- o "FOR" the election of each of the Pardus Nominees;
- o "FOR" the approval and adoption of the Pardus Proposal;
- o "AGAINST" the adoption of the 2006 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan;

3

- o "FOR" granting to the proxy holders discretion on the Liberation Proposals, if properly brought before the meeting, and all other matters as may properly come before the meeting.

WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW?

This proxy statement contains important information about Pardus and the Pardus Nominees. We urge you to read this proxy statement carefully, including its appendices. After carefully reading and considering the information set forth herein, please vote your shares of Common Stock owned on the Record Date, or provide proper voting instructions with respect to such shares to your broker or other nominee as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

WHO CAN VOTE?

You are eligible to vote or to execute a proxy only if you owned shares of Common Stock on December 20, 2005 (the Record Date). Even if you sell your shares of Common Stock after the Record Date, you will retain the right to execute a proxy in connection with such shares owned as of the Record Date for the 2005 Annual Meeting. It is important that you grant a proxy regarding shares you held on the Record Date, or vote those shares in person, even if you no longer own those shares of Common Stock.

Based on information provided in Bally's Proxy Statement, at the close of business on the Record Date, [] shares of the Company's Common Stock were entitled to vote.

Edgar Filing: BALLY TOTAL FITNESS HOLDING CORP - Form PRRN14A

WHAT VOTE IS REQUIRED TO APPROVE THE PROPOSALS SET FORTH IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT?

- o THE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote generally in the election of directors is required to elect each of the Pardus Nominees. A properly executed proxy marked "WITHHOLD ALL" with respect to the election of one or more of the Pardus Nominees will not be voted with respect to the Pardus Nominees indicated, although it will be counted for the purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.
- o THE PARDUS PROPOSAL. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of 75% of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote generally in the election of directors is required to approve and adopt the binding resolution to repeal each provision or amendment of the By-laws of the Company, if any, adopted by the board of directors of the Company without the approval of the Company's stockholders subsequent to May 25, 2005 (purportedly the last date of reported changes) and prior to the approval and adoption of such resolution at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

- o APPROVAL OF NEW OMNIBUS EQUITY PLAN. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote will be required for approval of the 2006 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan. The rules of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") further require that at least a majority of the votes of shares of Common Stock entitled to vote must be cast with respect to the approval of the new equity plan. Pursuant to the rules of the NYSE, a broker may not vote on the adoption of or a material amendment to an equity compensation plan such as the 2006 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan without an instruction from the beneficial owner of the shares held by such broker. Such broker non-votes will not be considered present for purposes of calculating a majority and, therefore, will have no effect on the outcome of the vote, except to the extent a broker non-vote is not counted as a vote "cast" for purposes of the NYSE majority vote requirement.
- o RATIFICATION OF AUDITORS. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote will be required for the ratification of KPMG as the Company's independent auditor.
- o OTHER MATTERS. The affirmative vote of not less than 75% of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all outstanding shares of the Company's stock then entitled to vote is required to approve the Liberation Proposals. For each other item which properly comes before the meeting, if any, unless otherwise required by law, the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Company's By-laws or the rules or regulations of any stock exchanges applicable to the Company or its securities, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the item will be required for approval.

Edgar Filing: BALLY TOTAL FITNESS HOLDING CORP - Form PRN14A

We urge you to complete, execute and return the enclosed GREEN proxy card to assure the representation of your shares at the 2005 Annual Meeting. A properly executed proxy marked "ABSTAIN" with respect to any matter will not be voted with respect to such matter, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. Accordingly, an abstention will have the effect of a negative vote with respect to such matter. If you hold your shares in "street name" through a broker or other nominee, your broker or nominee will not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to any of the contested matters to be acted upon. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, or you do not vote your shares according to the enclosed voting instruction form, your shares will not be voted on those matters. Shares represented by such "broker non-votes" will, however, be counted in determining whether there is a quorum.

WHAT IS A "QUORUM" AND WHY IS IT NECESSARY?

The presence at the 2005 Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding on December 20, 2005

5

(the Record Date) will constitute a quorum, permitting the meeting to conduct its business. According to Bally's Proxy Statement, as of the Record Date [] shares of Common Stock were issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Proxies received but marked "ABSTAIN" and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares considered to be present at the 2005 Annual Meeting for purposes of determining whether or not a quorum is present.

HOW MANY VOTES DO I HAVE?

With respect to each matter to be considered at the 2005 Annual Meeting, each stockholder of the Company will have one vote for each share of Common Stock held by such stockholder on the Record Date.

HOW WILL MY SHARES BE VOTED?

If you give a proxy on the accompanying GREEN proxy card, your shares will be voted as you direct. If you submit a GREEN proxy card without instructions, the Fund's representatives listed on the GREEN proxy card will vote your shares in accordance with the recommendation of the Fund on each of the proposals described in this proxy statement. Submitting a GREEN proxy card will also entitle the Fund's representatives listed on the proxy card to vote your shares in accordance with their discretion on matters not described in this proxy statement that may arise at the 2005 Annual Meeting. As of the date of this proxy statement, the Fund does not know of any such additional matters other than the stockholder proposals described in the preliminary proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed by Liberation Investments, L.P., Liberation Investments Ltd., Liberation Investment Group, LLC, Mr. Emanuel R. Pearlman and Mr. Gregg E. Frankel (collectively "Liberation") on December 8, 2005.

