefits to former employees of Enel in connection with the awarding of Enel contracts. We are cooperating with the authorities. German prosecutors brought charges against two of the investigated former employees in March 2006. In Italy, Siemens AG has entered into a so-called patteggiamento (plea bargaining agreement without the admission of any guilt or responsibility) with the Italian prosecutors. Siemens agreed to pay a 0.5 million fine and to give up 6.121 million of profit relating to the Enel contracts. In addition, Siemens accepted a one-year ban prohibiting it from entering into contracts with the Italian public administration. This part of the patteggiamento has already been discharged through the one-year ban imposed on Siemens by preliminary injunction that expired on May 14, 2005. The patteggiamento is scheduled to enter into force on September 24, 2006.

Report on the United Nations Oil-for-Food Programme

On February 24, 2006, Siemens received a subpoena from the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) requiring the production of certain documents relating to the Oil-for-Food Programme and to certain other matters. Siemens is cooperating with the SEC. The SEC has not announced a schedule for the completion of its inquiry. Furthermore, a French investigating magistrate has started a preliminary investigation regarding the participation of French companies among others Siemens France S.A.S. in the Oil-for-Food Programme.

Outlook for fiscal 2006

For the full year, the company expects to deliver income from continuing operations at least level with the prior year, despite significantly higher charges at our Information & Communications Groups and substantial changes in our business portfolio.

Subsequent event

At the end of July 2006, Siemens completed the acquisition of the immunodiagnostics provider Diagnostic Products Corporation (DPC), USA, for a preliminary purchase price of approximately U.S. $1.9 billion (approximately 1.5 billion) payable in cash. DPC, now a wholly owned subsidiary of Siemens, will be integrated into Med.

This Interim Report contains forward-looking statements and information that is, statements related to future, not past, events. These statements may be identified by words as expects, anticipates, intends, plans, believes, seeks, estimates, will or words of similar meaning. Such statements are based on our current expectations and certain assumptions, and are, therefore, subject to certain risks and uncertainties. A variety of factors, many of which are beyond Siemens control, affect its operations, performance, business strategy and results and could cause the actual results, performance or achievements of Siemens worldwide to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements that may be expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. For us, particular uncertainties arise, among others, from changes in general economic and business conditions, changes in currency exchange rates and interest rates, introduction of competing products or technologies by other companies, lack of acceptance of new products or services by customers targeted by Siemens worldwide, changes in business strategy and various other factors. More detailed information about certain of these factors is contained in Siemens filings with the SEC, which are available on the Siemens website, www.siemens.com and on the SEC's website, www.sec.gov. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described in the relevant forward-looking statement as expected, anticipated, intended, planned, believed, sought, estimated or projected. Siemens does not intend or assume any obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements in light of developments which differ from those anticipated.

SIEMENS AG
(in millions of €, except where otherwise stated and per share amounts)

NOTES

1. Basis of presentation

The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements present the operations of Siemens AG and its subsidiaries, (the Company or Siemens). The Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with United States Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (U.S. GAAP). Siemens prepares and reports on its Consolidated Financial Statements in euros (€).

Siemens is a German based multinational corporation with a balanced business portfolio of activities predominantly in the field of electronics and electrical engineering.

Interim financial statements The accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheet as of June 30, 2006, the Consolidated Statements of Income for the three months and nine months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flow for the nine months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, the Consolidated Statements of Changes in Shareholders' Equity for the nine months ended June 30, 2006 and the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements are unaudited and have been prepared for interim financial information. The interim financial statements are based on the accounting principles and practices applied in the preparation of the financial statements for the last fiscal year except as indicated below. In the opinion of management, these unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements include all adjustments of a normal and recurring nature and necessary for a fair presentation of results for the interim periods. These interim financial statements should be read in connection with the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the Company's 2005 Annual Report. Results for the three months and nine months ended June 30, 2006 are not necessarily indicative of future results.

