On September 23, 2008, a Bloomberg News headline relating to Oshkosh Corporation (the "Company") was erroneously released just after 11 a.m. EDT. It read:

Edgar Filing: OSHKOSH CORP - Form 8-K

Oshkosh could be lowered by Moody's on covenant violation

The Company believes this headline implied that the Company had violated a credit agreement financial covenant. That is not the case. Moody's has not changed their rating and the Company has not violated a financial covenant.

After the Company communicated with Bloomberg, Bloomberg retracted the erroneous headline and the following corrected headline and short story were published:

Moody's Didn't Issue Report Today on Oshkosh Ratings (Correct)

2008-09-23 20:11:02.870 GMT

By Kevin Miller

Sept. 23 (Bloomberg) Moody's Investors Service didn't issue a report today on Oshkosh Corp., the Wisconsin-based maker of aerial-work platforms and concrete mixers. Bloomberg News published a headline earlier today that inaccurately said Moody's might lower Oshkosh's rating. Standard & Poor's Ratings Services today issued a summary of a Sept. 4 report in which it downgraded Oshkosh's corporate credit rating to BB- from BB.
