evaluating the current financial markets.

The proceeds of the offering will enable the Company to take advantage of the expected structural changes in Israel's communications marketplace that are expected to be implemented during the next few months, giving rise to opportunities to play a major role in the Israeli market.

"We are delighted with the Board's decision to position Internet Gold to move in a changing marketplace," said Eli Holtzman, Internet Gold's CEO. "We believe the offering will attract significant Israeli institutional investors, expanding the liquidity of our share and enhancing our standing as strong contenders in our markets. The structure of the public offering will be determined in the coming days and is expected to consist of both equity and convertible debt."

About Internet Gold

Internet Gold is a communications company that provides Internet access and related value-added services, international telephony, e-advertising, content and e-Commerce services throughout Israel to both residential and business customers.

Internet Gold's operations are carried out through four subsidiaries. Through MSN Israel, its joint-venture (50.1% ownership) with Microsoft Corp., (49.9% ownership), the Company operates Israel's leading Internet portal. Its fully-owned subsidiary Internet Gold International specializes in the provision of international Internet and communication services. Its fully-owned subsidiary GoldMind focuses on the provision of Internet value-added services and is the Owner of 100% of the Start portal. Through GoldTrade, its fully-owned e-Commerce subsidiary, the Company has established itself as one of Israel's leading e-Commerce providers, P1000.
