could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. These risks and uncertainties include: trends in health care costs and utilization rates; our ability to secure sufficient premium rate increases; competitor pricing below market trends of increasing costs; increased government regulation of health benefits and managed care; significant acquisitions or divestitures by major competitors; introduction and utilization of new prescription drugs and technology; a downgrade in our financial strength ratings; litigation targeted at health benefits companies; our ability to contract with providers consistent with past practice; and general economic downturns. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof. Anthem undertakes no obligation to republish revised forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. Readers are also urged to carefully review and consider the various disclosures made by Anthem, found in Anthem's final Prospectus dated October 29, 2001, for the initial public offering, and in periodic reports on Form 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which attempt to advise interested parties of the factors which affect Anthem's business.
