Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangement of Certain Officers

Albany International Corp. (the “Company”) has entered into Severance Agreements (collectively the “Severance Agreements”) with various corporate officers or key executives including named executive officers, but excluding its principal executive officer (each a “Counterparty”). The Severance Agreements become effective January 1, 2016 and are intended to replace similar severance agreements entered into in January 2013 which, by their terms, expired December 31, 2015. The new Severance Agreements have been revised and updated to conform to current best practices. The material terms of the Severance Agreements provide that in the event a Counterparty’s employment is terminated by the Company at any time before the expiration of the applicable Severance Agreement for any reason other than Cause, or if the Counterparty’s employment is terminated by the Counterparty for Good Cause (as those terms are defined in the Severance Agreement, and in either case, a “Qualifying Termination”), the Counterparty shall be entitled to receive his or her gross monthly base salary in effect at the time of the Qualifying Termination, less applicable withholdings and deductions, for a period of 24 months. In the event the Qualifying Termination occurs within 12 months of a Change in Control (as defined in the Severance Agreement) the Counterparty shall be entitled to receive his or her gross monthly base salary in effect at the time of the Qualifying Termination, less applicable withholdings and deductions, for a period of 36 months, although in that case some of the monthly payments would be accelerated and paid as a lump sum to comply with applicable tax laws. The Counterparty would also remain eligible for a prorated payment of any bonus earned, if any, during the year in which the Qualifying Termination occurs, and 12 months of executive outplacement services. In addition, if elected, the Company will pay the required premium to continue healthcare coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (“COBRA”). In order to receive the severance benefits, the Counterparty is obligated to execute a release in favor of the Company at the time of termination. The Counterparty is also bound to a restrictive covenant for the period during which the severance benefits are being paid. The initial term of the Severance Agreement is for a period of three years, but it will thereafter automatically renew for one-year periods unless the Company timely notifies the Counterparty of its intent not to renew. A copy of the form of Severance Agreement is attached and being filed as an exhibit to this current report on Form 8-K. The summary of its provisions is not complete and reference is made to the exhibit for its complete terms.
