PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet of SL Green Realty Corp. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2000 has been prepared as if the Company's acquisition of the fee and mortgage interests of One Park Avenue ("One Park") had been consummated on December 31, 2000. The unaudited pro forma consolidated income statement for the year ended December 31, 2000 is presented as if the Company's acquisition of One Park occurred on January 1, 2000 and the effect was carried forward through the year.

On September 29, 2000, the Company announced that it had signed an agreement to acquire various ownership and mortgage interests in the 913,000 square foot, 20-story office building at One Park Avenue, New York, New York. The purchase was consummated on January 10, 2001. The property One Park is located between 32nd and 33rd Streets in the Grand Central sub-market of midtown Manhattan.

The pro forma consolidated financial statements do not purport to represent what the Company's financial position or results of operations would have been assuming the completion of the Company's acquisition of One Park had occurred on January 1, 2000 and period indicated, nor do they purport to project the Company's financial position or results of operations at any future date or for any future period. These pro forma consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's 2000 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Board of Directors of SL Green Realty Corp.

We have audited the statement of revenues and certain expenses of the property located at One Park Avenue, as described in Note 1, for the year ended December 31, 2000. The statement of revenues and certain expenses is the responsibility of management of the Property. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the statement of revenues and certain expenses based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and the significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying statement of revenues and certain expenses was prepared for the purposes of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for inclusion in Form 8-K/A of SL Green Realty Corp., and is not intended to be a complete presentation of the Property's revenues and expenses.

In our opinion, the statement of revenues and certain expenses referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenues and certain expenses of the Property, as described in Note 1 for the year ended December 31, 2000 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

ONE PARK AVENUE

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF REVENUES AND CERTAIN EXPENSES (DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS) FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2000

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Presented herein is the statement of revenues and certain expenses related to the operations of the property, located at One Park Avenue, in the Grand Central sub-market, in the borough of Manhattan in New York City (the "Property"). On January 10, 2001, SL Green Realty Corp. (the "Company") acquired the fee interest in the Property, which is subject to a ground lease position held by third-parties, and certain mortgage interests in the property for approximately $233,800. As part of the transaction, SL Green acquired an option to purchase the ground lease position.

The accompanying statement of revenues and certain expenses has been prepared in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for the acquisition of real estate properties. Accordingly, the statement of revenues and certain expenses excludes certain expenses that may not be comparable to those expected to be incurred by the Company, in the proposed future operations of the Property. Items excluded consist of interest expense, amortization and depreciation.

2. USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of the statement of revenues and certain expenses in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that effect the amounts reported in the statement of revenues and certain expenses and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Property is leased to tenants under operating leases. Minimum rental income is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. The excess of amounts recognized over amounts due pursuant to the underlying leases amounted to approximately $1,539 for the year ended December 31, 2000.

4. CONCENTRATION OF REVENUE

Approximately 69% of the Property's rental revenue for the year ended December 31, 2000 was derived from five tenants.

5. MANAGEMENT AGREEMENTS

During 2000, Insignia/ESG managed the Property. The management fees were based on a fixed monthly fee collected for the year ended December 31, 2000.

The fee incurred for managing the Property for the year ended December 31, 2000 was approximately $185.

ONE PARK AVENUE NOTES TO STATEMENTS OF REVENUES AND CERTAIN EXPENSES (CONTINUED) (DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS)

6. LEASE AGREEMENTS

The Property is being leased to tenants under operating leases with term expiration dates ranging from 2000 to 2015. The minimum rental amounts due under the leases are generally subject to scheduled fixed increases. The leases generally also require that the tenants reimburse the Property for increases in certain operating costs and real estate taxes above their base year costs. Approximate future minimum rents to be received over the next five years and thereafter for non-cancelable operating leases as of December 31, 2000 (exclusive of renewal option periods) are as follows:

2001	$ 27,222
2002	26,604
2003	21,652
2004	21,992
2005	19,703
Thereafter	107,867
	$ 225,040
