Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Under the terms of the Stockholder Agreement between COUNTRY Life Insurance Company (COUNTRY Life) and Shield dated October 29, 2003 (the Stockholder Agreement), COUNTRY Life has the right, under certain circumstances and as described further in Item 4 herein, to purchase from Shield up to 2,102,385 shares of the Issuer's Common Stock held by Shield (the Shares) for an aggregate exercise price of $42.6 million (or $20.25 per share). In the event COUNTRY Life exercises its right to acquire the Shares under the terms of the Stockholder Agreement, to Shield's knowledge, COUNTRY Life intends to obtain the funds necessary to acquire such Shares, directly or indirectly, from internal cash and short term investment assets.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

On October 29, 2003, certain companies of COUNTRY Insurance & Financial Services (COUNTRY) on the one hand, and Shield, Issuer and other companies of the Cotton States Insurance Group (Cotton States) on the other hand, entered into a letter agreement (the Letter Agreement), which outlines the terms of a proposed transaction (the Transaction). The Transaction includes, among other things, the acquisition by COUNTRY Life or an affiliate of all outstanding capital stock of the Issuer, including the stock owned by Shield, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cotton States Mutual. The Letter Agreement provides, however, that the Letter Agreement does not constitute a binding agreement for the purchase of the Issuer and certain of its affiliates but shall represent the intention of the parties to proceed to consummate the Transaction. Simultaneously with the execution of the Letter Agreement, COUNTRY Life and Shield entered into the Stockholder Agreement, the terms of which grant COUNTRY Life an option and a proxy (more fully described below) with respect to the Shares.

Letter Agreement.

Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, Cotton States Mutual, the Issuer and each of their affiliates agreed that immediately upon execution and delivery of the Letter Agreement they would terminate all negotiations and other discussions with third parties regarding an affiliation, acquisition, business combination or purchase of all or any portion of the stock or assets of Cotton States Mutual, the Issuer or any of their affiliates, whether by stock purchase, merger, asset acquisition or otherwise (an Acquisition). Additionally, Cotton States Mutual, the Issuer and each of their affiliates agreed that for a period beginning on the date of acceptance of the Letter Agreement until the earlier of (i) January 31, 2004, or (ii) the date on which COUNTRY provides notice in writing of its intention to terminate the Letter Agreement (the Exclusivity Period), neither Cotton States Mutual, the Issuer nor any of their affiliates, nor any officer, director, employee, agent or representative (including their financial or other advisors), would, directly or indirectly:

- (i) solicit, encourage or initiate inquiries, offers or proposals from, or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, any person or entity concerning any Acquisition; or
 - (ii) except as required by law, disclose any information not customarily disclosed to any person or entity concerning the business and properties of Cotton States Mutual, the Issuer or any of their affiliates, or afford to any person or entity access to the properties, books or records of Cotton States Mutual, the Issuer or any of their affiliates or otherwise assist or encourage any person or entity in connection with the foregoing.

CUSIP No. 221774102

13D

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the terms of the Letter Agreement will not prohibit Cotton States and its Board of Directors from taking any action to comply with its fiduciary duties imposed by applicable law, including, without limitation, the termination of the Letter Agreement; provided, however, in the event of such termination, COUNTRY will be entitled to receive the break-up fee described below and shall be entitled to exercise its rights pursuant to the Stockholder Agreement (as described below) for the period set forth in the Letter Agreement.

The Letter Agreement provides that, if, during the Exclusivity Period, Cotton States Mutual, the Issuer or any of their affiliates receives any offer with respect to an Acquisition, Cotton States Mutual shall immediately provide a copy of such offer to COUNTRY and shall keep COUNTRY informed of all steps Cotton States Mutual, the Issuer or any of their affiliates are taking in response to such Acquisition proposal. Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, Cotton States also agreed that if: (i) the board of directors of either Cotton States Mutual or the Issuer fails to approve the Transaction within seven days of completion of the definitive Transaction agreements; (ii) the board of directors of either Cotton States Mutual or the Issuer withdraws or modifies its approval of the Letter Agreement or the Transaction; (iii) during the Exclusivity Period, Cotton States fails to comply with the exclusivity provisions of the Letter Agreement; or (iv) during the Exclusivity Period and for a period of 365 days thereafter either (x) an Acquisition of Cotton States is consummated by a third party other than COUNTRY or (y) Cotton States enters into an Acquisition agreement with a party other than COUNTRY, then Cotton States Mutual and the Issuer, jointly and severally, would, simultaneously with such event, pay to COUNTRY (by wire transfer of immediately available funds) $6.5 million. However, if during the Exclusivity Period (i) COUNTRY requires the Issuer to execute a new letter agreement or definitive agreement that reduces the price per share of the Issuer's stock below $20.25, and (ii) the Board of Directors of Cotton States recommends to its shareholders that the shareholders accept, tender into, or vote in favor of an unsolicited proposal from a third party to purchase all of the shares of the Issuer stock at a price per share that is higher than the price then being proposed by COUNTRY, then such action, after appropriate negotiation and due diligence with such third party, would not constitute a breach of the exclusivity provisions of the Letter Agreement, and COUNTRY would not be entitled to receive the amount set forth in the Letter Agreement and would not be entitled to exercise its rights pursuant to the Stockholder Agreement (described below).