Unless the proxy specifies otherwise, it will be presumed to relate to all shares of Common Stock held of record on the Record Date by the person who submitted it.

HOW DO I VOTE IN PERSON?

If you owned shares of the Company's Common Stock on the Record Date, you may attend the 2005 Annual Meeting and vote in person. WHAT IF I AM NOT THE RECORD HOLDER OF MY SHARES?

If your shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank nominee or other institution (a "custodian"), only it can give a proxy with respect to your shares. You may have received either a blank, executed proxy card from your custodian (which you can complete and send directly to our proxy solicitor, D.F. King & Co., Inc., 48 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005) or an instruction card (which you can complete and return to the custodian to direct its voting of your shares). If your custodian has not sent you either a blank, executed proxy card or an instruction card, you may contact the custodian directly to provide it with instructions. If you need assistance, please contact our proxy solicitor, D.F. King & Co. Inc., toll-free at (888) 644-6071.

CAN I CHANGE MY VOTE?

You may accomplish this by completing and submitting a later-dated GREEN proxy card to our proxy solicitor, D.F. King & Co., Inc. You should send any notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary of Bally at Bally's executive offices located at 8700 West Bryn Mawr Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60631. Attendance at the 2005 Annual Meeting alone will not cause your previously-granted proxy to be revoked unless you vote in person. For shares held in "street name," you may accomplish this by submitting new voting instructions to your broker or nominee or contacting the person responsible for your account and instructing that person to execute on your behalf the GREEN proxy card as soon as possible.

WHAT DO I DO IF I RECEIVE A WHITE PROXY CARD FROM BALLY?

Proxies on the white proxy card are being solicited by the incumbent management and board of directors of the Company. If you submit a proxy to us by signing and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card, do not sign or return the white proxy card or follow any voting instructions provided by the incumbent management and board of directors of the Company unless you intend to change your vote, because only your latest-dated proxy will be counted at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

If you have already sent a white proxy card to the Company, you may revoke it and provide your support in favor of the Fund's recommendations outlined in this proxy statement by signing, dating and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card.

WHAT DO I DO IF I RECEIVE A [GOLD] PROXY CARD FROM LIBERATION?

Proxies on the [gold] proxy card are being solicited by Liberation. If you submit a proxy to us by signing and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card, do not sign or return the [gold] proxy card or follow any voting instructions provided by Liberation unless you intend to change your vote, because only your latest-dated proxy will be counted at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

If you have already sent a [gold] proxy card to Liberation, you may revoke it and provide your support in favor of the Fund's recommendations outlined in this proxy statement by signing, dating and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card.

SHOULD I SUBMIT A PROXY IF I PLAN TO ATTEND THE 2005 ANNUAL MEETING?

Whether you plan to attend the 2005 Annual Meeting or not, we urge you to complete and submit a GREEN proxy card. Returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card completed will not affect your right to attend the 2005 Annual Meeting and vote in person.

BACKGROUND TO THE SOLICITATION

Edgar Filing: BALLY TOTAL FITNESS HOLDING CORP - Form PRRN14A

The Fund has been an investor in the Company since July 11, 2005 and is the holder of 5,311,000 shares of Common Stock, representing approximately [13.9%] of the issued and outstanding Common Stock as of the Record Date. The following is a chronology of events leading up to this proxy solicitation.

Since the Fund invested in the Company in July 2005 and throughout the fall of 2005, representatives of Pardus on behalf of the Fund have communicated with the Company's management and certain members of the Company's board of directors regarding Pardus's belief that the board has failed to take sufficient action and should be devoting more time and attention to the pursuit of sound measures to enhance stockholder value. Pardus has expressed that such measures are necessary to restore public confidence and support in the Company's corporate governance and future prospects. To this end, Pardus informally proposed several candidates with broad, relevant turnaround experience for election to the board of directors to both fill existing vacancies in the two classes of directors not up for election at the 2005 Annual Meeting and for the board of directors to support for election in the class of directors whose term expires at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Each of the candidates proposed by Pardus was ultimately interviewed by the Company's management and certain members of the Company's board of directors. Pardus continued to have discussions in good faith with Company representatives following these interviews in an effort to have highly qualified independent candidates appointed and/or nominated by the Company's incumbent directors for election at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Despite Pardus's efforts and discussions with Company representatives, no agreement was reached between Pardus and the Company before the Fund's formal nomination of the Pardus Nominees with respect either to the appointment of Pardus's proposed candidates to fill the existing vacancies on the board of directors or the board's supporting Pardus's proposed candidates in the upcoming election of directors at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

Upon hearing news items and speculation in the public marketplace about the Company having entered into discussions with third parties to consummate a strategic transaction, including, without limitation, a sale of all or part of the assets or stock of the Company or some other strategic business combination or capital restructuring transaction, Pardus became increasingly concerned that the board of directors would authorize the Company to enter into a strategic transaction either before, or shortly following, the Company's release of its restated financial statements on November 30, 2005. In our opinion, this concern was validated following the Company's engagement of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. on November 29, 2005, to advise the Company, together with The Blackstone Group, in exploring strategic alternatives, including potential equity transactions or the sale of businesses or assets. Pardus is still very concerned that the board of directors may take decisive action without giving adequate consideration and deference to a full, fair and open process designed to maximize stockholder value.

