Press Release

Fidelity National Financial, Inc. Announces the Acquisition of Sanchez Computer Associates, Inc.

Jacksonville, Fla. and Malvern, PA (January 28, 2004) Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (NYSE:FNF), a Fortune 500 provider of products and outsourced services and solutions to financial institutions and the real estate industry, and Sanchez Computer Associates (Sanchez NASDAQ:SCAI) today announced the signing of a merger agreement pursuant to which FNF will acquire Sanchez.

Sanchez is a leader in developing and marketing scalable and integrated software and services that provide banking, customer integration, outsourcing and wealth management solutions to approximately 400 financial institutions in 22 countries. The company's primary product offering is Sanchez Profile , a real-time, multi-currency, strategic core banking deposit and loan processing system that can be utilized on both an outsourced and in-house basis.

Additionally, Sanchez provides an enterprise integration solution and a comprehensive, multi-channel wealth management application that allows financial institutions to manage investor assets on-line by providing a collaborative, holistic client view of assets and holdings based on real-time information.

Sanchez also provides comprehensive data center and business process outsourcing solutions to the direct market under the Sanchez e-PROFILE brand. A leading provider to internet and direct banks, this solution offers customers the broadest range of technology and business solutions from the industry's best-in-class vendors, including Sanchez products.

The Sanchez acquisition underscores FNF's commitment to provide the marketplace with another alternative that moves financial institutions from legacy to future-state, real-time platforms," said FNF Chairman and Chief Executive Officer William P. Foley, II. Sanchez's management team and technology assets will play key roles in our ongoing focus on modernizing core banking technologies while mitigating the risk our customers face with the underlying business transformation. Additionally, we are very excited about the new customer relationships with leading global banks that Sanchez will bring into the FNF family. We are committed to continuing to provide those customers the top quality products and services they have come to expect from Sanchez.

FNF is a well respected provider of information solutions to the financial services industry," said Sanchez Chief Executive Officer Frank Sanchez. "We are very excited to have the opportunity to work with their customers and the broader marketplace in addressing the key requirements they face in today's ever changing business environment. We believe that the combination of business knowledge, technical skills, operational experience, financial strength and top-tier customer base is unparalleled by any technology provider in the industry and will produce a compelling value proposition for banks and other financial services institutions that plan to transform to an online real-time infrastructure.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Sanchez will become a subsidiary of Fidelity Information Services, Inc., which is a subsidiary of FNF. Total consideration for each share of Sanchez common stock will be $6.50, composed of $3.25 in cash and $3.25 in FNF stock. The FNF stock consideration will be calculated using a trailing twenty-day average calculated two days prior to closing. Sanchez shareholders will have the option to elect any combination of cash and stock, subject to proration such that the overall limitation for the consideration in the transaction will be fifty percent cash compensation and fifty percent compensation in the form of FNF stock. FNF has entered into voting agreements to support the transaction with Sanchez shareholders holding in excess of 40% of the common vote. The transaction has been approved by the FNF Board of Directors and no separate FNF shareholder approval is required. Closing of the transaction is expected in the second quarter of 2004, subject to approval by Sanchez shareholders and customary regulatory and other conditions.

Fidelity National Financial, Inc., number 326 on the Fortune 500, is a provider of products and outsourced services and solutions to financial institutions and the real estate industry.
