ANNOUNCEMENT

In the afternoon on 13 March 2015, due to mechanical failure, No.2 generation unit (165 MW) of Huaneng Beijing Co-generation Limited Liability Company ("Beijing Co-generation"), a subsidiary of Huaneng Power International, Inc. (the "Company") caught fire and ignited flammable materials. Following the incident, Beijing Co-generation took immediate emergency measures, quickly organized personnel to evacuate from the scene, and began rescue efforts. The four generation units at Beijing Co-generation were suspended operation after the incident and the fire had been extinguished in forty minutes. After clean-up work and due enquiries with personnel at the scene on that day, it was confirmed that there was no casualties. The suspension of the generation units had not caused any impact on the supply of electricity and heat to the area.

The Company and Beijing Co-generation regarded the incident as highly important and immediately organized rescue, clean-up work and dealt with the aftermath in full force. Currently, No.2 generation unit of Beijing Co-generation is being organized to resume its operation, while the other generation units will successively resume their operation in the near future.

The cause of the incident is still under investigation. The Company will fulfill its obligation of information disclosure timely in accordance with the relevant regulatory requirements and in compliance with the laws.