Financial statement presentation The presentation of the Company's worldwide financial data (Siemens) is accompanied by a component model that shows the worldwide financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the operating businesses (Operations) separately from those for financing and real estate activities (Financing and Real Estate), the Corporate Treasury and certain elimination and reclassification effects (Eliminations, reclassifications and Corporate Treasury). These components contain the Company's reportable segments (also referred to as Groups). The financial data presented for these components are not intended to present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows as if they were separate entities under U.S. GAAP. See also Note 15. The information disclosed in these Notes relates to Siemens unless otherwise stated.

Basis of consolidation The Consolidated Financial Statements include the accounts of Siemens AG and subsidiaries which are directly or indirectly controlled. Additionally, the Company consolidates variable interest entities (VIEs) for which it is deemed to be the primary beneficiary. Associated companies – companies in which Siemens has the ability to exercise significant influence over their operating and financial policies (generally through direct or indirect ownership of 20% to 50% of the voting rights) – are recorded in the Consolidated Financial Statements using the equity method of accounting.

Use of estimates The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent amounts at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Reclassification The presentation of certain prior year information has been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Stock-based compensation As of October 1, 2005, the Company adopted Statements of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) 123 (revised 2004) Share-Based Payment (SFAS 123R), which replaces SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, and supersedes APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. SFAS 123R requires companies to recognize stock-based compensation expense, with certain limited exceptions, based on fair value. Siemens uses a Black-Scholes option pricing model to determine the fair value of its stock-based compensation plans. In transitioning to SFAS 123R, the Company applied the modified prospective method. Commencing with the adoption of SFAS 123R, liability classified awards are remeasured to fair value at each reporting date until the award is settled. Equity awards granted, modified, repurchased or cancelled beginning October 1, 2005 and unvested equity awards granted prior to October 1, 2005, are measured at their grant-date fair value. Related compensation expense is recognized over the vesting period for awards expected to ultimately vest. Equity awards vested prior to the effective date continue to be accounted for under recognition and measurement provisions of APB Opinion No. 25 and related interpretations.

The adoption of SFAS 123R, including the remeasurement to fair value of liability classified awards, did not have a material effect on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements, due primarily to the adoption of the fair value measurement provisions of SFAS 123 on October 1, 2003 for which the prospective method was applied. Due to the insignificance of the impact of adopting SFAS 123R on the prior year period presentation, pro forma disclosures have been omitted.

See Note 13 for further information on stock-based compensation.

2. Acquisitions, dispositions (including assets and liabilities held for disposal) and discontinued operations

a) Acquisitions

During the third quarter of fiscal 2006, Medical Solutions (Med) announced two acquisitions. The first acquisition involves Diagnostics Products Corporation (DPC), USA. The preliminary purchase price amounts to approximately U.S.$1.9 billion (approximately 1.5 billion) payable in cash. See Note 16 Subsequent event for further information. In June 2006, Siemens also signed an agreement to acquire the diagnostics division of Bayer Aktiengesellschaft, Germany for a preliminary purchase price of approximately 4.2 billion. The acquisition will enable Med to expand its position in the growing molecular diagnostics market. The transaction, which is subject to regulatory approval and other customary closing conditions, is expected to close early in fiscal 2007.

In fiscal 2005, the Company acquired, in several steps, the Austrian engineering group VA Technologie AG (VA Tech). In order to comply with a European antitrust ruling, the Company sold the majority of the VA Tech power generation business, including the hydropower activities. The sale to Andritz AG of Austria was completed in May 2006 for consideration of approximately 185. No gain or loss was recorded in connection with the sale of this business. The difference between the consideration received upon the sale and the book value of the business resulted in an increase in goodwill. See Note 7 for further information. The purchase price allocation for the VA Tech acquisition will be completed in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006.