The terms of the Letter Agreement also provided that, contemporaneously with accepting the Letter Agreement, Cotton States Mutual would cause Shield to execute and deliver to COUNTRY a stockholder agreement pertaining to the Shares in the form provided.

While the terms of the Letter Agreement are generally non-binding, those terms with respect to the Exclusivity Period, Stockholder Agreement and payment of amounts upon certain conditions described above are binding.

The foregoing descriptions are qualified in their entirety by reference to the text of the Letter Agreement which is incorporated herein by this reference and a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Schedule 13D.

Stockholder Agreement.

Option. Under the terms of the Stockholder Agreement, Shield has granted to COUNTRY Life an irrevocable option (the Option) to purchase the Shares then held by Shield at a price of US$20.25 per share, payable in cash. Subject to the terms of the Stockholder Agreement, the Option is exercisable at any time after the occurrence of any Acquisition Proposal (as defined below) or an event entitling COUNTRY to the break-up fee set forth in the Letter Agreement. The Option expires on the earliest of: (i) the date that is 365 days after the expiration of the Exclusivity Period; (ii) the date that is thirty (30) days after the later of the date that all approvals to the Transaction required under applicable insurance regulatory laws have been obtained or a final non-appealable determination or order has been made that such approvals will not be granted; all waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the HSR Act) required for the purchase of the Shares upon such exercise shall have expired or been terminated or a final non-appealable determination or order has been made that such approval will not be granted; and all other conditions to closing have been satisfied; and (iii) the date a final non-appealable order of a federal or state court in effect preventing the exercise of the Option or consummation of the Transaction or any law or order enacted, promulgated or issued or deemed applicable to the Option or the Transaction by any governmental entity that would make exercise of the Option or consummation of the Transaction illegal. Under the terms of the Stockholder Agreement, the term Acquisition Proposal means any proposal or offer made by any person or group other than COUNTRY or COUNTRY Life (in each case, whether or not in writing and whether or not delivered to the stockholders of the Issuer generally) relating to: (i) any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase which is structured to permit such person or group to acquire beneficial ownership of at least 10% of the assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries or of over 10% of any class of equity securities of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (ii) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any person, other than COUNTRY, COUNTRY Life, their affiliates or any group of which any of them is a member beneficially owning 10% or more of any class of equity securities of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; or (iii) any merger, consolidation, business combination, sale of substantially all the assets, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries.

Voting of Shares. Under the Stockholder Agreement, Shield has agreed that, during the term of the Option, Shield shall, at any meeting of the stockholders of the Issuer, however called, or in connection with any written consent of the stockholders of the Issuer, vote (or cause to be voted) all Shares then held of record or beneficially owned by Stockholder, (i) in favor of the Transaction, the execution and delivery by the Issuer of the agreements related to the Transaction and the approval of the terms thereof and each of the other actions contemplated by such agreements and the Stockholder Agreement and any actions required in furtherance thereof; and (ii) against any proposal relating to an Acquisition Proposal or any action or agreement that would impede, frustrate, prevent or nullify the Stockholder Agreement or result in a breach in any respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Issuer under the Letter Agreement or the definitive agreements with respect to the Transaction; provided, however, that Shield shall continue to have the right to vote in its sole discretion at an annual meeting on all matters not involving or related to the Transaction or an Acquisition Proposal. Under the Stockholder Agreement, Shield also, subject to any regulatory approval, if any, required to be obtained from a governmental agency under insurance regulatory laws, irrevocably granted to and appointed COUNTRY Life and any of its designees (and each of them individually) Shield's proxy and attorney-in-fact (with full power of substitution) for and in the name, place and stead of Shield, to vote the Shares beneficially owned by Shield, or to grant a consent or approval in respect of such Shares, in the manner specified above. Such proxy is coupled with an interest and is therefore irrevocable.

Covenants. Under the terms of the Stockholder Agreement, Shield also has agreed that it will not:

- (a) offer to transfer (which term shall include, without limitation, any sale, tender, gift, pledge, assignment or other disposition), transfer, or consent to any transfer of, any or all of the Shares beneficially owned by Shield or any interest therein,
- (b) enter into any contract, option or other agreement or understanding with respect to any transfer of any or all of such Shares or any interest therein,
- (c) grant any proxy, power-of-attorney or other authorization or consent in or with respect to such Shares,
- (d) deposit such Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or arrangement with respect to such Shares, or
- (e) take any other action that would make any representation or warranty of Shield contained in the Stockholder Agreement untrue or incorrect or in any way restrict, limit or interfere with the performance of its obligations under the Stockholder Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby.

Additionally, under the terms of the Stockholder Agreement, Shield has agreed that it will not, directly or indirectly:

- (a) solicit, encourage or initiate inquiries, offers or proposals from, or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, any person or entity concerning any Acquisition; or
- (b) except as required by law, disclose any information not customarily disclosed to any person or entity concerning the business and properties of any of the companies in Cotton States or any of their affiliates, or afford to any person or entity access to the properties, books or records of any of the companies in Cotton States or any of their affiliates or otherwise assist or encourage any person or entity in connection with the foregoing.

The foregoing descriptions are qualified in their entirety by reference to the text of the Stockholder Agreement, which is incorporated herein by this reference and a copy of which is filed as an Exhibit 99.2 to this Schedule 13D.