On October 17, 2005, Pardus, on behalf of the Fund, sent a letter to the board of directors of the Company advising of the Fund's intent to nominate highly qualified independent candidates for election to the board of directors of the Company at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

On October 18, 2005, the board of directors unilaterally adopted a Stockholder Rights Plan with a 15% threshold trigger (the "Poison Pill"), conveniently one day after Pardus expressed the Fund's intent to nominate a slate of candidates for election to the board of directors at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

On October 24, 2005, after having received a letter from the board of directors dated October 18, 2005 responding to Pardus's October 17th letter and addressing the process for nominating directors to the board and the adoption of the Poison Pill, Pardus sent a follow-up letter on behalf of the Fund to the Company's board of directors expressing the Fund's perception of, and dissatisfaction with, the nomination process and the board's sluggish actions and reluctance to interview the Fund's proposed nominees as of the date such response letter was sent to the board on behalf of the Fund.

On November 9, 2005, representatives of Pardus met by telephone conference call with representatives of the Company, including Paul A. Toback, Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and Marc D. Bassewitz, Senior Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel of the Company, about the Company's consideration of the candidates informally proposed by Pardus for election to the board. As a result of the November 9, 2005 discussions, the Company agreed to follow up with and interview each of the five candidates recommended by Pardus for election to the Company's board of directors.

On November 15, 2005 and November 16, 2005, representatives of the Company, including the incumbent members of the nominating committee of the board of directors, interviewed the five candidates recommended by Pardus for election to the Company's board of directors.

On November 17, 2005, after further discussions with respect to the composition of the Company's board of directors between representatives of Pardus, on the one hand, and representatives of the Company, on the other hand, failed to result in a mutually acceptable agreement in an effort to avoid a protracted proxy fight, the Fund delivered a formal notice of nomination for the 2005 Annual Meeting nominating Charles J. Burdick, Barry R. Elson and Don R. Kornstein for election to the class of directors whose term expires at the 2005 Annual Meeting and to present a stockholder proposal for the approval and adoption of a binding resolution to repeal each provision or amendment of the By-laws of the Company, if any, adopted by the board of directors without the approval of the Company's stockholders subsequent to May 25, 2005 (purportedly the last date of reported changes) and prior to the approval and adoption of such resolution at the 2005 Annual Meeting. The notice of nomination was accompanied by a letter addressed to the board of directors of the Company recommending that the board appoint two additional candidates proposed by the Fund, David R. Van Valkenburg and Thomas J. Albani, to fill the existing vacancies in the other classes of directors not up for election at the 2005 Annual Meeting. At the time the formal notice of nomination for the 2005 Annual Meeting was submitted by the Fund, the Fund was cognizant of the potential implications a successful nomination of four or more candidates could have on the Company in light of the change of control provisions set forth in the Company's credit facility and outstanding senior and subordinated indebtedness. As a result, the Fund elected to nominate only three highly qualified independent candidates, the Pardus Nominees, in the formal notice of nomination for election to the class of directors whose term expires at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

Edgar Filing: BALLY TOTAL FITNESS HOLDING CORP - Form PRRN14A

On December 5, 2005, the Company issued a press release announcing that the board had appointed Adam Metz and Steven S. Rogers to fill two existing vacancies on the board in the director classes not up for election at the 2005 Annual Meeting. The Company also announced its intention to nominate Messrs. Burdick and Elson and Eric Langshur, an incumbent board member serving in the class of directors up for election at the 2005 Annual Meeting, for election at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

On December 6, 2005, the Company filed its preliminary proxy statement in connection with the 2005 Annual Meeting with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In Bally's Proxy Statement, the Company disclosed the board's nomination of Messrs. Burdick, Elson and Langshur for election to the board. While Pardus is pleased with the Company's decision to support Messrs. Burdick and Elson for election to the board, Pardus believes that such action is only a partial step in the right direction. Throughout the process of identifying and considering qualified individuals with a broad array of noteworthy credentials and relevant turnaround experience for service on Bally's board of directors, a process to which Pardus committed significant time and resources, Pardus always focused on a single goal - selecting a group of nominees who would each represent the best interests of ALL stockholders. In this endeavor, Pardus tried to assemble a slate of candidates that would garner significant and widespread stockholder support, including Mr. Kornstein who Pardus believes to be truly independent and who would serve in the best interests of all stockholders. Pardus encourages the board and fellow stockholders not only to support Messrs. Burdick and Elson for election to the board, but also to support and elect Mr. Kornstein to the board in lieu of Mr. Langshur given the significant contributions Mr. Kornstein has to offer the board, the Company and all stockholders.

Each of the Pardus Nominees is committed to acting in the best interest of the Company's stockholders and has consented, if elected, to serve as a director on the Company's board. The Fund expects that each of the Pardus Nominees, if elected, would, subject to his fiduciary duties to all of the Company's stockholders, bring greater accountability and discipline to the management of the Company, and restore investor confidence. Each of the Pardus Nominees has broad, relevant turnaround experience and a vote in favor of each of the Pardus Nominees will enable the stockholders of Bally to send a clear and strong message to the board of directors that you agree with Pardus's belief that change is necessary and Pardus's objective of implementing sound corporate governance practices for the Company in an effort to maximize stockholder value.