In May 2005, the Company acquired CTI Molecular Imaging, Inc. (CTI), USA. The primary reason for the acquisition was to strengthen the Company's commitment to molecular imaging development. Siemens previously owned a 49% interest in a joint venture consolidated by CTI before the acquisition of which Siemens was the primary customer. CTI was integrated into Med and consolidated as of May 2005, when it became a wholly owned subsidiary. The acquisition costs amounted to 809 (including 60 in cash acquired). Based on the final purchase price allocation, 113 was allocated to intangible assets subject to amortization and 554 to goodwill. Of the 113 intangible assets, 60 was allocated to technology and 44 to customer relationships. Technology and customer relationships are amortized on a straight-line basis over weighted-average useful lives of 10 years and 9 years, respectively.

b) Dispositions (including assets and liabilities held for disposal)

At the beginning of April 2006, SBS closed the sale of its Product Related Services (PRS) business to Fujitsu Siemens Computers (Holding) BV.

In the fourth quarter of fiscal 2005, Siemens announced the carve-out of the Distribution and Industry Logistics (DI) and Material Handling Products (MHP) divisions, formerly of the Logistics and Assembly Systems Group (L&A), into separate entities (Dematic business). The Dematic business has been reported in Other Operations for all periods presented. In June 2006, Siemens signed an agreement to divest the majority of its Dematic business to Triton Managers II Limited based in Jersey. Closing of the transaction is expected in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006 and is subject to the approval of the relevant anti-trust authorities. The assets and liabilities of the portion of the Dematic business to be sold are classified on the balance sheet as held for disposal and measured at the lower of their carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell. The amount of loss recognized in this respect as of June 30, 2006 amounts to 19 and is generally limited to the value of long-lived assets classified as held for disposal.

In June 2006, Siemens and Nokia Corporation (Nokia), Finland also announced the intention to contribute the carrier-related operations of Siemens, which are part of Com, and the Networks Business Group of Nokia into a new company, to be called Nokia Siemens Networks (NSN), in exchange for shares in NSN. Siemens and Nokia will both own 50% of NSN. Siemens expects to account for its investment in NSN using the equity method. The assets and liabilities of the carrier-related operations of Siemens are classified on the balance sheet as held for disposal and measured at the lower of their carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell. The transaction is expected to close by the second quarter of fiscal 2007 at the latest and is subject to customary regulatory approvals, the completion of standard closing conditions, and agreement on a number of detailed implementation steps. Siemens expects to realize a gain on this transaction.

In June 2006, the assets and liabilities of the enterprise networks business, which is part of Com, were classified on the balance sheet as held for disposal and measured at the lower of their carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell. The Company expects to divest the enterprise networks business within one year.

The carrying amounts of the major classes of assets and liabilities held for disposal as of June 30, 2006, including the Dematic business, carrier-related operations and enterprise networks activities mentioned above, were as follows:

c) Discontinued operations

In fiscal 2005, Siemens sold its Mobile Devices (MD) business, which was part of Com, to BenQ Corporation (BenQ) based in Taiwan. As part of this transaction, Siemens purchased 50 in Global Depositary Receipts on common shares in BenQ in December 2005, which at that time represented a 2.4 percent investment in BenQ.

The MD business is reported as discontinued operations in the Consolidated Statement of Income for all periods presented. For further information on discontinued operations, see our Annual Report for the year ended September 30, 2005.

All of the MD activities for which the transaction was not completed as of September 30, 2005, including the MD operations of Siemens Shanghai Mobile Communications Ltd. in the Peoples Republic of China, were sold as of June 30, 2006.

In the first nine months of fiscal 2006 and 2005, Loss from discontinued operations, net of income taxes includes net sales of 475 and 2,681 respectively, as well as 50 and 626, respectively, in pre-tax losses after minority interests. In the three months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, net sales were 0 and 670 and pre-tax losses after minority interests were 19 and 361, respectively.

