Edgar Filing: FIRST NATIONAL LINCOLN CORP /ME/ - Form 8-K

Section 1 - Financial Information

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 25, 2006, the Registrant amended a certain Employment Continuity Agreement with Jeffrey C. Dalrymple that was assumed by the Registrant in accordance with the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger between the First National Lincoln Corporation and FNB Bankshares dated August 25, 2004.

The Employment Continuity Agreement, as assumed by the Registrant, provides that if the employment of the executive officer is terminated, or he elects to resign, within 24 months following the merger, the executive will receive a lump sum severance payment equal to 299% of his base salary as of December 31, 2004, provided that if such payment, alone or together with other payments the executive is entitled to receive on account of a "change in control" (as defined therein) would constitute a "parachute payment" under federal income tax law, the payment would be reduced to the largest amount that would not be subject to the excise tax applied to parachute payments. Under the terms of the Employment Continuity Agreements as amended, each executive agrees that if he receives payments thereunder he will not accept employment with any financial institution which has an office or branch in any of Knox, Lincoln, Hancock or Washington counties, Maine for a period of one year from the date of his termination or resignation.

The September 25, 2006, amendment removes the executive's right to receive the above stated lump sum severance payment if he elects to resign, in exchange for an amount equal to 10% of the lump sum severance payment as defined above, payable immediately. In addition, the executive will be entitled to a lump sum severance payment for a period of up to ten years from the January 14, 2005, if the employment of the executive is terminated by the Registrant. The amount of this lump sum severance payment will decrease by 10% each year until the end of the ten-year period.

A specimen Amendment to Employment Continuity Agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1.
