Beginning on January 25, 2013, Accenture plc sent the following email to certain shareholders of the company.

To: Select Accenture Current and Former Employee Shareholders
From: Pierre Nanterme, Chief Executive Officer
Date: January 25, 2013
Subject: ACTION REQUESTED - 2013 Accenture Annual Meeting: Please Vote Your Shares Immediately
I am asking for your immediate attention to a matter that is important to Accenture.

Since our 2001 initial public offering, we have encouraged our employees to earn and acquire Accenture shares - through equity awards as well as through stock purchase programs – both to reward and to motivate our people. In connection with our Annual General Meeting on Wednesday, February 6, we are asking our shareholders to vote on a proposal that will affect our ability to issue shares to our employees. Our records show that you have not yet voted your Accenture shares. Please take a few minutes to vote your shares today, given the importance of this proposal.

Based on our projections, without approval of this proposal, we will likely not be able to grant the equity awards we believe are necessary in our next annual granting cycle to achieve our objectives. We are asking for shareholder approval so we can continue granting performance equity, matching grants under the Voluntary Equity Investment Program and other awards in the amounts we believe we need to run our business and continue motivating our people. Equity is fundamental to our pay-for-performance compensation strategy and is critical to our success.

Our Board of Directors recommends that you vote “FOR” proposal no. 5. Please follow the voting instructions below. Your vote is very important.

All the best,
Pierre Nanterme
Chief Executive Officer
Accenture