11. Shareholders equity

Authorized, unissued capital

Authorized Capital 2001/II of 67, representing approximately 22 million shares, expired on February 1, 2006. At the Annual Shareholders Meeting on January 26, 2006, the Company's shareholders authorized the Managing Board to increase the common stock by January 25, 2011, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, by up to 75, representing 25 million shares of no par value registered in the names of the holders against contributions in cash (Authorized Capital 2006). The authorization may be implemented in installments. Preemptive rights of existing shareholders shall be excluded. The new shares shall be issued under the condition that they are offered exclusively to employees of Siemens AG and its subsidiaries, provided these subsidiaries are not listed companies themselves and do not have their own employee stock schemes. The Managing Board is authorized to determine, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, the further content of the rights embodied in the shares and the terms and conditions of the share issue.

Treasury Stock

At the Annual Shareholders Meeting, the Company's shareholders authorized the Company to repurchase up to 10% of the 2,673 common stock until July 25, 2007.

In the nine months ended June 30, 2006, Siemens repurchased a total of 5,444,818 shares at an average price of 71.47 per share primarily for the purpose of selling them to employees, stock-based compensation plan participants and as settlement to former Siemens Nixdorf Informationssysteme AG (SNI) stockholders. During the nine months ended June 30, 2006, a total of 5,452,876 shares of Treasury Stock were sold. Thereof,

13. Stock-based compensation

For a description of the Siemens stock-based compensation plans, see our Annual Report for the year ended September 30, 2005.

Total stock-based compensation cost recognized in net income in the three months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005 amount to 2 and 8, respectively, and 50 and 47 for the nine months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

I. Equity settled Awards

Cash received from stock option exercises and from our employee share purchase plan for the three and nine months ended June 30, 2006 amounts to 9 and 286, respectively. Cash received from stock option exercises and from our employee share purchase plan for the three and nine months ended June 30, 2005 amounts to 19 and 132, respectively.

The Company has a policy of repurchasing shares on the open market to satisfy share option exercises and accordingly plans to repurchase shares needed to accommodate future fiscal 2006 exercises.

Stock Option Plans

In November 2005, the Supervisory Board and Managing Board granted options under our 2001 Siemens Stock Option Plan to 597 key executives for 3,023,830 shares with an exercise price of 74.59, of which options for 315,495 shares were granted to the Managing Board.

Details on option activity and weighted average exercise prices for the nine months ended June 30, 2006 are as follows:

Fair value information

The Company's determination of the fair value of grants is based on a Black-Scholes option pricing model. Assumptions made in estimating the fair value of grants made during the nine months ended June 30, 2006 are as follows:

	Assumptions at grant date fiscal 2006
Risk-free interest rate	2.99%
Expected dividend yield	2.41%
Expected volatility	18.30%
Expected option life	3.5 yrs.
Estimated weighted average fair value per option	4.06
Fair value of total options granted during fiscal year	11

A Black-Scholes option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair values of options that have no vesting restrictions. Option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Changes in subjective assumptions can materially affect the fair value of the option. In fiscal 2006, the expected volatility is based on historical volatility of Siemens shares, implied volatility for traded Siemens options with similar terms and features, and certain other factors. The expected term is derived by applying the simplified method and is determined as the average of the vesting term and the contractual term. The risk-free interest rate is based on applicable governmental bonds.

Stock awards

In the nine months ended June 30, 2006, the Company granted 1,076,860 stock awards to 5,198 employees, of which 25,221 awards were granted to the Managing Board. Details on stock award activity and weighted average grant-date fair value for the nine months ended June 30, 2006 are as follows:

Table of Contents

	Awards	Weighted Average Grant- Date Fair Value
Nonvested, beginning of the period	1,136,048	55.63
Granted	1,076,860	57.28
Vested
Forfeited	(43,829)	56.13
Nonvested, end of period	2,169,079	56.44
Exercisable, end of period

Fair value was determined as the market price of Siemens shares less the present value of expected dividends. Total fair value of stock awards granted in the nine months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, amounted to €62 and €64, respectively.

