Sale of a subsidiary

On 27 March 2012 we entered into a Share Sale Agreement (the "Agreement") with Chan Kam Ming ("Chan") for the sale of all of the issued and outstanding shares of our subsidiary Surna Networks, Inc. ("Surna Networks"), a Nevada corporation which in turn owns 100% of the equity interest of Surna Networks Limited, a Hong Kong company ("Surna Networks HK"). Chan is one of the two current employees of Surna Networks HK.

Surna Networks was established to develop and provide a range of information technology and network services for potential customers, including game companies inside and outside of the PRC, but to date its business has focused solely on wholesale carrier services utilizing VoIP telecommunications, which is also referred to as International Simple Resale ("ISR"). Results of the ISR business have so far have been disappointing, and we do not foresee it being self-supporting or profitable without further significant investment. Upon further review we have determined that it is not relevant to our core business or future plans, and that the best strategy is the sale or winding-up of this business line.

The Board of Directors have determined that there is no intrinsic value in the current operations of Surna Networks and have therefore accepted an offer from Chan to purchase Surna Networks for the par value of the issued shares of US$1.00.