Pardus believes that it is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders for the incumbent Class III director to be replaced as a member of the board of directors of the Company. The reasons supporting this belief include the following:

- o Pardus believes that the incumbent members of the board of directors of the Company, including the incumbent Class III director, have not demonstrated a sufficient willingness to challenge, oversee and direct the Company's management or to hold management accountable for its actions and inactions.
- o Pardus believes that the incumbent members of the board of directors of the Company, including the incumbent Class III director, do not fully understand and appreciate the urgency of the issues facing the Company and the need for significant changes in the manner in which the Company conducts its business.

- o Pardus believes that the current management and the incumbent board have presided over significant value destruction for the Company's stockholders. This incumbent team has made a series of well-publicized missteps, culminating in the release on November 30, 2005 of restated financial statements dating back to fiscal year 2000, as stockholders have suffered substantial losses. Consider the Company's stock price as Paul Toback, the current Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, has risen through management's ranks:
 - o March 1998 - Mr. Toback is elevated to Senior Vice President, Corporate Development. The stock closed at $27.94 per share on March 1, 1998.
 - o June 2001 - Mr. Toback becomes Chief Operating Officer. The stock closed at $24.61 per share on June 1, 2001.
 - o February 2002 - Mr. Toback is elevated to Executive Vice President. The stock closed at $19.20 per share on February 1, 2002.
 - o December 2002 - Mr. Toback is elected President and Chief Executive Officer. The stock closed at $9.08 per share on December 1, 2002.
 - o May 2003 - Mr. Toback assumes the Chairmanship of the board of directors. The stock closed at $6.24 per share on May 1, 2001.
 - o September 2, 2005 - On the business day BEFORE Pardus filed its Schedule 13D, after more than SEVEN years of Mr. Toback's involvement with the management of the Company, the stock closed at $3.86 per share.

In percentage terms, this represents a stunning loss of more than 86% of the value of the Common Stock as Mr. Toback assumed ever more management responsibility.

- o By contrast, since September 6, the day Pardus filed its Schedule 13D with the United States Securities Exchange Commission, Pardus has worked publicly and through private discussions with Company management to encourage the Company to take steps necessary to improve transparency, corporate governance, and operational and financial performance through December 1, 2005. In connection with this process, Pardus has also taken steps to nominate three highly qualified independent candidates for election to the Company's board of directors at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Pardus believes that there is a direct correlation between its actions and the Company's equity market capital INCREASING to $7.72 per share as of December 1, 2005, a

100% return to stockholders since Pardus's original Schedule 13D was filed.

- o As described further in Bally's Proxy Statement, the Company has engaged J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and The Blackstone Group to explore strategic alternatives in the interest of value creation for stockholders. As the Company embarks upon this process, certain executive officers of the Company, including Mr. Toback and Carl J. Landek, the Company's two most senior executives, have recently exercised Company options and sold Common Stock totaling, in the aggregate, over 1.2 million shares. Pardus cannot imagine a worse beginning for any sale process J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and The Blackstone Group have been engaged to undertake. Pardus believes Mr. Toback and his management team should have exercised prudent judgment and restraint to further this process. An investor learning that Mr. Toback had sold well more than half his stock might well ask, "why would the CEO sell now if he thinks the Company can bring about a strategic transaction that will offer a premium to stockholders as soon as early next year?" Pardus is concerned that the reported stock sales may indicate that management has a conflict of interest - for example, that management may not be motivated to realize the highest achievable value for stockholders because management is planning to be part of a potential bidding group for the Company's assets.

- o Pardus expects that, if elected to the Company's board, the Pardus Nominees will work to further enhance stockholder value on several fronts, including:
 - o Represent the current stockholder base in reviewing and assisting the work of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and The Blackstone Group to ensure that, if a sale of the Company or its assets occurs, the process will be best designed to result in the highest consideration for all stockholders.
 - o Review and oversee management's work and assist in developing a business plan that will provide direction to and challenge management to enhance the Company's value for the benefit of all stockholders. Importantly, the Pardus Nominees would seek to tie management's compensation, including any equity plan, to the Company's performance and return to stockholders.
 - o Provide specific guidance on a number of operational and financial improvements, such as increasing customer satisfaction and retention, improving product mix and profitability, reducing sales force turnover and correcting their compensation scheme to align it with selling the Company's most profitable product mixes, rationalizing the Company's real estate portfolio, and determining the best course for returning the Company to full financial health and prosperity, whether through asset sales, debt and equity financings or other strategic alternatives.

- o Work to improve corporate governance on a range of issues. For example, Pardus believes the stockholders would benefit from separating the roles of CEO and Chairman, as many leading public companies have done following the implementation of Sarbanes-Oxley. Further, Pardus believes that the process undertaken by J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Blackstone should be led and directed by a board committee comprised solely of independent directors and not by members of the management team.