As of June 30, 2006, unrecognized compensation costs related to stock awards amounted to €84, which is expected to be recognized over a weighted average vesting period of 2.9 years.

Employee share purchase plan

Under a compensatory employee share purchase program, employees may purchase a limited number of shares in the Company at preferential prices once a year. Up to a stipulated date in the first quarter of each fiscal year, employees may order the shares, which are usually issued in the second quarter of the fiscal year. The employee share purchase program is measured at fair value. During the nine months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, the Company incurred compensation expense of €38 and €31, respectively, related to the sale of repurchased shares to employees, based on a preferential employee share price of €46.12 and €43.24, respectively, and a grant-date fair value of €21.19 and €16.87, respectively, per share. For information on corresponding Siemens share repurchases, see Note 11.

II. Liability settled awards

Stock appreciation rights (SARs)

Where local regulations restrict the grant of stock options in certain jurisdictions, the Company grants SARs to employees under the same conditions as the 2001 Siemens Stock Option Plan except that SARs are exercisable in cash only. Details on SARs activity and weighted average exercise prices for the nine months ended June 30, 2006 are as follows:

	Nine months ended June 30, 2006
	SARs	Weighted average exercise price
Outstanding, beginning of period	267,720	73.05
Granted	97,270	74.59

SARs forfeited	(12,290)	73.19

Outstanding, end of period	350,400*	73.47
Exercisable, end of period	182,450	73.25

* Thereof 72,420 SARs with a 72.54 exercise price and a weighted average remaining life of 3.4 years, 182,450 SARs with a 73.25 exercise price and a weighted average remaining life of 2.4 years and 95,530 SARs with a 74.59 exercise price and a weighted average remaining life of 4.5 years.

Since October 1, 2005, SARs are remeasured to fair value at each reporting date until the award is settled. The fair value of SARs is based on a Black-Scholes option pricing model.

As of June 30, 2006, the expected volatility is based on historical volatility of Siemens shares, implied volatility for traded Siemens options with similar terms and features, and certain other factors. The expected term is derived by applying the simplified method and is determined as the average of the vesting term and the contractual term. The risk-free interest rate is based on applicable governmental bonds. Changes in subjective assumptions can materially affect the fair value of the SARs.

Phantom stock

Where local regulations restrict the grants of stock awards in certain jurisdictions, the Company grants phantom stock to employees under the same conditions as the Siemens stock awards, except that grantees receive the share prices equivalent value in cash only at the end of the four year vesting period. In the nine months ended June 30, 2006, 33,153 phantom stock rights were granted and 619 phantom stock rights forfeited, resulting in a period-end balance of 60,771 phantom stock rights. None of the phantom stock rights were vested as of June 30, 2006.

Since October 1, 2005, phantom stock rights are remeasured to fair value at each reporting date until the award is settled.

15. Segment information

As of fiscal 2006, the Company has thirteen reportable segments referred to as Groups as described in Note 1 (fourteen Groups prior to L&A's dissolution – see below for further information). The Groups are organized based on the nature of products and services provided.

Within the Operations component, Siemens has eleven Groups (twelve Groups prior to L&A's dissolution). Those Groups involve manufacturing, industrial and commercial goods, solutions and services in areas more or less related to Siemens' origins in the electronics and electrical engineering business. Also included in Operations are operating activities not associated with a Group, which are reported under Other Operations (see below) as well as other reconciling items discussed in Reconciliation to financial statements below.

As a result of changes in the Company's management approach, various modifications were made to the Groups. Based on a decision of the Managing Board in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2005, L&A was dissolved effective October 1, 2005. The Airport Logistics division and Postal Automation division were transferred to I&S and the Electronics Assembly Systems division was transferred to A&D. In addition, following an intensive analysis by the Managing Board associated with the strategic reorientation of Com's operations, the division Siemens Home and Office Communication Devices was reclassified from Com to Other Operations as of June 30, 2006. Prior-year information was reclassified for comparability purposes.

