consumer film products, Eastman Kodak Company committed to a plan to reduce consumer film capacity at its facilities in Rochester, New York on June 21, 2005. This action will decommission back-up consumer film production manufacturing equipment and its related utilities equipment. As a result of this action, the Company will incur asset impairment charges of approximately $32 million. There is no impact to employment levels related to this action. Cash outlays to shutdown the equipment are less than $.3 million. This action will be complete by July 30, 2005.

This action is a part of the Company's restructuring program that was announced on January 22, 2004 and represents the continued commitment to eliminate excess capacity based on worldwide market demand for traditional photographic products.