The Pardus Nominees will, if elected, constitute a minority of the board of directors, at least until the next meeting of the Company's stockholders for the election of directors or some other change in the composition of the board. Accordingly, the Pardus Nominees, even if they act together, will not be able to adopt any measures proposed by any particular stockholder, including the Fund, without the support of at least some incumbent members of the current board of directors. The Pardus Nominees should be expected to articulate and raise their concerns about the Company's business activities with all of the members of the board of directors of the Company. The Fund may, depending on future events, seek to nominate additional directors to the Company's board of directors in the future.

PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF THE PARDUS NOMINEES TO CLASS III OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

According to publicly available information, three Class III directors are to be elected to the Company's board of directors at the 2005 Annual Meeting. The Fund proposes that the Company's stockholders elect Charles J. Burdick, Barry R. Elson, and Don R. Kornstein as the three Class III directors of the Company at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Each of the Pardus Nominees, if elected, would hold office for a term ending at the annual meeting (or special meeting in lieu thereof) of stockholders for the year 2008 or until a successor has been duly elected and qualified.

OTHER INFORMATION ABOUT THE DIRECTOR NOMINEES AND PARDUS

The Pardus Nominees stand committed to pursuing and implementing strategies for enhancing stockholder value and restoring public confidence and support in the Company. However, there can be no assurance that the actions the Pardus Nominees intend to take will be implemented if they are elected or that the election of the Pardus Nominees will improve the Company's business or prospects or otherwise enhance stockholder value. Your vote to elect the Pardus Nominees does not constitute a vote in favor of any value-enhancing plans of Pardus for the Company. Your vote to elect the Pardus Nominees will have the legal effect of replacing one incumbent director and filling two vacancies on the Company's board in the class of directors whose term expires at the 2005 Annual Meeting with the Pardus Nominees. Neither Pardus nor, to the knowledge of Pardus, any other person on behalf of Pardus has made or undertaken any analysis or reports as to whether stockholder value will be maximized as a result of the solicitation described in this proxy statement or obtained reports from consultants or other outside parties as to whether the proposals presented herein would have an effect on stockholder value. There can be no assurance that stockholder value will be maximized as a result of this solicitation or the election of the Pardus Nominees.

According to the Company's public filings, if elected as a director of the Company, each of the Pardus Nominees would receive an annual retainer of $30,000 for board membership and an additional stipend for service on committees of the board of directors of $1,000 per year for committee members, as well as Additional grants of options may be made from time to time pursuant to the Directors' Plan. Options under the Directors' Plan are generally granted with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock at the date of grant. Option grants under the Directors' Plan become exercisable in three equal annual installments commencing one year from the date of grant and have a 10-year term. The Pardus Nominees, if elected, will be indemnified for service as directors of the Company to the same extent indemnification is provided to the current directors of the Company under the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws. In addition, subject to stockholder approval at the 2005 Annual Meeting of an equity compensation plan, if elected as a director of the Company, each of the Pardus Nominees would receive for fiscal years ending after December 31, 2005 an annual grant of $30,000 of equity compensation in the form of restricted stock and/or options and a grant of $20,000 of restricted stock in 2006 and 2007. The Fund disclaims any responsibility for the accuracy of the foregoing information extracted from the Company's public filings.

The Pardus Nominees will not receive any compensation from Pardus for their service as nominees for election or as directors, if elected, of the Company. The Fund has agreed to indemnify the Pardus Nominees against losses incurred in connection with their service as nominees for election as directors of the Company and in connection with the solicitation of proxies in respect thereof. Other than as set forth herein (including in Annex A hereto), none of Pardus, the Pardus Nominees, or any of their respective associates, has any arrangements or understandings with any person or persons with respect to any future employment by the Company or its affiliates or with respect to any future transactions to which the Company or any of its affiliates will or may be a party.

Other than as described herein (including in Annex A hereto), there are no arrangements or understandings between the Pardus Nominees and any other party pursuant to which any such nominee was or is to be selected as a director or nominee.

None of the relationships regarding the Pardus Nominees described under Item 404(b) of Regulation S-K exists or has existed during the Company's last fiscal year.

The Fund does not expect that the Pardus Nominees will be unable to stand for election, but, in the event that such persons are unable to serve or for good cause will not serve, the shares represented by the enclosed GREEN proxy card will be voted for substitute nominees. In addition, the Fund reserves the right to nominate substitute persons if the Company makes or announces any changes to its By-laws or takes or announces any other action that has, or if consummated would have, the effect of disqualifying the Pardus Nominees. In any such case, shares of Common Stock represented by the enclosed GREEN proxy card will be voted for such substitute nominees. The Fund reserves the right to nominate additional persons if the Company increases the size of the board of directors above its existing size or increases the number of directors whose terms expire at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Additional nominations made pursuant to the preceding sentence are without prejudice to the position of the Fund that any attempt to increase the size of the current board of directors or to reconstitute or reconfigure the classes on which the current directors serve may constitute an unlawful manipulation of the Company's corporate machinery.

YOU ARE URGED TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF EACH OF THE PARDUS NOMINEES ON THE ENCLOSED GREEN PROXY CARD.