(in millions of €, except where otherwise stated and per share amounts)

As discussed in Note 2, Company's former MD business is reported as discontinued operations. Current and prior-year Segment disclosure excludes the applicable information included in the Company's financial statement presentation.

The Financing and Real Estate component includes the Groups SFS and SRE. The Eliminations, reclassifications and Corporate Treasury component separately reports the consolidation of transactions among Operations and Financing and Real Estate as well as certain reclassifications and the activities of the Company's Corporate Treasury.

The accounting policies of these components, as well as the Groups included, are generally the same as those used for Siemens. Corporate overhead is generally not allocated to segments. Intersegment transactions are generally based on market prices.

New orders are determined principally as the estimated sales value of accepted purchase orders and order value changes and adjustments, excluding letters of intent.

Operations

The Managing Board is responsible for assessing the performance of the Operations Groups. The Company's profitability measure for its Operations Groups is earnings before financing interest, certain pension costs and income taxes (Group profit) as determined by the Managing Board as the chief operating decision-maker (see discussion below). Group profit excludes various categories of items which are not allocated to the Groups because the Managing Board does not regard such items as indicative of the Groups' performance. Group profit represents a performance measure focused on operational success excluding the effects of capital market financing issues.

Financing interest is any interest income or expense other than interest income related to receivables from customers, from cash allocated to the Groups and interest expense on payables to suppliers. Financing interest is excluded from Group profit because decision-making regarding financing is typically made centrally by Corporate Treasury.

Similarly, decision-making regarding essential pension items is done centrally. As a consequence, Group profit includes only amounts based on service costs of pension plans. All other pension related costs, including charges for the German pension insurance association and plan administration costs, are included in the line item Corporate items, pensions and eliminations.

Furthermore, income taxes are excluded from Group profit because tax expense is subject to legal structures which typically do not correspond to the structure of the Operations Groups.

The Managing Board also uses net capital employed as an additional measure to assess the capital intensity of the Operations Groups. Its definition corresponds to the Group profit measure. Net capital employed is based on total assets excluding intracompany financing receivables and intracompany investments and tax related assets, as the corresponding positions are excluded from Group profit (asset-based adjustments). The remaining assets are reduced by non-interest-bearing liabilities other than tax-related liabilities (e.g. accounts payable) and certain accruals (liability-based adjustments) to derive net capital employed. The reconciliation of total assets to net capital employed is presented below.

Other Operations refers primarily to operating activities not associated with a Group and certain centrally-held equity investments (such as BSH Bosch und Siemens Hausgeräte GmbH), but excluding the investment in Infineon Technologies AG, which was included in Corporate Items prior to its sale (see Note 6, Marketable securities for further information).

Reconciliation to financial statements

Reconciliation to financial statements includes items which are excluded from definition of Group profit as well as corporate headquarters costs.

Corporate items include corporate charges such as personnel costs for corporate headquarters, the results of corporate-related derivative activities as well as corporate projects and non-operating investments. Pensions include the Company's pension related income (expenses) not allocated to the Groups. Eliminations represent income taxes. In contrast to the performance measurement used for the Operations Groups, interest income and interest expense are important sources of revenue and expense, respectively, for Financing and Real Estate.

Eliminations, reclassifications and Corporate Treasury

Income before income taxes consists primarily of interest income due to cash management activities, corporate finance, and certain currency and interest rate derivative instruments.

16. Subsequent event

At the end of July 2006, Siemens completed the acquisition of the immunodiagnostics provider Diagnostic Products Corporation (DPC), USA, for a preliminary purchase price of approximately U.S.$1.9 billion (approximately 1.5 billion) payable in cash. DPC, now a wholly owned subsidiary of Siemens, will be integrated into Med.