PROPOSAL 2: THE PROPOSAL TO REPEAL CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE BALLY BY-LAWS

The Fund and certain of its affiliates and associates are soliciting proxies to take the following action at the 2005 Annual Meeting:

Proposal: To present a resolution for approval and adoption by the stockholders of the Company to repeal each provision or amendment of the By-Laws of the Company, if any, adopted by the board of directors without the approval of the Company's stockholders subsequent to May 25, 2005 (purportedly the last date of the reported changes) and prior to the adoption of the resolution at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Based on publicly available information, no amendments to the By-laws after May 25, 2005 and prior to the date of this proxy statement have been publicly disclosed. The text of the resolution is set forth on Annex B attached hereto.

Purpose: The proposal is being brought before the 2005 Annual Meeting pursuant to Section 109 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, which empowers stockholders to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws. The Pardus Proposal is intended to deter the current members of the board of directors from amending the Company's By-laws in a manner that would create obstacles to the election of the Pardus Nominees who the Fund believes will act in the best interests of all of the Company's stockholders.

The adoption of this Proposal 2 could result in the repeal of certain provisions of the Company's By-laws which may be in the best interest of Company stockholders. In Pardus's view, however, such a possibility is unlikely because Pardus believes that the Company's incumbent board of directors has failed to act in the best interest of the Company's stockholders with respect to the operation of the business. If the Company's incumbent board of directors adopts any material amendments to the Company's By-laws that would be subject to repeal under this Proposal 2 and such amendments are made available to Pardus or the general public sufficiently in advance of the 2005 Annual Meeting, Pardus will provide you with additional materials regarding such amendments.

According to Bally's Proxy Statement, the Company is recommending that stockholders abstain with respect to the Pardus Proposal, because no provisions of or amendments to the Company's By-laws have been adopted by the board of directors without the approval of the Company's stockholders subsequent to May 25, 2005. Pardus urges you to vote "FOR" the Pardus Proposal rather than to abstain, as the incumbent board of directors may amend the Company's By-laws at any time prior to January 26, 2006, the date of the 2005 Annual Meeting.

The accompanying GREEN proxy card will be voted in accordance with your instruction on such card. You may vote for or vote against, or abstain from voting on, Proposal 2 described above by marking the proper box on the GREEN proxy card.

YOU ARE URGED TO VOTE "FOR" THE APPROVAL AND ADOPTION OF THE RESOLUTION TO REPEAL EACH PROVISION OR AMENDMENT OF THE BY-LAWS OF THE COMPANY, IF ANY, ADOPTED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WITHOUT THE APPROVAL OF THE COMPANY'S STOCKHOLDERS SUBSEQUENT TO MAY 25, 2005 (PURPORTEDLY THE LAST DATE OF REPORTED CHANGES) AND PRIOR TO THE APPROVAL AND ADOPTION OF SUCH RESOLUTION AT THE 2005 ANNUAL MEETING ON THE ENCLOSED GREEN PROXY CARD.

PROPOSAL 3: THE 2006 OMNIBUS EQUITY COMPENSATION PLAN

According to Bally's Proxy Statement, the Company is soliciting proxies

Edgar Filing: BALLY TOTAL FITNESS HOLDING CORP - Form PRRN14A

with respect to a proposal for the stockholders to approve the Bally Total Fitness Holding

20

Corporation 2006 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan (the "Plan"). The board of directors has unanimously approved the Plan and is submitting it for stockholder approval at the 2005 Annual Meeting. According to Bally's Proxy Statement, under the Plan the Company will be able to grant stock options, stock units, stock awards, dividend equivalents and other stock-based awards and if approved, 2,500,000 shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company will be authorized for issuance under the Plan. Bally's Proxy Statement contains a summary of the Plan and a copy of the Plan is attached thereto as Exhibit B. The board's adoption of the Plan is conditioned upon stockholder approval. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote will be required for approval of the Plan. The rules of the NYSE further require that at least a majority of the votes of shares of Common Stock entitled to vote must be cast with respect to the approval of the Plan. Please refer to Bally's Proxy Statement for a detailed discussion of this proposal, including various arguments in favor of and against the proposal to approve the Plan.

Pardus recommends that stockholders vote AGAINST the approval of the Plan at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Pardus does not believe that the existing management team, which has been more than generously compensated as described in further detail in Bally's Proxy Statement, should receive any additional equity or incentives as would be provided under the Plan until such time as management proves it has earned such rewards. Certain executive officers of the Company, including Mr. Toback, have recently exercised Company options and sold Common Stock totaling, in the aggregate, over 1.2 million shares. Given these significant insider sales, it seems apparent to Pardus that the management team consists of SELLERS and not BUYERS of the Company's equity; demonstrating, in Pardus's opinion, existing management's lack of confidence in the future prosperity of Bally that they are currently entrusted to create. Therefore, Pardus believes it would be a poor use of Company resources to further reward these executives further with equity in the Company.

Furthermore, Pardus does not believe that the current management team should be rewarded with additional compensation and incentives given the destruction in value the stockholders have suffered under the incumbent management team and in light of what Pardus believes to be overly-generous compensation arrangements, considering the performance results. By way of example, according to Bally's Proxy Statement Mr. Toback's total compensation for serving as Chairman and CEO, including salary and bonus, increased from $775,000 in 2003 to $975,000 in 2004. According to its report contained in Bally's Proxy Statement, the Company's Compensation Committee, which is the governing body responsible for authorizing Mr. Toback's compensation, considered the actual performance of the Company as compared to the targeted performance goals for the Company and Mr. Toback for 2004 in determining Mr. Toback's bonus for 2004. Based on the Company's actual performance, the committee determined that the Company's performance goals were not met for 2004. Despite this shortfall Mr. Toback was nonetheless awarded a bonus of $400,000 (70% of his base salary) in respect of a year in which, by the Compensation Committee's own admission, the Company underperformed.

Edgar Filing: BALLY TOTAL FITNESS HOLDING CORP - Form PRRN14A

Finally, given that the Company's retention of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and The Blackstone Group strongly indicates that a strategic sale or re-capitalization will occur, we believe the board of directors' fiduciary duties compel its members to maximize value for the stockholders in such an event. If the Plan is approved, however, there is the potential for existing stockholders to suffer dilution by up to 2,500,000 shares of Company stock that will be placed in the hands of management (which would constitute []% of the current issued and outstanding stock).

PROPOSAL 4: THE RATIFICATION OF KPMG LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITOR FOR THE COMPANY FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2005

According to Bally's Proxy Statement, the Company is soliciting proxies with respect to a proposal for the stockholders to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditor for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005. The Company's board of directors unanimously recommended a vote for this proposal. Please refer to Bally's Proxy Statement for a detailed discussion of this proposal, including various arguments in favor of and against such proposal.

YOU ARE URGED TO VOTE "FOR" THE RATIFICATION OF KPMG LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITOR FOR THE COMPANY FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2005 ON THE ENCLOSED GREEN PROXY CARD.

OTHER MATTERS

Except for the matters discussed above and the stockholder proposals described in the preliminary proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed by Liberation on December 8, 2005, as further described in Bally's Proxy Statement (the "Liberation Proposals"), the participants in the solicitation of proxies described in this proxy statement know of no other matters to be presented at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Please refer to Bally's Proxy Statement and the definitive proxy statement of Liberation for a detailed discussion of the Liberation Proposals, including various arguments in favor of and against the Liberation Proposals. If the Liberation Proposals properly come before the 2005 Annual Meeting, the proxy holders will use their discretionary authority in voting on the Liberation Proposals.

If any other matters should properly come before the 2005 Annual Meeting, it is intended that the persons named on the enclosed GREEN proxy card will vote those proxies on such other matters in accordance with such persons' sole discretion. Except in respect of the Liberation Proposals, the participants in the solicitation of proxies described in this proxy statement will not use such discretionary authority to vote the proxies for any matters of which any of the participants are aware a reasonable time before the 2005 Annual Meeting.

VOTING PROCEDURES

According to Bally's Proxy Statement, the voting procedures for the 2005 Annual Meeting are as follows:

Edgar Filing: BALLY TOTAL FITNESS HOLDING CORP - Form PRRN14A

The presence at the 2005 Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding on December 20, 2005 (the Record Date) will constitute a quorum, permitting the meeting to conduct its business. Stockholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to one vote at the 2005 Annual Meeting for each share of Common Stock held on the Record Date. Abstentions and broker non-votes are considered to be shares present for the purpose of determining whether a quorum exists. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that item and has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner. If you hold your shares in "street name" through a broker or other nominee, your broker or nominee will not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to any of the contested matters to be acted upon. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, or you do not vote your shares according to the enclosed voting instruction form, your shares will not be voted on those matters. A properly executed proxy marked "ABSTAIN" with respect to any matter will not be voted with respect to such matter. Accordingly, an abstention will have the effect of a negative vote with respect to such matter.

If a quorum is present, directors shall be elected by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote generally in the election of directors. Votes may be cast in favor of or withheld with respect to each Pardus Nominee.

If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of 75% of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote generally in the election of directors is required to approve and adopt the binding resolution to repeal each provision or amendment of the By-laws of the Company, if any, adopted by the board of directors of the Company without the approval of the Company's stockholders subsequent to May 25, 2005 (purportedly the last date of reported changes) and prior to the approval and adoption of such resolution at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote is required to approve the 2006 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan. The rules of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") further require that at least a majority of the votes of shares of Common Stock entitled to vote must be cast with respect to the approval of the new equity plan. Pursuant to the rules of the NYSE, a broker may not vote on the adoption of or a material amendment to an equity compensation plan such as the 2006 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan without an instruction from the beneficial owner of the shares held by such broker. Such broker non-votes will not be considered present for purposes of calculating a majority and, therefore, will have no effect on the outcome of the vote, except to the extent a broker non-vote is not counted as a vote "cast" for purposes of the NYSE majority vote requirement.

If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote is required for the ratification of KPMG as the

Edgar Filing: BALLY TOTAL FITNESS HOLDING CORP - Form PRRN14A

Company's independent auditor.

If a quorum is present and the Liberation Proposals properly come before the 2005 Annual Meeting, the affirmative vote of not less than 75% of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all outstanding shares of the Company's stock then entitled to vote is required to approve the Liberation Proposals. For each other item which properly comes before the meeting, if any, unless otherwise required by law, the Company's Restated Certificate of incorporation, the Company's By-laws or the rules or regulations of any stock exchanges applicable to the Company or its securities, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the 2005 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the item will be required for approval.

For more details regarding such procedures and the related matters please refer to Bally's Proxy Statement.

WHETHER OR NOT YOU ARE ABLE TO ATTEND THE 2005 ANNUAL MEETING, YOU ARE URGED TO COMPLETE THE ACCOMPANYING GREEN PROXY CARD AND RETURN IT IN THE ENCLOSED SELF-ADDRESSED, PREPAID ENVELOPE. ALL VALID PROXIES RECEIVED PRIOR TO THE MEETING WILL BE VOTED. IF NO SPECIFICATION IS MADE, THE SHARES WILL BE VOTED (A) "FOR" THE ELECTION OF CHARLES J. BURDICK, BARRY R. ELSON AND DON R. KORNSTEIN TO CLASS III OF THE COMPANY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS, (B) "FOR" THE APPROVAL AND ADOPTION OF THE BY-LAW RESOLUTION TO REPEAL EACH PROVISION OR AMENDMENT OF THE BY-LAWS OF THE COMPANY, IF ANY, ADOPTED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WITHOUT THE APPROVAL OF THE COMPANY'S STOCKHOLDERS SUBSEQUENT TO MAY 25, 2005 (PURPORTEDLY THE LAST DATE OF REPORTED CHANGES) AND PRIOR TO THE APPROVAL AND ADOPTION OF SUCH RESOLUTION AT THE 2005 ANNUAL MEETING, (C) "AGAINST" THE ADOPTION OF THE 2006 OMNIBUS EQUITY COMPENSATION PLAN, (D) "FOR" THE RATIFICATION OF KPMG LLP AS THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT AUDITOR FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2005, AND (E) "FOR" GRANTING TO THE PROXY HOLDERS DISCRETION ON THE LIBERATION PROPOSALS, IF PROPERLY BROUGHT BEFORE THE MEETING, AND ALL OTHER MATTERS AS MAY PROPERLY COME BEFORE THE MEETING.

REVOCATION OF PROXIES

You may change your proxy instructions at any time prior to the vote at the 2005 Annual Meeting for shares held directly in your name. You may accomplish this by completing and submitting a later-dated GREEN proxy card to our proxy solicitor, D.F. King & Co., Inc. (48 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005), or by attending the 2005 Annual Meeting and voting in person, or by delivering to the Corporate Secretary of Bally a written notice, bearing a later date than the date of your proxy instructions provided to Bally, stating that your proxy provided to Bally is revoked. You should send any notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary of Bally at Bally's executive offices located at 8700 West Bryn Mawr Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60631. Attendance at the 2005 Annual Meeting alone will not cause your previously-granted proxy to be revoked unless you vote in person. If your shares are held in "street name," you must either vote your shares according to the enclosed voting instruction form or contact your broker or other nominee and follow the directions provided to you in order to change your vote.

Only holders of record as of the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to vote. If you were a stockholder of the Company on the Record Date, you will retain your voting rights at the 2005 Annual Meeting even if you sell such shares after the Record Date. Accordingly, it is important that you vote the shares held by you on the Record Date, or grant a proxy to vote such shares on the accompanying GREEN proxy card, even if you sell such shares after the Record Date.

DISSENTERS' RIGHT OF APPRAISAL

Stockholders do not have appraisal or similar rights of dissenters under Delaware law with respect to the matters described in this proxy statement.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

In connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Fund and certain of its affiliates and associates for use at the 2005 Annual Meeting, proxies may be solicited by mail, facsimile, telephone, telegraph, electronic mail, in person and by advertisements. The Pardus Nominees may make solicitations of proxies but will not receive compensation for acting as nominees. Solicitations may be made by certain directors, officers, members and employees of the Fund, PCM or PCM LLC, none of whom will receive additional compensation for such solicitation.

None of the Pardus Nominees has individually retained any person to provide proxy solicitation or advisory services in connection with the solicitation. The Fund has retained D.F. King & Co., Inc. for solicitation and advisory services in connection with the solicitation, for which D.F. King & Co., Inc. has received a fee of $10,000 (creditable toward the final fee in an amount not to exceed $105,000), together with reimbursement for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, and will be indemnified against certain liabilities and expenses. D.F. King & Co., Inc. will solicit proxies from individuals, brokers, banks, bank nominees and other institutional holders. The Fund will request banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward all solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of the shares of Common Stock they hold of record. The Fund will reimburse these record holders for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in so doing. It is anticipated that D.F. King & Co., Inc. will employ approximately 50 persons to solicit the Company's stockholders for the Annual Meeting.

The entire expense of soliciting proxies is being borne by the Fund. The Fund does not currently intend to seek reimbursement of the costs of this solicitation from the Company. The costs of this solicitation of proxies, and other costs specifically related to this solicitation, are currently estimated to be approximately $300,000. The Fund estimates that through the date hereof, its total expenditures in connection with this solicitation are approximately $[200,000].

Such shares of Common Stock and Debt held by the Fund were purchased through and are held in brokerage custodian accounts which, from time to time in the ordinary course, may utilize margin borrowing in connection with purchasing, borrowing, or holding of securities, and such shares of Common Stock and Debt may thereby be, or in the future become, subject to the terms and conditions of such margin debt and terms, together with all other securities held therein.
